AGRICULTURAL.

The Potato.

Mr. George May, of Benthall, England, in his prize essay on the potato gives the results of experiments on 116 trial plots, which may be summed up as follows:

1. Every increase in the size of the set, from one ounce to eight ounces in weight, produces an increase in the crop much greater than the additional weight of the set planted. The net profit, over and above the extra weight of sets in planting four ounce sets in lieu of one ounce sets, amounted, on the whole series of experiment's to between three and four tons per acre, and the further profit, on the increase of the size of the set from four ounces to eight ounces, averaged about five tons per acre, all the intermediate steps partaking proportionately of the increase.

2. The advantage of large sets is more marked in the late than in the early varieties.

3. In the use of small sets, of from one to three ounces in weight, a large balance over and above the weight of the sets was obtained by planting from six to nine inches apart in the rows than at wider intervals.

4. Increasing the intervals at which the sets are planted, even of the largest size in the rows, no more than twelve inches, diminishes the crop, and the wider intervals induce no increase in the weight of the produce of the individual sets.

5. It may be broadly stated that the weight of the crops is proportionate to the weight per acre of the sets. The fact is, however, of limited application, as a weight of very small sets, equal to a weight of full-sized potatoes, could not be got into the ground, except by planting them so close as to be prejudicial to the crop. The advantage, therefore, of large sets, remains practically unimpaired.

6. Weight for weight, cut sets to produce as nearly as possible the same weight per acre as whole potatoes, but, for the reason given above, the weight of the sets should not be reduced by subdivision.

7. Smaller sets give a larger produce in proportion to their weight than the larger sets.

8. When the intervals between the sets in rows are diminished to less than a foot, the produce of each individual set is proportionately diminished. Though this is not necessarily accompanied by a diminution of the weight of the crop, no increase in the produce of each individual set is caused by placing the set at intervals wider than a foot.

9. With reference to the relative produce of different varieties a late red sort takes precedence throughout the experiments, and of the several varieties of Rukes, "Spencer's King of Pinkes," are much more prolific than the ordinary variety.

As to the manure best adapted to the potato, it was found by Dr. Lanz that all nitrogenous dressings tried in Devonshire were rather prejudicial than otherwise, as regards the potato disease, but the wood ashes (which abound in potash) and lime and salt were beneficial.

Experiments with regard to manures were carried on under the direction of Prof. Volker, and on examining them the following deductions have been made:

1. The best crop was obtained by the use of rotten barn-yard manure.

2. Superphosphate and crude potash-salts—a pure mineral manuring—gave a nearly equal increase. The mixture of superphosphate and crude potash salts appear to be specially useful for root-crops on light land.

3. Common salt enhances the efficiency of the superphosphate and potash-salts, but when used alone it slightly diminishes the crop.

4. Potash-salts applied alone, though by no means the most desirable manure for potatoes, nevertheless had a better effect than common salt; for while the crude potash-salts gave an increase of nearly 8 cwt. per acre, common salt produced 7 cwt. and 11 lbs. less than the unmanured plots on the average.

Effect Of Bone Dust.

A Westbury (Vt.) subscriber of the New England Farmer thus writes about the effect of bone dust:

I see a great deal in your paper about bone dust or flour. I have thought a great many times I would give you a little of my experience in that matter. In 1844 I lived in the house of an independent farmer, and planted about three-fourths of an acre of corn on a pine plain. That farmer had for many years been gathering all the bones he could find. That spring he carried them to a plaster mill and got them ground. He gave me a peck of the flour, which I put on one-half of my piece of corn. It had a wonderful effect. The stalks grew a foot taller than the other half, and were darker colored, and the ears were from two to four inches longer. The difference through the season was such that passers by often called upon me to know what made the difference. I could only tell them that dry bone did it.

The farmer experimented with it by putting bone on two rows, plaster of Paris on the adjoining two, house ashes on the next two, then two with nothing, but the manure which was applied alike to the whole field. Thus contrasted the effect was wonderful. I am not able to give the difference in the yield of corn when harvested, as it is so long that I have forgotten; but I do remember very plainly how the corn looked when growing and there was a great difference in the appearance of the rows experimented with.

SHEEP.—Sheep are wintering in Illinois very well this season, it is announced—a marked contrast with last year. This season they went into winter quarters in fine condition; last season was exactly the opposite. A large and very excellent wool clip may be expected the coming spring. There are no deaths among the sheep thus far, while last year deaths were reported on all sides.

MINCE PIES WITHOUT APPLES OR MEAT.—Six crackers, one cup of molasses, two cups of sugar, one-half cup of vinegar, and two cups boiling water, will make three pies.

