Call for the National Democratic Convention.

The National Democratic Committee, by virtue of the authority enforced upon them by the last National Democratic Convention at a meting held this day at Wasthington, D. C., voted to hold the next Convention for the purpose of nominating candidates for president and Vice-President of the United States on the 4th day of July, 1868, at 12 o'clock M., in the City of New York. The basis of representation, as fixed by the last National Democratic Convention, is double the number of Senators and Representatives in Congress of each State under the last apportingment.

Each State is invited to send delegates accordingly.

AUGUST BELMONT, Chairman.

FREDRICK O. Parice, Scoretary. Washington, February 22, 1868.

Impeachment

Is virtually at an end. On Saturday last the Senate proceeded to voted on the have any substance in it, and the President was acquitted by a vote of nineteen to thirty-fine. The following Radical Republicans voted for acquittal, to wit; Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Anderson

Trumbull, Van Winkle and Ross: After the vote, an adjournment was carried until the 26th inst; but everybody, friends and foes of Impeachment, knows that the matter is over. What pext? It will be perceived that 36 votes would have been necessary to conviction.

WE ASSERT it without fear of contradiction that nine-tenths of the Democracy of this county, and of this Congressional District, do not desire a military man as their candidate for President. They are sick and tired of supporting men for policy sake .-What they want is a straight-forward, oldfashioned Democrat, one whose hands are clean of the war for the destruction of the Southern States, and who can come before the people with independence sufficient to questions of the day in such a manner that there will be no misunderstanding him. -The Chicago Convention no doubt, in our mind, will nominate Gen. Grant; but is that any good reason why the Democracy should take up a General of the late unrightcous and unjust war? Who will pretend to say that the war was just; and who will deny that the Abolition party did not inaugurate it? No man of common sense. It is not our business to find fault with prominent Democrats for hastily springing into the Abolition trap and helping that ing to thwart their wishes. We will ever do this. The laboring classes, in a great degree are honest; and their interests should be consulted. To do that, we want no Gencral nor bond-holder's candidate.

THE Clinton Democrat of the 14th inst. animadverts in a moderate way on an article contained in the Clearfield Republican. published at the home of ex-Gov. Bigler and of Mr. Wallace, Chairman of the State Democratic Committee; which article the Democrat supposes, was either from the pen of Mr. Wallace, or published at his instance. Our Clinton county cotemporary thinks that the sentiments contained in the article in qustion have a squinting toward an attempt on the part of some of our party prominent candidates for the Democratic nomination at New York; if, in fact, there may not be with some a more serious object in view, to wit, the disruption of the Democratic party and the establishment of a new political union which is expected to embrace within its folds the dissatisfied and the disappointed of the old abolition party.

In opposition of these views, the Clinton

Democrat says: With an era of returning reason dawning passed during the passt years of strife, bloodshed and national iniquity, it is not the time now, when even the elements of nature Confusion to cowards say we, and shame policy.

If time-serving, weak-kneed politicians, with their timorous, vascilating truculency to policy and treason to principle, are to control the deliberations of the New Nork Convention, then indeed will the country mourn in sack-cloth and ashes, the cowardice that betrayed the cause of constitutions liberty and self-government into the hands of jacobin assassins, whose total defeat and extermination was badgered away by socalled, policy Democrats.

Surratt.

The trial of John H. Surratt has again been postponed. After the Judicial murder of his mother, these people at Washington seem to have some qualms of conscience on the subject of adding another to their list of victims.

Curses Returning to Roost.

The political virus which has been introduced into our national system, eating and spreading, like a huge and foul cancer, is seen to break out in spots all over the country; here and there, however, the disease is to an extraordinary degree apparent, resulting in an alarming destruction of nationexpress his views upon all the important al resources. Pittsburgh, one of the Mongrel holes of Pennsylvania, is afflicted with this destructive virus. Gangrene has set in, and she is threatened with a general caving in. Her howls are as full of grief and terror as those of the manufacturing towns of New England. Pittsburgh politics are as dingy and dirty as her atmosphere. The Mongrel hue of her dwellings and warehouses conveys the exact tone of her political sentiments. The rottenness of the commercial structure of this country to-day, party to carry out their wicked designs, but she is lamenting over, that politically dirty find? A well executed and suggestive steel it is our duty as a public journalist to raise city worked hard to bring about. It was, engraving, called "The Prisoner of State." our voice in behalf of the people when we and yet is, the blackest hole west of the A handsome and picturesque colored stee Alleghanies. The Mongrel yell of niggerism, and the war upon the South, went up louder from that then buisy spot than from any other place of its size and prominence in the whole country. It is now reaping the fruits of it. Her manufacturers, iron, glass, farming implements, nails, flour, &c., including her coal, floated down the Ohio and Mississippi yearly, and returned with the sugar, cotton, tobacco, rice. and other products of the South. Then Pittsburgh, spite of her political sins, was prosperous and happy. Look at her now. Factories and workshops closed, and thousands of her men, women and children idle. wandering about in search of employment, or begging for subsistence to live upon. Pittsburgh is not the only locality in the managers to destroy the prospects of certain | country which sent forth its political curses upon the poor South, to have them returned with compound interest. Those curses are just coming home to roost. THE Black Republican National Convention assembles at Chicago to-day. The Black and Tan party will be strongly fepresented from the Southern States. Only $4,300 a Year. Governor Geary has vetoed the bill repealing the act to create a new Criminal Court for Dauphin, Lebanon and Schuvlkill counties. This so called "court" has been in imaginary existence about two years, and has cost the State $4,800 a year, and about $800 in mileage, while no business President, J. P. Conner. The Secretary whatever has been transacted by it! The H. E. Davis. 'court' was created at the request of a number of the flercest Radical partisans in Schuylkill county, for the sake of taking away the power from Judge Ryon, who is a Democrat. By consolidating Dauphin, Lebanon and Schuylkill counties, into one judicial district, the Radicals hoped to obtain control of the courts in Schuylkill county, so that their election officers who commit frauds would not be punished, as they would be by judge Ryon. The working classes in Schuylkill always give a heavy majority against thom, and their only hope of obtaining control of the courts in that county is by bringing into the contest the heavy Radical vote of Dauphin and Lebanon. They elected their apology for a Congressman, Col. Cake, from the Tenth ris, of Hemlock, and Mathias Hartman District, by open and shameless bribery, and under the lead of a few crazy negroworshippers, they are trying every dishonorable means to place the whole county under the control of the Radical sheddy aris-

