Republican Meeting.

The Republicans of this town held a meeting on Market Square last Tuesday evening. After getting out the Band and parading it about town for an hour, quite a number of people came together at the designated spot for the meeting. The majority of the audience, we should think, was Democrats, who went to the meeting out of | F. Clark, Esq., and Gen. W. H. Ent; after curiosity, to hear what the defenders and which Judge Derr sung a campaign song, supporters of the Radical party had to say. when the meeting adjourned with cheers The disappointment can be botter imagined for the Presidential and State Ticket. than described, when it was announced that the speakers who were expected had not political meeting ever held in Columbia arrived, but that the meeting should not be postponed, as it was the intention to make use of "home material." Joshua Mendenhall, of Franklin, was called to the chair, and a lot of the oldest Radicals in town selected as Vice Presidents. The organization being effected, Capt. Whitmoyer, the Pine township boy, came forward and made one of his not very enthusiastic speeches. We do not know how long he talked by the watch, but the time seemed terribly long to us, and after he made his exit we failed to discover that he had proved or settled anything. The Captain labored hard and carnestly, but all to no purpose. Enthusiasm could not be produced. It was not in the crowd. M. M. L'Velle, Esq., of Ashland, who was here attending court, was next introduced to the audience, and delivered a spread-cagle speech, making, no doubt, the best he could out of a bad cause. He spoke of our financial condition, expenses, receipts, and appropriations ; but his whole . talk on these points was a good deal muddled. His allusions to reconstruction were rather vague, and made no impression. If we should say that his eulogy on Gen. Grant hours by Senator Buckalew. He made one was not what it was intended-able and of his logical and argumentative speeches, proper-we would be perverting the and held the audience spell-bound, save truth. 5000 People in Council!

On Saturday last the Democracy of Or-Mass Meeting in Megargell's Grove, near Orangeville, Columbia county. The people began to gather about 9 o'clock, and continned to come in until late in the afternoon-Delegation after delegation arrived, headed by bands and martial music, till the grove, large as it is, was litterally filled with human being and every description of vehicles. The delegations from Bloomsburg and Fishingereek attracted no little attention. They were large, having excellent music, well supplied with flags and banners, and conveyed some handsome hickory poles upon their wagons, all having the appearance of

The meeting was addressed by Hon. C. R. Buckalew, Col. Victor E. Piolett, Robt,

This was, in all probability, the largest county. It was orderly, and all passed off satisfactorily. The people seem to be fairly before us at this time, and we find exactly aroused and are anyiously waiting the day the same result: 177 votes for the Demoaroused and are anxiously waiting the day of election.

The hotel-keepers and citizens of Orangeville did everything in their power to enterentitled to many thanks.

A Remarkable Coincidence,

A gentleman in one of the Departments at Washington has made a discovery which develops one of the most remarkable coincidences to be found on record-to the superstitious, one absolutely startling. Many of our rulers of the earth were firm believers On Saturday last the Democracy of Or-in destiny, and long before there rise felt a ange and the surrounding townships, held a confidence in their exaltation that nothing could impair. Napoleon and his first wife had their prophecies and omens which were singularly fulfilled; but neither the realizasingularly fulfilled; but neither the realiza-tion in these two cases, nor in any others now of record, were so remarkable as the coincidence developed by the discovery of the combination of figures made by the gen-tleman in Washington, which is published in the National Intelligencer, and which we give below. In the first place, the alphabet is numbered from A to Z, 1, 2, 3, &c., up to 26. A represents 1 and Z 26. Taking therefore, the latters in the neuron "Servour therefore the letters in the name "Seymour and Blair," and representing each letter by the number it represents in the alphabet when we added up the whole, we find the total sum produced is 177. Then take the words "Grant and Colfax" and add up the numerical representatives of each letter, in like manner, and the aggregate product is 140. Add together 177 and 140, the total of two electoral tickets for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, now in the field, and we have the aggregate 317, which is pre-cisely the number of votes in the Electoral College for President and Vice President. The following is the table :

Who Support Grant and Colfax ?

The following are some of the Radical worthics who support Grant and Colfax. Ain't they a beautiful set of rapscallions? The infamous Parson Brownlow, who said he would rather go to hell with a loyal negro than to heaven with a copperhead. Carl Schurz, who publicly announced that God was an imaginary being, the Bible only fit to amuse children, and the Christian Sabbath a relie of barbarism. Ben Butler, who voted sixty-five times for Jeff. Davis in the Charleston Convenion, and afterwards turned spoon thief. A. Alpeora Bradley, an ex-convict from Sing Sing, and a colored carpet-bagger who wants to go to Congress. Parson Kallock, who was expelled from is parish in Massachusetts on account of his beastly conduct.

