Congress.

It will be seen by the proceedings of the Congressional Conference, which met in Danville on Thursday last, that Col. Vic-TOR E. PIOLLET, of Bradford County, was nominated for Congress in this (13th) District. He was the choice of Bradford and Wyoming Counties; and with the vote of Columbia was nominated on the first ballot; after which he was made the unanimous and Sullivan County Conferees casting their | lustily : votes for him. The name of Hon. George D. Jackson, of Sullivan, was withdrawn the Conferees of Montour and Sullivan form Col. Piollet of his nomination. At a meeting of the Conferees of the 13th Congressional District, composed of the counties of Bradford, Columbia, Montour, Sullivan and Wyoming, at the Pennsylvania House, in Danville, on Thursday, 10th day of September, 1868, the following named gentleman appeared as Conferees, claimed seats and were admitted to the Conference:

Bradford-Andrew Menardi and Edward Herrick, Jr. Columbia-M. E. Jackson and Richard Montour-W. D. Weidenhamer and J.

On motion of Andrew Menardi, M. E. Jackson, of Columbia county, was elected chairman of the conference, and Michael Meylert and Edward Herrick, jr., Secre-

Motions for candidates for Congress being then in order, Andrew Menardi nominated Col. V. E. Piollet, of Bradford; J. C. Ammerman nominated B. K. Rhodes, of Montour; John H. Lawrence nominated Hon. George D. Jackson, of Sullivan. On motion, the nominations were then closed.

Michael Meylert presented a letter from Hon. George D. Jackson requesting his name to be withdrawn, and positively declining to become a candidate at this timeand in obedience to his wishes thus express ed his name was withdrawn. The ballots being then taken-Col. V. E. Piollet received six votes, and B. K. Rhodes four. Col. V. E. Piollet having received a majority of the votes was declared the nominee of the Conference.

On motion of C. D. Gearhart, the nomination of Col. V. E. Piollet was made On motion of J. C. Ammerman, a committee was apponted by the Chair to wait upon Col. Piollet and introduce him to the Conference. The committee consisting of the Montour conferees, J. C. Ammerman and W. D.

Weidenhamer, having performed their duty introduced Col. Piollet. Upon being introduced by M. E. Jackson as chairman of the Conference, and the result of the Conference communicated to him in Mr. J.'s usual* happy manner, Col. Piollet in a few judicious remarks accepted the nomination, and said he should endeavor to fulfill, so far as lay in his power, the expectations of the people, nominating him-and who he believed could elect him. Mr. Rhodes having been called upon made a few remarks, thanking the members of the Conference for the votes given him. and fully endorsing the action of the Conference in making the nomination of Col-

Piollet unanimous. On motion of C. D. Gearhart, the next Conference was fixed to be held at Tunkhannock, on the Thursday following the first Monday in Sept. 1870.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this Conference be published in the Democratic papers of this District.

The Conference then adjourned. M. E. JACKSON, Ch'm. EDWARD HERRICK, JR., Secretaries.

GEARY AND THE SOLDIERS.—On the 27th ult. John W. Geary, the Governor of this State, addressed a Radical meeting at Uniontown, Fayette county, in the course of which he said that-"a soldier who would vote for Seymour and Blair was not a true man, and would have deserted his flag in the hour of battle; that the man who could half of his living comrades, and insult the memory of the four hundred thousand heroes who sleep in Southern graves, by voting for Seymour and Blair, is a coward. and if he was in the ormy he was there as scorn of all true men."

Hans Geary always was a consummate Ass, and is now evidently also crazy, and is a fit subject for the lunatic asylum. It is humiliating that such a man now disgraces the Gubernatorial chair of our Commonwealth. SENATOR HARLAN, in the Senate in 1863, called Grant a butcher and drunkard; now he has gone off to California to stump for good Republican authority. Had some Democratic Senator thus spoke of the great met by all the Republican press in the country by pronouncing the charges egregiously false. THE Radicals are sorely disturbed at the prospect of the certain loss of a majority of the negro votes in the South. Had the purblind leaders of that party possessed the brains of a musquito, or even the forecast of their sable dupes, they would have foreseen just such a result. There is a trite but truthful adage that says, "fools build houses, but wise men live in them." The Radicals built up negro suffrage in the South - the LET the Rads rage! "THE election of Seymour means war." Precisely so. It means war, and nothing but war. War upon the Radical party and all its iniquitous measures. It means war upon military despotisms and negro supremacy; violations of the Constitution, oppressive tariffs, overwhelming national debt, ruinous and unequal taxation, official corruption, plundering of the national Treasury, the Freedman's Bureau, a useless standing army. Upon all these Radical abuses the election of Horatio Seymour means "war to the knife, and the knife to the hilt!" And when it has overcome these great national evils; when it has completely subdued the Radical faction that for eight long weary years has ground down and oppressed the nation: when it has thoroughly reconstructed that treasonable, revolutionary organization, then, and not till then, the war shall cease. And this war has already commenced. The serried battalions of Democ racy have taken the field, and under the honest and capable marshalship of Horatio Seymour, are marching forth to victory.-Their banners are flung to the breeze, inscribed with letters of living light, "the Union, it must and shall be preserved!" This is the war which will follow the election of Seymour, and the hosts of Radicalism Mr. Belden, candidate for Delegate to may as well prepare for defeat now, for it is as inevitable as that a just God lives.-