The excuse of Governor Geary that the new Court has prevented crime, is a falsehood. The outlaws who formerly committed such outrages in Schuylkill county were but a small gang-perhaps a dozen men. Wm. Shoemaker, of Hemlock; James Some of them, at least four or five, were shot, and one was captured and has been in prison for two years. Through fear that he might divulge their names, the remaining outlaws left the region, and scenes of violence became much less frequent, which the Radical wiseacres abscribed to the formation of a so-called special police force, generally known as the "snapper police," on account of their catching nothing more dangerous than a snapping turtle.

Geary has now a new text, however, and states that the prevention of crime in Schuylkill is owing to the Criminal Court, when it is well known to every sensible person that the "Court" never tried a case, and has never been acknowledged as having any authority whatever! The first session of the court in Pottsville was attended by the "Judge," four Republican lawyers, and two spectators, and it has never since been recognized as a court by any of the lawyers in either Dauphin, Lebanon or Schuylkill.

Four times a year Col. Green calls the 'court" to order, and then declares it adourned; for which service he receives three thousand five hundred a year salary, and about eight hundred dollars a year mileage, paid from the State Treasury. - Reading Eagle.

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR JUNE.-Whatever the Ladies' Magazine may have been in times past, some of those of the present day, both in respect to engravings and as to their literary contents, are of a very high character. The steel engravings are executed in the best style of art—the fashions are refined, judicious and elegant-while their literary contents often surpass in their peculiar line the efforts of the masculine monthlies. To blame these magazines for not being more solid and heavy, is as sensible as to blame a young girl for not being an old man-or a rose for not being a potawhich has eaten into the manufacturing and | to. We take the Magazine before us-one business interests of Pittsburgh, and which of the best of its class-and what do we fashion plate of Fancy Costumes. An interesting wood engraving of the "First Church in England," and a number of other engravings illustrated of the present mode for women and childrens' dresses. And, in addition to all this, noveletes and stories by such writers as Harriet Prescott, Amanda M. Douglas, August Bell, Miss Muzzey, &c. Now when in addition to such writers, we give the names of Mrs. Henry Wood (the English novelist), Louise Chandler Moulton. Florence Percy, Margaret Hosmer, and others who contribute to the LADYS' FRIEND, our readers will see that this magazine must necessarily take as high a rank in literature, as it evidently does in fashion. The truth is that, so costly is the adornments of these ladies' magazine, it takes a very large edition even to pay their expenses. The "Ladys' Eriend" is published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, at $2.50 a vear (which also includes a large steel engraving). Sample copies 15 cents. JUDGE BLACK and JUDGE WOODWARD are representative men of the great Demo-Democrats of the first water. There is no mistaking their views. The Pennsylvania Delegation would be representing the Democracy truly in the New York Con vention by giving their votes either of these gentlemen for President. Hancock has no claims on the party nor has the party any on him. His nomination would be

They anawered, all would be well, for Johnson was patriot, and a great statesman, and the country would be safe in his hands. We must confess that in this, they told the truth, though unconclous of it at the time. He has tried to restore the Union, he has tried to preserve the Constitution, and he has tried to save the nation from the disgrace of negro suffrage, and from the evils of despotism. upon several of the teachers to give their methods of instruction in this most essential, but much neglected branch in our schools. RECESS.

After recess the Association listened with great pleasure and attention to an Essay by Miss Jennie Breece, -subject, Teaching. -She dealt with the subject as though were an old and familiar acquaintance. It was indeed well written and well read. It ought to have been solicited for publication, but by some freak of fortune the Association entirely overlooked it. After the reading, Mr. T. B. Miller conducted an exercise in Weights and Measures. A lively discussion followed the close of his remarks. Mr. Barkley complimented the people of Berwick on the interest manifested in the cause of education, by the large attendance of citizens. He said that the school room n Berwick was supplied with the best furniture of any in the county. The School Directors and citizens of Berwick may well be proud of such a compliment. Moved and seconded that when the Association adjourn, it adjourn to meet at
