"To all Whom it may Concern."

All those of our patrons indebted to us either for job work or subscription to the DEMOCRAT, will please make payment between this and the first of April next. We have commenced a new volume, and it is our current desire to have all back subscriptions settled up by the time above stated, and all who do not call and settle or remit their and fifty cents. They have an opportunity now to save fifty cents, will they do it? This notice is intended to apply to those only scho are in arrears, and we do not wish any subscriber to take offence at it, but if he owes the printer, is a friend to the DEMO-CRAT and its principles and desires to see the paper sustained, he will walk straight up to the Captain's office (asking no questions further than "what's the amount of my bill") and "fork over." Those who have too great a distance to walk will please remit by mail, in a registered letter, and we'll be willing to take the risk of a safe delivery. The time has gone by when papers could be printed and trusted out year after year. We expect to shake the hands of several hundred of our patrons, many of whom we have not seen for two or three years. Come, gentlemen, do not leave us be disappointed. We don't only want our money, but we want to renew our acquaintance, besides better enable ourself by your visits to give you a larger and better paper. We think we hear some one at the door-down goes the pen-

Impeachment. According to reports from Washington the President would file his answer to the articles of impeachment on Monday last. Then, the managers, on the part of the House would file their replication. When this replication is put in, it was expected that the President's counsel would ask for longer time to prepare. At the time of going to press there is no news from Washington on these questions, but it is believed that the foregoing is substantially the programme

Death of Hon. John P. Glass.

We regret to learn that the Hon. John P. Glass. Speaker of the last House of Representatives, died at his home in Pittsburg on Sunday. The deceased was well known throughout the State, and during his Legislative term, by his official action and personal deportment, made many friends, who will receive with sorrow the sad tidings of his death.

SKELETON OF A MAN FOUND IN THE Woods.-On Monday or Tuesday of last town. week, says the Pottsville Standard, a party of men or boys, while out gunning near Raub's, in the neighborhood of Ringtown, discovered the skeleton of a man. He appeared to be well dressed, having on new soots, good clothing, etc. About his clothes were found a prayer book, a pistol, some keys, three clay pipes, and a watch chain. When found he was lying on a declivity; above him were his hat and overcoat. A Coroner's jury was empannoled, who, after viewing the case, came to the conclusion that he was one of the party who, about a year ago, attacked the house of Mr. Henry Rapp, near the place above mentioned, where Mr. Johnson was killed, and Mr. Rapp severely wounded. It is supposed from circumstantial evidence, that this man, after being shot by Johnson left the main body of assailants and took to the woods, the being tracked in that direction for some distance,) tying a handkerchief (which was found on him) around his body to prevent the blood from dropping, and thus enable his pursuers to track him. Persons living in the neighborhood had often noticed the effluvia, peculiar to a dead body long exposed, but could not account for it. Remarkable to state, the skin was in a good state of preservation, but everything else, save the covered it. Last week he raised it, and on bones was decayed. The body was lying weighing it, it ran up to the extraordinary twenty yards from the road, and had, it is weight of nine pounds. supposed, been lying there since the 21st of last March, nearly a year ago. His remains were buried on the mot.

"An Exposition."

The Columbian came out on Friday morning last, containing an article under the above caption, attempting to explain to the voters of Bloom township how the Demo- 2 p. m. cratic ticket was formed, which starts out by secreting that "it has been the custom for the Democrats to meet in the office of the Register and form a ticket to be supported by the citizens of Bloom township who agree with them." To our recollection "it was ed in Unangst's brick building, and afterwards removed to the rooms over Miller's of the Court of Claims. store which were occupied at the same time by WESLEY WIRT and C. G. BARKLEY. Esqrs., as a Law office. At these rooms the Democrats of the township regularly met for years and made their nominations, and since the abandonment of this Democratic Reading Association, which is a little over a year, there has been no regular place of meeting. The ticket last spring (by the way which was more than one-half mongrelized) was formed at the Register's office. That fact is not disputed.

This spring, on the evening of the 3d of March, pursuant to notice given, a large and respectable number of Democrats attended a meeting in the office of BARKLEY and IKELER, Esqrs., and formed a ticket,-two weeks before the meeting was held in the Register's office. It would seem that the men who met in the Register's office took up or agreed upon the same ticket that was formed in the office of BARKLEY and IKE-LER, with but two exceptions, viz: they left off the name of A. J. EVANS, a Democrat, for School Director, and substituted that of WM. PRACOCK, a Conservative (Republican) in his stead! and for Constable, they put up the name of MICHAEL WALTER in place of WILLIAM F. BODINE who was on the first regularly formed ticket. This last difference did not appear after the time of voting had subscriptions will be charged two dollars arrived. In place of the name of Mr. WAL-TER, that of Mr. BODINE appeared on their ticket for Constable, thus making the Register's office selections conform with the ticket put in nomination some two weeks and more previous to the election, with but one exception, and that was, as above stated, the name of a Conscrvative in place of a Democrat!

