D. A. BECKLEY is not to be outdone in the shoe line. He manages well to keep his stock up and his prices down. Reader, consult your interests, and give the "Keystone Boot and Shoe Store" a call.

THE "Old Street Sprinkler" was brought out fast week and put in operation on Main Street, under contract to wet this Street when needing it, till the 1st of October next. Geo. Reiswick is the contractor. He does the job well.

STEPHEN POHE, of Centre township, and his harness stolen from his premises, a ek or more since. His loss undred dollars. As yet there is no clue to thieves. There are differences of opinon as to where the harness went and by whom stolen. It may be possible that an rganized band is prowling about the counor committing such depredations.

A very few would-be-Democratic paers are recommending the life of Gen. Frant, by one Richardson, inserting advermements of the work, encouraging persons to take agencies for its sale, and callag attention in regular editorial articles to and supposed neculiar merits.

BLOOMSBURG OMNIBUS."-It is an endisputed fact that Jacob L. Girton has the prettiest and best Omnibus in all this section of country. While it is handsome and all that," it is the easiest "institution" the kind we ever rode in. What gives e so elegant appearance is, that it has just been re-painted and varnished by our townsman, M. C. Sloan, who has no superior in a line of beautifying a wagon. The striping and lettering is tastefully executed, so much that it cannot but attract the attention of who have the least appreciation of such work. The fancy coloring on the various esigns and lettering gives the whole "veside" a most grand appearance : besides. ene custions and padding, together with the and carpet, make the interior arrangement the "buss" comfortable and pleasant to traveler. "All aboard for Rupert!"
