FARM AND GARDEN.

RECLAIMING HARSH SOIL.—Some soil is hard—clay-bound—and will crack. Such soil requires sand. But as sand is too expensive to apply, other means will have to be resorted to.

One of these (and the foremost) is, to plow in the fall or early winter—plow dry. The elements are the best, ameliorators at the same time may be applied to advantage.

Next in order, and of great consequence, is cropping the land with certain kinds of grain, &c. Peas will mellow the soil. So will buckwheat. And so will clover. These can all be applied without any difficulty, not being hoed crops that require fine tillage.

A stiff soil turned up in the fall and well limed, the lime harrowed in, followed by a crop of peas, and sown in the fall to clover, will, when the sward a few years thereafter, is turned down, show an improvement that amounts to a complete change. The land is now in a fair workable order, and needs but manure plowing when dry enough (and usually in the fall) to keep it in good condition. Of all things, a clay soil is the most critical to manage.—Colman's Rural World.

BONES AND ASHES.—Bones and ashes pass through the house keepers hands every day. Wood is still the chief fuel in the farm house, and the value of the ashes is pretty well understood. They are prized for the lye they yield, and if there is a surplus from the soap making, they help the kitchen garden at the back door. The bones are generally thrown to the dog and lost. Now if the careful housewife would save the bones as regularly as the ashes, she would practice a wiser economy and help her kitchen garden twice as fast.—Bones are worth twice as much as ashes for manure, if disolved, and the ashes will reduce them. Put both into a barrel in the cellar, if you please, and after mixing them half and half, keep them constantly moist with soap suds, the hotter the better. The suds should not be poured on in such quantities as to leach the ashes. In a few months the bones will be disintegrated, and the whole mass then be mixed, and will make an excellent fertilizer for the flower border or the kitchen garden.—American Agriculturist.

HOW TO DESTROY WEEDS BY BUCKWHEAT.—Buckwheat is a cleansing crop to the soil, and is often sown mainly for the purpose of clearing the land of weeds, and fitting it for the higher cereal grains. Its roots penetrate deep into the soil, which tends to its pulverization, and the umbrageous character of its growth, spreading over the surface, almost forbids any other plant, however strong its foot-hold, from growing beneath its branches. Hence it is invaluable in every kind of land, but more particularly on heavy, moist soils, most likely to be infested with weeds and bushes, and less easily worked for other cleansing crops.

AGRICULTURAL JOKES.—The Ohio Farmer lets off the following:

Large horses are generally most admired by farmers; but farmers are most admired who pony up.

Prosperity is generally based upon knowledge and industry; the swine will always get most that nose most.

Farmers are like fowels, neither will get full crops without industry.

Because a man who attends a flock of sheep is a shepard, makes it no reason that a man who keeps cows should be a coward.

We like to see a farmer increase the growth of useful plants and shrubs around his home, but we do not like to see him use rails, poles and boards to prop a gate with.

RYE DROP CAKES.—To one pint of sour or buttermilk add two eggs, a small teaspoon of soda, a little salt and rye meal, sufficient to make a batter that will spread a little, but not run. Drop in muffin-rings with a spoon. For baking they will require twice the time of common griddle cakes. They are also nice baked in cups about fifteen minutes.

BEEF CAKES.—Pound some beef that is underdone with a little fat bacon or ham; season with pepper, salt, and a little shalot; mix them well, and make into small cakes three inches long, and half as wide and thick; fry them a little brown, and serve them in a good thick gravy.

MILK LEMONADE.—Dissolve three-quarters of a pound of loaf sugar in one pint of boiling water, and mix with one gill of lemon juice, and one gill of sherry; then add three gills of cold milk. Stir the whole well together and strain it.

POTATO CUSTARD.—Ten potatoes boiled soft, six or eight eggs, sugar to your taste, one cup milk, quarter pound of butter, nutmeg, essence of lemon, brandy and wine to your taste. Mash the potatoes very fine.

IT IS said that kerosene applied by means of a moistened cloth to stoves will effectually keep them from rust during the summer months.

WITH

Scenes and Incidents in the Great Rebellion.

Comprising Narratives of Personal Adventure, Thrilling Incidents During Exploits, Heroic Deeds, Wonderful Escapes, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital; Adventures of Spies and Scouts together with the Songs and Ballads Anecdotes and Humorous Incidents of the War.

SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED WITH OVER 100 FINE PORTRAITS AND BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVINGS.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than are many dry reports or careful gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. This illustrates the characters of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The Valiant and Brave Hearted, the Picturesque and dramatic and Witty and Marvelous, the Tender and Pathetic and the Whole Panorama of the War are here thrillingly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once historical and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has called forth.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skilfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

Send for circulars and see our terms, and a full description of the work. Address, JONES BROTHERS & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

Empire Shuttle Machine!

SALESROOMS, 536 Broadway, N. Y.,

250 Washington Street, Boston,

921 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia,

PATENTED FEB. 14, 1860.

THIS MACHINE is constructed on entirely new principles of mechanism, possessing many rare and valuable improvements, having been examined by the most profound experts, and pronounced to be Simplicity and Perfection Combined.

It has a straight needle, perpendicular action, makes the LOCK or SHUTTLE STITCH, which will neither RIP nor RAVEL, and is alike on both sides; performs perfect sewing on every description of material, from Leather to the finest Nansook muslin, with cotton, linen, or silk thread, from the coarsest to the finest number. Having neither CAM or COG WHEEL, and the least possible friction, it runs as smooth as glass, and is Emphatically a Noiseless Machine.

It requires FIFTY PER CENT. less power to drive it than any other machine in the market. A girl twelve years of age can work it steadily, without fatigue or injury to health

Its Strength and wonderful Simplicity of Construction renders it almost impossible to get out of order, and is GUARANTEED by the company to give entire satisfaction.

We respectfully invite all those who may desire to supply themselves with a superior article, to come and examine this UNRIVALLED MACHINE.

One half hour's instruction is sufficient to enable any person to work this machine to their entire satisfaction.

Agents wanted for all towns in the United States where agencies are not already established. Also, for Cuba, Mexico, Central and South America, to whom a liberal discount will be given.

AGENTS TO SELL DR. WM. SMITH'S

"DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE."

It contains over 1000 closely printed, double column octavo pages, from new electrotype plates, on good paper, and is appropriately illustrated with more than 200 engravings on steel and wood, and a series of fine authentic maps, &c.

It comprises the Antiquities, Biography, Geography Natural History, Topography, and is a complete Cyclopedia of the Scriptures.

It is necessary to every Bible reader, indispensable to every Minister and Sunday School Teacher, and ought to be in every family.

It is highly commended by all learned and eminent men, and by the Press generally in all parts of the country, as the best book of the kind in the English language.

Do not be Deceived.

Owing to the unprecedented popularity of this Work, a small English abridgement, in duodecimo form, of about 600 pages, has been reprinted in this country in large type, and spread over 500 octavo pages, evidently—by making a larger book than the original—to give the impression easier than it is to our edition. It has less than half the reading matter of ours, and is sold considerably higher than the English edition of same book in this country. Some agents are endeavoring to palm off this juvenile edition for ours

Teachers, Students, Retired Clergymen, Farmers, and energetic women find the agency for this work both pleasant and lucrative employment. Send for circulars, giving full particulars, terms, &c., to