The nominations made some fourteen days before the meeting held in the Register's office, could not have been made and circulated with any other intent and design but to defeat the regularly nominated Radical candidates. It is very presumptuous and impolitic on the part of the Columbian to insinuate anything to the contrary, while it was supporting the same men ! As to the funds raised to print the ticket formed in the Register's office, we have only to say that, we saw nothing of it, neither was the ticket brought to our office requesting us to print it. If the meeting, in which our interests were so well taken care of, had done its whole duty, would not it have appointed a committee or have delegated some person to see the printer in relation to printing tickets? This was not done. A ticket was put in writing by Capt. B., Capt. B. agreed that Mr. Jacoby should print the Philadelphia. Sample copies, 15 cents. tickets, (how magnanimous?) a ticket was presented by Mr. IKELER to Capt. B., in the hand-writing of Capt. B., Capt. B. also refused to print any ticket except the one settled on by the meeting held by Capt. B. for that special purpose, and yet Capt. B. did print the same ticket, with one exception, and thus saved the funds Capt. B. proposed to give us, if we would print it with the name of one Democrat less than was originally put upon the ticket! The first meeting was held on the 3d inand the second meeting convened in the Register's office on the 17th. This being the fact. we would ask which meeting changed the ticket, with the intent and design to throw victory into the hands of the Radicals? Certainly not the meeting that York. convened on the 3d. As to the attendance at these meetings, we are reliably informed by a gentleman who was at both, that the number of persons at BARKLEY and IKE-LER's office was much the largest, although an invitation may not have been extended to all who call themselves Democrats in this

RED TAPE.—Red Tape has often been burlesqued, but we doubt if a more extreme case was ever recorded than the following. credited to the English War Department: "There is a tradition, said to be historical, concerning a clerk in the war office who once wanted a peg whereon to hang his hat. To save the expenses of a carpenter he applied for a hammer and a nail, with which to drive it in himself. Six months passed before he received an answer to his request, and he had long and set up a peg of his own, when a special messenger from the Tower arrived in Pall Mall with a hammer sent to him at last through the medium of numberless requisitions and authorizations. At the same time he was informed that it was not of the war officials to supply nails, but that these would come to him from Woolwhich, and after a few months' further waiting, they really did arrive—a pound of nails. brought by a great ambulance wagon, with its half dozen horses and its dozen attendants."

FOUND.—On Sunday last the nude body of Mrs. Gibbony, of Lewisburg, was found in the river, opposite this place. It will be remembered that about the 1st of January last we published an account of her disappearance from her home, and the finding of her clothing along the river bank at Lewis. burg. Every effort was made at that time to find her body, without avail. The deceased was melancholy, and no doubt destroyed her own life. - Northumberland Democrat.

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR APRIL.-A beautiful and pathetic steel engraving, "Caught by the Tide," is the leading embellishment in the April number of this "Queen of the Monthlies" -- it is a story in itself. This is followed by the usual refined and elegant steel Fashion Plate-so superior to Fashion Plates generally. "The Day after the Failure," is a touching picture.-Of course, there are numerous engravings devoted to fashions, and to different styles of lady's and children's dresses, &c. The music for this month is the popular song, "Lady, do not Trust the Stranger," which is worth of itself the price of the number. The literary contents are excellent as usual; among them we may specify "The Work of a Day," by Mrs. Hosmer; "Widows versus Doctors," by Frances A. Shaw; "A Dead Man's Rule," by Elisabeth Prescott; "My SAD ACCIDENT. - A sad and fatal accident occurred on Saturday morning last, to a young married woman named Rebecca Mellon employed as a domestic in the family of A. B. Croup, of Briarcreek township, this County, by the explosion of a coal oil lamp. It appears she arose very early on Saturday morning, in order to complete her work and toilet preparatory to a visit to her friends. She lit the lamp and placed it on the window. when it immediately exploded, igniting her dress. In a moment she was enveloped in flames. Her screams aroused the family, who hastily arose and assisted in smothering the fire. The upper portion of her body was so badly burned, as to preclude all hopes of her recovery. She died on Saturday night having survived about twelve hours. Her remains were taken to Newport, Luzerne county, for burial on Monday last. Let her fate be a warning to others.—Berwick Gazette.

WYOMING VALLEY HOTEL.-Messrs. Ward & Co., sold out the above well-known hotel on Monday last, to Hon. J. B. Stark, of this place. Our people will part with the Wards with great regret, as their names were identified with the wide-spread fame of the house, and to their management it owes its popularity and renown as second to none in the State. It is gratifying to know, however, that Mr. Stark is a most enterprising and liberal minded gentlemen, and will spare nothing in his efforts to maintain or even increase the reputation of Wyoming

The subject of the above notice was born at Still Water, Fishingereek township, Columbia county, and is believed to have been the first white male child born in the valley of Fishingereek, above Orangeville. He is the last of six brothers, all of whom were well known throughout the county. By his death one more of the links that binds the past to the present is broken. These old people, God bless them, are the living histories of events long since passed away. We are interested in them, because they record events that we cannot well learn elsewhere, and because we know their testimony will be soon closed up and sealed from us forever.

He was so well acquainted with the woods that latitude and longitude seemed to be a natural instinct; hence, wherever he hunted, whether on his own native hills or in the vast and intricate wilds of the mountains, he was never at a loss to know how to "strike his course" -There is said to be an unexampled run for home. But Uncle John is gone! The rifle of 'The Old Hunter" is silent on the hooks, and his pouch and horn unused upon the peg. Yet long will they be associated in the minds of his family and many friends with he who used them so successfully in life.

He was a firm Democrat, a good citizen, an obliging neighbor, a kind father, a courtoous gentleman and an honest man. Let us hope that he has gone to enjoy the unspeakable pleasures of that life that shall never end. J. 8.
