I use as a top dressing for potatoes, a mixture of fifty-six pounds of sulphate of soda, fifty-six pounds of sulphate of magnesia and fifty-six pounds of salt per acre, sown broadside as soon as the sets are planted. My potatoes so grown have been abundant in quantity and excellent quality, and have almost entirely escaped the potato dis-

I have also found muriate of potash an excellent manure for potatoes, sown in the drill at the rate of two hundred pounds per acre. I speak of these as a top dressing: the best manure to plow in before planting. is well rotted stable dung. The following manure will be found to produce good crops of potatoes: Salt, two hundred pounds, muriate of potash, muriate of ammonia and phosphate of lime, one hundred pounds each; spread evenly over the surface and plowed in. This manure has the property of producing a stout good haulm, and the plants retain their foliage longer than when stable manure is employed. With this mixture alone, potatoes have been grown at the rate of three hundred bushels per acre. -Cor. of Form and Fireside:

THE BEST TOMATO FOR CULTIVATION .-After trying a number of new kinds recently introduced to public notice. I have about come to the conclusion that none of them are superior to the old Fejec, or pink varicty. If it were a few weeks earlier, its uni. form large size and excellent quality would leave but little to be desired in the tomato line; and this possibility might be attained by cultivation, taking pains to save seed every year only from the very earliest specimens. On the contrary, however, this is rarely done, as everybody is desirous of enjoying the ripe fruit as early as possible, far superior, as it certainly is, to that most carefully prepared in cans, though this last, of course, is better all winter than no tematoes at all. Notwithstanding the Eureka, Early Prolifics, etc., which we hear cracked up every year as something new, if no better than what we already have, it seems to me that if we confine ourselves to the Pejee for size and quality, and concentrate our efforts on getting it as much carlier than it now is as we possibly can, that all that can fairly be expected in the tomato line will be realized. If any of your readers have anything better in the way of this excellent standard vegetable, they will be doing the public a great benefit by making it known. -Farmer's Advertisers

A Thrifty farmer, who believes in making old things last these times, says: "There is one thing that nearly everybody knows and hardly anylody attends to, that is to sprinkle slacked lime on their roofs once a year, either in fall or spring. If the shingles are covered ever so thick with moss, the lime soon clears it off, leaving the roof clear and white, and good for a dozen years longer. It ought to be put on pretty thick, and a rainy day is best for the work. Strong wood ashes will answer almost as well to keep old roofs in repair, but they will not look as nice. To make new shingles last three or four times the usual period they need only to be soaked a few days in a tank half full of thick lime water, which must be stirred up well before the shingles are put in-

To Destroy the Cut Worm.

The Practical Farmer says an excellent plan to keep off the cut worm from corn, is to drop about a tablespoonful of course salt on the top of the hill soon after planting. This is carried down by the rains, and acts as a fertelizer, besides killing the cut worm. Salt is peculiarly obnoxious to this class of insects, and perhaps all classes. Instead of putting the salt on the hill, some farmers spread about eight bushels to the acre broadcast, upon their corn fields after plowing in and before harrowing. This is a very profitable application. Farmers should bear these facts in mind when they plant corn in the coming spring.

TAN-BARK FOR PEACH TREES. -An Augusta Farmer of of eight years experience, says that if spent tan-bark from a tan-yard, be placed around peach trees that are free from worms at the time, will be perfectly protected thereby for years afterwards. He recommends it to be freely applied to all fruit trees. Those having good Peaches, should rid their trees of the worm, and apply one bushel or more to each tree. - I'llley Virginian.

SHEEP IN THE ORCHARD -A prominent orchardist informs the Prairie Farmer that in one of his orchards where sheep run during the season, the apple crop was almost entirely unaffected by the codling moth. Next season his entire orchard will be pastured with sheep. This an item worth remembering.

CATHARTIC PILLS

CATHARTIC PILLS

OPERATE by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other origins of the body, and, by restoring their irregular action to health, correct, wherever they enist, such derangements as are the first causes of disease. An extensive trial of their virtues, by Professors, Physicians, and Patients, has shown cures of dangerous diseases almost beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such smalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Their certificates are published in my American Almanac, which the Agents below ammed are pleased to furnish free to all inquiring.

Annexed we give Directions for their use in the complaints which they have been found to cure.

For Cortiveness.—Take one or two Pills, or such quantity as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of Pilms, and the cure of one complaint is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under a costive habit of body. Hence it should be, as it can be, promptly relieved.

For Dypersia, which is sometimes the cause of Costiveness, and always uncomfortable, take mills doses—from one to four—to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy action. They will do it, and the heartburn, bodyburn, and soulburn of dyspepsia will rapidly disappear. When it has gone, don't forget what cured you.

For a Foul Stomach, or Morbid Inaction of the Stomach, Buck, or Side, take from four to eight pills and strength is restored to the system.

For Schopula, Existers and all Disease of the Skin, take the Pills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The cruptions will generally soon begin to diminish and disappear. Many dreadful ulcers and sores have been healed up by the purging and purifying effect of these Pills, and some disgusting diseases which seemed to saturate the whole system have completely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in perfe

cine ever discovered. They should be taken freely and frequently, and the impurities which sow the seeds of incurable diseases will be swept out of the system like chaff before the wind. By this property they do as suuch good in preventing sickness as by the remarkable cures which they are making every LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, and all Bilious Affections arise from some derangement—either torpidity, congestion, or obstructions of the Liver. Torpidity and congestion vittate the bile and render it unfit for digestion. This is disastrous to the health, and the constitution is frequently underit unfit for digestion. This is disastrous to the health, and the constitution is frequently undermined by no other cause. Indigestion is the symptom. Obstruction of the duct which empties the bile into the stomach causes the bile to overflow into the blood. This produces Jaundice, with a long and dangerous train of evils. Coatteness, or alternately costiveness and diarrhæa, prevails. Feveriah symptoms. Inner low spirits, weariness, reatlessness, and metamcholy, with sometimes inability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsiness; sometimes there is accret pain in the side; the skin and the white of the eyes become a greenish yellow; the stomach acid; the bowels sore to the touch; the whole system irritable, with a tendency to fever, which may turn to bilious fever, bilious colic, bilious diarrhæa, dysentery, &c. A medium dose of three or four Fills taken at night, followed by two or three in the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove the cause of all these troubles. It is wicked to suffer such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents. Rekenatism, Gott, and all Infammatory Facers are rapidly cured by the purifying effects of these Pills upon the blood and the stimulus which they afford to the vital principle of Life. For these and all kindred complaints they should be taken in mild doses, to move the bowels gently, but freely.
