THE EXCHANGE HOTEL at this place is undergoing a thorough and complete ren-ovation. Its interior arrangement is being entirely changed, from the first floor to the attie. The energetic and enterprising proattic. The energetic and enterprising proprietors, KOONS & CLARK, authorize us to say, that they expect to be prepared to accommodate all their old and new friends by the 4th of May, (Court week). Of course, they will not be entirely through with all they will not be entirely through with all to witness the equestrian performance may their anticipated improvements, but will be have an opportunity to depart, before the so far advanced as to enable them to give general satisfaction to their guests. It is the intention to newly furnish the entire house, at an expense to make it rank second to no other in contral Pennsylvania.

A COMMITTEE from the Bloomsburg Literary Institute, together with several other friends of education and enter-prise, had the additional grounds marked off and surveyed on Monday last, for the erection of the contemplated Normal School Buildings; which will, there is scarcely a doubt, be put up the coming summer, on grounds connected with and adjacent to the Bloomsburg Literary Institute premises. Our more enterprising and liberal citizens feel a determination to carry through this project of establishing a Normal School in his town. We have been informed that his work will not be performed under the provisions of the act of Assembly, passd for that object, but by means and influnces acquired through other sources.

DAN RICE'S GREAT MENAGERIE AND CIRCUS.-Both old and young will learn with much pleasure and anticipations of musement and fun, that the very popular Dan Rice, is coming and will pitch his nammoth tent among us on Thursday the Oth inst., for the farewell professional visit. o where is he a greater favorite than in loomsburg, where he numbers his admirers the thousand, and while all will regret at his coming visit will be his last, all will rgely flock to enjoy his witty comments on times, and his characteristic humors, llies and local hits.

The menageric besides an admirable colction of magnificent and rare animals, emoes Dan's astonishing blind horse Excelr Jr., the beautiful trick horse, Stephen Douglas, and the unridable mules, Pete l Barndy.

The Circus performance is pronounced ly magnificent and startling, and in the ole entertainment we may safely look for mbination of attractions worthy of the t name it bears.
