NOTICE.

After the 20th of August next we will not send out the DEMOCRAT to any of our sub scribers who have not paid their subscriptions. All the material used is cash in advance; besides all the labor we employ is paid for in cash as it is performed. When a subscription hangs over a year, the little profit we would have upon it, if paid in advance, is lost. It is lost in this way: We have invested that money in material and labor and laid a year out of it, thus losing ballots. Well bestowed, and all are perfectthe use of the cost of paper, besides the small fractional profit. On one subscription the profit would be small, but in the aggregate, (say two thousand subscribers) it would amount to a snug sum of money to the editor. Those in arrears will please heed this notice, and attend to their subscriptions in