Hector Tyndale, who applauded the bru-al conduct of the murderer and incendiary John Brown, and who is now the Radical candidate for Mayor of Philadelphia. Nathaniel P. Banks, the hero of the Red River expedition, and who, in 1856, pro-posed to "let the Union slide." William Lloyd Garrison, who denounced the Union and the Constitution as a league with death and a covenant with hell. John A. Bingham, who assisted in the conviction and murder, by a military commission, of Mrs. Surratt, an innocent woman.

Edwin M. Stanton, the tyrant, and who helped to slaughter Union soldiers in the South by refusing to accede to a fair exchange of prisoners. Simon Cameron, who was compelled by President Lincoln to resign the office of Secretary of War, on account of corruption, and was censured by his own party in Con-

John W. Forney, the "foul whelp of sin," who was forced to resign the lucrative position of Secretary of the Senate, by Simon Cameron, on account of his rescality. Morton McMichael, Mayor of Philadel-phia, who "went a fishing" when President Johnson visited that city, and grossly insulted the Chief Magistrate. T. C. Callicott, who is now in the peni-tentiary of New York for defrauding the government as Revenue officer. James M: Ashley, the great impeacher, and the companion of the perjured villain, Conover. Turner, the negro in the Georgia Legislature, who denounced the white men of the county, and announced that "he intended to call a convention of his people and send for carpet-baggers, scalawags, Yankees, and any ody for a Legislature except Georgians." The President of the Union League at Anderson, Texas, who is now in jail for tealing.

Horace Greeley, who wanted to "let the wayward sisters go in peace" when seces-sion was first threatened in the South, and as much of a traitor as Robert E. Lec. Joe Brown, the founder of Andersonville,

The spies and informers who were organzed into a band of mercenaries during the war, and levied black mail on peaceful and unoffending citizens in the North. The loyal leaguers who incited the masses to pillage and arson, broke into private mansions, destroyed printing offices, and muzzled free speech. The contractors and jobbers who grew rich by cheating the government, and helped to swell the national debt by their fearful frauds upon the Treasury. The party, which, according to Dawes, a Radical Congressman, stole more from the nation in one year, than the whole expenses of Mr. Buchanan's administration amounted to in four, is composed of Radicals. The men who have increased the public debt, augmented the taxes, broken the Union, sneered at the Constitution, advocate negro equality and negro suffrage, dis-franchised white men and enfranchised negroes, &c., will support Grant and Colfax. How do you like the picture?

The little sentence uttered by an Moorsburg, Montour county, Pa. to the Ohio, and the reports they give of the tone of public sentiment everywhere uniformly point to an overwhelming Demohonest man will be regarded as a harbinger cratic victory. Our informants are gentle-men of intelligence, who would not wilfully well-meaning men in all parts of our country misrepresent facts. Their opportunities for observation have been very extended. "I am Sure they Mean to do Right."

Every honest man who really desires to see our distracted country restored to peace and prosperity will greet with satisfaction a policy. little news item received from Washington a few days ago. It reads as follows : In consideration of the views of General Rosecrans, General Meade called upon the President on Friday and spent several hours at the War Department and army headquarters. He speaks in the most cheerful manner of the condition of the South and the general good conduct of the people. He remarked to a friend to-day : "I am sure they mean to do right." The abominable falsehoods, misrepresentations and perversions, coined contrived and uttered daily by Greeley and forney for two years past, are all blown to the winds by this little sentance spoken by an honorable man. When General Meade, who has been ong enough in the South to make himself acquainted with the views and feelings of the leading men of that section, tells the to do right," the malignant fabrications with which the Tribune and the Press have teemed for a long time past, and which have been reproduced by a thousand of the small-fry papers of the Radical party, will e seen by every man of brains in their true light; and the contempt of those who have been deceived by the unscrupulous falsifications will not be overcome by any sophistries which they can invent. General Meade has fixed the brand of knavery upon the brows of these unmitigaed scoundrels, so deeply that all their art cannot erase it. They will now pour their streams of vituperation upon Meade and Rosecrans with the same vitriolic temper with which they have directed them against others who have refused to aid in their infamous work, unless the cowardly rascals fear that some indignant of these officers may loose patience, and treat their epidermes to the excortiating application of a cowhide whip, which is the only argument like to whip, which is the only argument factor make any impression upon such naturer. Their railing and lying have done their worst; and the slow-moving hand of time brings out the truth. There has been neither sense nor reason in the measures devised and enacted by the malignants in 'Congress'' to secure the votes of southern States for their party. The attempt to establish negro rule under the power of the bayonet has proved a failure : and those who have made it now find that they cannot control the votes of the slaves they have eman cipated, and their only hope now is in pro voking hostilities between the negroes and the white people, to give the radicals an ex-cuse for increasing the military force and the profits of contracts and plunder, the industrial and business interests of the country are sacrificed to enable them to perpetuate their power and drive the coun-ry on to the ruin which is staring us in the The testimony of an officer so much re-spected as General Meade will be received by the northern people in the same spirit in which it is given. They know that he is not an ambitious politician, and that neither himself nor his friends have obtrusively oushed him forward, although he won the ulminating battle of the war. He has hown unusual modesty; and he is universally regarded as an unprejudiced and fairminded man. The people of the northern States now know that southern men have honestly acknowledged their defeat in arms, and candidly accept the situation in which they are placed; only contending for the rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution, and which no honest man desires to withhold from any portion of the American people Their property has been destroyed, their labor system subverted; they have many difficulties to contend with, but only ask to be allowed to improve their condition by an exhibition of their own energies. Northern men will now see that there is no necessity for the vast expense of a standing army in

