NEXT week being "Court week" we hope our numerous patrons will not forget the printer.

Attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of Allen & Needles in another column of the Democrat.

JUSTICES' FEE BILLS for sale at this office. They are printed from the late act of the Legislature regulating fees.

THE Great Show-Dan Rice's Menagerie and Circus-will exhibit in this town on Thursday, (to-morrow.) All who desire to see a fine selection of animals together with a splendid Circus performance, will avail themselves of this opportunity.

CHRETER U. MARR, enterprising grocer in this town, is almost daily receiving fresh groceries from the castern cities, as well as large acquisitions to his dry-goods than the cheapest. Call and see for your-

What every body says must be so, that J. J. BROWER " has the cheapest, the best, and the most extensive assertment of dry-goods, groceries, notions, &c., in town.' From the crowd that we daily observe going to his store, we should think this report entirely correct.

J. D. MARCHBANK, dealer in Flour, Feed and Provisions, is prepared to furnish customers with excellent flour, smoked meat and halabut, fish, potatoes, beans, peas, prunes, cranberries, butter, eggs, cheese, and everything kept in a first-class provision store. Goods delivered when desired. See hie advertisement in another column.

JAMES LAKE, Ticket Agent at the Lackawanna & Bloomsburg Railroad Station near Espy, was robbed by a couple of ruffains, one evening last week, of his watch and some eighty dollars in money. They are still at large. Mr. Lake was returning to p. m. train. These scoundrels were lying in wait for the agent.

A. J. Evans, Merchant Tailor of this place, is constantly receiving new acquisitions to his already large stock of goods. With his first class workmen he feels confident that he can please all who may favor him with their trade. Leave your orders if you desire to be well suited. His spring goods and fashions are not surpassed in this town, northis side of the eastern cities.

IP you want to dress up your feet with handsome a pair of shoes or boots, of any style, for spring or summer wear, go to the "Keystone Boot and Shoe Store" on Main Street, south west corner of Market. Mr. Beckley sells a good article of both gentlemen's and ladics' wear, and what is CHARLES DOEBLER, Esq., of this town, has our thanks for copies of the Richmond (Va.) Dispatch. This paper is ably edited and in the right spirit. These Southern editors have done everything in their power to bring about a speedy and amicable settlement of the existing difficulties between the North and South, but all to no avail. The Radicals of the North have persitently held a deaf ear to them. The day of retribution is fast coming.

CHANGE -Those who wish early news should remember that the Scrunton Morning Republican is now served in this place regularly every morning to subscribers by Wesley G. Evans. The terms are but twelve cents per week. Leaving politics out (which are bad) it is one of our best dailies, and deserves success. Our friend. John T. Howe, has been looking after its interest in this locality, and has added a goodly number of names to his list. Subscribe if you desire your news at 9 a. m., instead of 5 ridge, quail, woodcock or snipe shall be p. m. Orders given to the carrier will be promptly attended to.

A son of Wesley Johnson, in Madison township, was terribly injured, one day last week, while attempting to cross, or etanding closely by the rod leading from the horse-power to the threshing machine, when all were in motion. His pantaloons catching fast to a bolt in the rod, his body was caused to make a number of revolutions, with much | penalty of twenty-five dollars. rapidity, before the machinery could be stopped, thus injuring one of his arms to such an extent that amoutation was found necessary, and hurting the other so as to never be of much service, besides terribly bruising and mangling his whole body. The above is as reported.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. - On Saturday, the 2d day of May next, the Columbia County Teachers' Institute, will hold a sesaion in this place. We trust the different townships throughout the County will be largely represented. We have no doubt the hospitality of our citizens will prove equal to the occasion. We have a handsome and commodious school room in which the Institute can hold its sessions, and if that is found to be too small, there is no doubt but that one of the churches can be had for that purpose. Come one, come all. and help to make this one of the most interesting as well as most profitable meetings of the Institute ever held in this County. -

ACCORDING to an act of Assembly, the cead will be removed in the St. Paul's Church burying ground to the Rosemont Cometery; or at least a sufficient number of the bodies to give space for the erection of a new church edifice, which is proposed to be erected this year. The bodies of James Evans and daughter, and Wm. H. Evans, were removed one day last week, through the supervision of John T. Howe. Those three bodies were taken up and re-interred in one afternoon, by two or three persons, and found to be in a tolerably good state of preservation, thus showing that it is not such a terrible job to remove these dead bodies after all. Two of them had been interred over ten years, the other not quite a year.

On Sunday night last the Bloomsburg Literary Institute was entered, through one of the front windows, by one or more persons, for what purpose it is difficult to determine. There was no damage done, and no article stolen. The discovery, of there being some person in the building, was made about 11 o'clock in the night; when several persons came together and proceeded to the premises; but were unable to find any one, or that any mischief was done-Their traces were visible. On leaving the his house after the passing down of the 8 building they went through a window on the North side of the house making the imprints of their feet visible in the soft ground. The object of this visit, may have been to obtain keys. It is hoped the hands of the law will soon get hold of these night prowlers and pilferers.

13 THE Tunkhannock Democrat says that an attempt to burn the Court House at that place, with all the records and archives, was made on Saturday night by some miscreant in human shape. The villain had made his arrangements for his infernal work with great care and deliberation, by scattering the contents of a bottle of kerosene on the bemp matting or carpet of the Hall on the inside of the inside doors, after which the match was applied. A portion of the door-sill and door were found considerably the most essential point connected with his burned and charred. About two feet square whole business is, that he sells cheap for of the carpet was destroyed by the fire. By an interposition which seems almost miraculous the fire thus kindled went out, saving to the people of the county all their valuable records and evidences of title. No certain clue has yet been found to the perpetrator of this dastardly act.
