

doubled in a very short time by more capital and labor. It is safer to use capital in farming than in almost any other business. The credit of the plow is quite as good as that of the loom or the anvil, and the capital will come if called for. Use more manure and get thirty bushels of wheat where you now get fifteen, and eighty bushels of corn where you now get forty. The quantity of grain per acre is mainly a question of manare and tillage. A big compost heap makes a full bin. With high manuring, the soil needs a deeper stirring and a gradual bringing up of the subsoil to the surface. With the present horse harrows and cultivators, nearly all the cultivation can be done by horse power, at a great saving of expense and a great increase of the crops. Plan for big crops next season.

N. S.S.A MARKANNING

FAMINE THREATENED. - The Red River settlement, in British America, is threatened with famine. Prominent clergymen of several denominations in that country have united in saying that not one bushel of grain will be harvested there this year; that the potato crop is also a failure ; that the buffalo hunters have returned not only without their annual supply of meat and skins, but in an almost starving condition, and that not even seed enough remains in the settlement for next year's crop. An appeal is made to the generosity of the Canadians and the people of the United States.

LICE ON CABBAGE. - A correspondent of the Rural American says there is a remedy for destroying lice on cabbage, as follows: When the cabbage are about the size of a dining plate, take a half teaspoonful of fine SPRING GOODS salt and scatter it over each. Repeat about once in ten days, gradually increasing the dose to a tablespoonful, if necessary.

PICKLING FRUIT -Seven pounds of good brown sugar to a gallon of pure cider vinegar; one ounce of mace, and one ounce of allspice, constitute the proportions for the pickle in which peaches, pears or cherries, may be preserved.
