BARN BURNED.—The Berwick Gaers in Bloomsburg. They command good zette says that on Tuesday afternoon last the large frame barn of Mr. Wm. Harter, of Nescopeck township, Luzerne county, was burned to the ground, and nearly all its contents, consisting of hay, grain, lumber, &c., consumed. The barn was comparatively new, having been built about nine years ago at a cost of from $1500 to $1800. There is no means of ascertaining the cause of the fire. Possibly it was the work of an incendiary, but that seems scarcely possible.-More likely it was the result of carelessness. There was about 3000 feet of lumber in the barn, besides some forty bushels of wheat and rvo. all of which was consumed, also some hay and a buggy. There was no live and his old stand on Main street. He stock burned with the exception of a calf, also pays particular attention to spouting as far as we could ascertain. The corn-crib and a considerable amount of corn was saved. There is an insurance of $600 pn the building, in the Wyoming Insurance Co. Mr. Harter had broken ground preparatory to building himself a new house, and the loss of his barn will be severely fult.