Col. Samuel Knorr was called out. He stepped forward to the foot lights, made a at the Middletown Military Institute, studied few remarks, excused himself on account of law, and practiced the profession ; was Repthe lateness, and retired. A few cheers were sent up, the older members of the Radical party gotting in their "Amen," and the fizzle adjourned.

GRANT AVOWS HIS PRINCIPLES.-The Radical candidate for President, during his trip to the West, gave yent to the following opinion :

"The Democrats are making a great fuse over negro suffrage. As for me, I think that our colored fellow citizens have just as good a right to vote as the foreigners have.

How do you like that, Irishmen and Germans, who followed Grant to his butcher fields in the South? Do you believe that negroes have just as good a right to vote as you have? If so, vote for Grant. But if the latter's mother, a blind woman over 90 not, put your shoulders to the wheel and help the Democracy to restore this government to its former condition of white supremacy and grandeur.

Few better campaign documents could be circulated throughout the North than the southern rebel newspapers.-Radical paper.

Yes, especially when you go to work and publish garbled extracts from the southern press and misrepresent the southern people. in order to make capital for your rascally party. Commissioner Ould's statement concerning General Grant's refusal to bring home the sick Union soldiers, with Beast Butler's report of the matter, would be a good document for the friends of the soldiers who died in southern prisons. Why do Radical papers refuse to publish it?

SENATOR WILSON, in his Maine speech said the Republican party were demanding the elevation of the negroes to the height of citizenship, their exaltation to equality of civil rights and privileges and the crowning act of all the prerogative to vote and be voted for.

Radicals of Columbia county, hoist your colors and face the music.

CAN'T READ .- The New York Tribun declares that "about nine-tenths of the Domocrats cannot read." What folly, then, it is for the Mongrel's to be distributing documents among them.

The great misfortune is, that the Mongrel's can't understand what they do read, and won't read anything but lies if they can help it.

HOBRIBLE HISTORY OF A GLUTTON. Grenadier Tarare, who died recently at Florence, was one of the greatest gluttons of modern times. He devoured in the course of twenty four hours a whole quarter of beef; a breakfast, prepared for ten or twelve persons, he would dispatch in a very few minutes. He ate limestones, corks, and nearly everything that fell into his hands. A favorite food of his was snakes, which he relished better than the fattest cels. He

he was once employed as assistant in a hospital, he seized a large tomcat, and was al-ready occupied in tearing it alive when Dr. Lorendi, chief surgeon of the army, was sent for. There he held the cat by the neck and tail and tore its belly leaving nothing of it but the bones; whereupon he Vanceburg, Lewis county, Kentucky, and gnawed, like a breast of prey, at the skin, additionately much and his wife to the horror of the hospital assistants who witnessed the repulsive scene. THE NEW YORK NOMINEES.-The Dem-ocrats of New York have nominated for lovernor John T. Hoffman, the present Mayor of the city, and for Lieutenant Gov-ernor Allen C. Beech, of Jefferson county. Mr. Hoffman is one of the soundest and most cultivated gentleman of his party in the Empire State, and is personally, extremely popular, and it is fair to say that a more worthy or gallant standard bearer could not have been selected. Mr. Beech s less widely known than Mr. Hoffman .-