WASHING MACHINE.

It is generally conceded that "the best is always the cheapest" and that being the case great pleasure is taken in introducing to the public

DOTY'S CLOTHES WASHER

which is rapidly becoming popular and with this Machine the hard work of washing is mitigated to a comfortable and pleasant task. The clothes are placed in hot suds, and shut in. While thus immersed and the steam confined, the Machine is operated as seen above. Thus the work is speedily, clearly and easily done, and that too without tearing and wearing out the clothes, which to a great extent is the cause under the old fashioned rubbing process the whole labor of washing is run a pleasant passage compared with the former mode of RUBBING AND CASKING and twisting and wringing. The dirt is so dissolved by the HOT SUDS that but little compression is necessary to expel it. No family in the County should be without

A BUSINESS CHAT.

Good morning, Squire, which way with your bundle of wood?

Oh my way home, sir; I have got rolls for my old woman to card.

Well Squire, it is a fair question, where did you get carding done so soon?

O, at Vance's Factory.

Where is that?

Near Orangeville. I tell you it pays to get carding done there. Vance cards for 6 cts. per lb. if you take and bring your wool. He has re-built his machine and got new cards on. Depend on it no poor rolls are made there, as he is tending his machine himself this season. He says for an accommodation for those who live at a distance if they leave their wool at either of the Stores in Orangeville, the same will be attended to. Also, their cloth for fulling coloring and dressing.

Over 24 years, since June 1843, Vance has been steady at the business, with one regular price. No ups and downs in his prices. Rich and poor all served alike.

BEALE'S LATE

POWELL'S EMBROCATION,

FOR ALL DISEASES INCIDENT TO HORSES, CATTLE, AND THE

requiring the use of an external application.

This new Compound, prepared by a practical Chemist, being a full knowledge of all the medical virtues of each ingredient that enters into its composition, is warranted to exceed anything of the kind ever yet offered to the public as an external application for the diseases for which it is recommended. We are satisfied that it will work its own root into the confidence of all who use it, and those who try it once will never be without it, and therefore we rely on experience as the best test of its usefulness. It is pronounced and all who have tried it, to be the best application ever used. This Embrocation has been put up for over eight years, and it is only through the entire and urgent request of my friends and the public that I send it forth as the great remedial agent for the various diseases to which that noble and useful animal, the horse is subject.

Many remedies have been offered to the public under different forms, some of these are injurious, others at best of little use, and many wholly improper to answer the purposes for which they are recommended.

A judicious and really useful composition, free from those objections, has heretofore long been desired by many gentlemen who have

and are unwilling to trust them to the care of designing and pretended farriers. Their wishes are at length fully gratified by (Dr. Beale) being prevailed upon to allow this valuable Embrocation (which has proved so effectual to the various diseases) to be prepared and brought out to the public.

This Embrocation was extensively used by the Government during the war.

Address all order to DR. EDMOND BEALE,
602 South Second St. Philadelphia, Pa.

BROWN & PERKINS.

Pianos for the People!

420 Broome St., N. Y.

We would call the attention of the public and the trade to our elegant New scale Pianos, in the following styles:

STYLE A. 7 octave, Front large round corners, plain case, either octagon or carved legs. Straight bottom, bead moulding on plinth ... $450

STYLE B. 7 octave, same as style A with serpentine moulding on plith, carved legs and lyre.. 500

STYLE C. 7 octave, Front corners large round serpentine bottom, mouldings same as on style D, carved lyre and desk, fancy carved legs ... 550

STYLE D. 7 octave, Four large round corners, finished back, mouldings on rim and plinth, serpentine bottom carved lyre and desk, elegant carved trait legs ... 600

The above styles are all finished in elegant rosewood cases and have the full iron frame, French action, harp pedal, beveled top, ivory keys and key fronts and carved in overstrung bass, nearly all the 7 1/3 Octave Pianos now manufactured. They are made of the best materials and for finish, durability, purity and sweetness of tone, cannot be surpassed. We invite the attention of the public, of dealers and the profession to a critical examination of the merits of our Pianos.

By avoiding the great expenses attendant upon costly factories and expensive warerooms in the city, we are enabled to offer these Pianos at prices which defy competition, and invite all to call and examine them before purchasing elsewhere. Parties ordering from a distance can rely upon receiving their Pianos promptly, and no confusion can arise as the styles are so distinctly designated by the letters A B C D.

The four styles described above, embody all the essential changes in exterior finish of case, which are by many manufacturers run up to 15 and 20 patterns.
