Judge Mercur's Meetings.

This Radical candidate for Congress in this District is stumping for votes in Columbia County. On Monday last he made a speech to a small crowd at a point called Numedia, on the south side of the river. The Brass Band, P. John, and a few others. accompanied him to that place. His meeting was everything but a success. In the evening of the same day, the Judge harrangued a crowd in Market Square, in this place. He talked quite differently from what he did two years ago. It was votes he was after this time. Then he only came down here to see his friends-pay them a social visit-for he had votes enough at home to elect him. At least so he declared in the Court House. But now it would seem that he has a man after him up in his own county by the name of Col. Victor E. Piollet, who is giving him a heap of trouble, a man too for whom some of his heretofore warm personal friends will vote-on the sly-and Mercur knows it. They will try Piollet once, and that's what's the matter with Ulysses. He is begging, pleading, hard for votes in this end of the District. He might as well go home, for he cannot get one Democratic vote in this county nor poll the entire Republican vote: He has lost ground, and justly too. Does he suppose he can sit in Congress and vote to place negro suffrage on the people of the District of Columbia, the Southern States, and all the Territories, against the will of a large majority of the white people in those localities, and come back home and again receive your votes? Certainly not! Will those Republicans who favor economy and reform vote for this man who has year after year voted away your money to support the negroes of the South in idleness? We think not! What has Mercur done for you, Mr. Republican, or any other person, in all his four years in Congress, that has been of any interest to you directly, or indirectly, if you please? Can you place your finger upon one single piece of legislation of his or of his party, that has benefitted you? If you can, we would like it pointed out. On the other hand, he has been the means of assisting, by his working with Stevens, Butler & Co.. in enlarging the public debt. He has voted with these men on every measure calculated to rob and plunder the Government. The impeachment trial alone has cost this government millions of dollars, a disgraceful affair to say the least of it. Who brought this unnecessary and unjust expense upon the government? Why such men as Mercur. He voted for impeachment, and voted that you should pay the expenses. That trial had something to do with increasing the public debt, but these Republican stump orators, like Mercur, fail to tell you that even one dollar was taken out of the Treasury in consequence of that great impeachment farce! They know that they are entirely responsible for that trial and enormous expense, hence they say nothing about it. Not one single Democrat voted to bring that trial with its expense upon the country, but invariably voted against it. The only way to stop this increasing debt is to place in power men who will labor to curtail expenses of our government and effect a more economical and honest administration of the affairs. Elect a Democratic terity as one of the best military men of the Congress and you have done much towards stopping dangerous leaks. Col. Victor E. Piollet would be the right man in this District. He would make an honest representative for the poor, laboring class, and not sit in Congress like a drone, but do something to alleviate the great pressure that is bearing them down. THE Democratic mass meeting in New York on Monday last was a mammouth affair. Over 100,000 Democrats were in procession, which was ten miles long. A letter from Gen. McClellan was read amidst thun-

Republican Meeting.

The whole country was hand-billed for weeks, announcing to the friends of freedmen's bureau and taxation, that there would be a grand mass meeting in Bloomsburg, on Friday, the 2d of October, 1868, the weather permitting. The day arrived, but the 'masses" failed to "come to time." The sky was favorable. All preparation was made that might be expected by the town Rads. They were in great glee, nearly onehalf of them being Marshals, until about 11 o'clock, when the meager delegations came scatteringly in town, disappointing evrey one. The whole delegation in its grand parade contained sixty-eight wagons, the most of which were buggies. There were two band wagons, three or four four-horse wagons, one dozen two-horse wagons, and the balance one-horse vehicles. At an average of five persons-not voters-to a wagon, which would be a very liberal estimate, in view of there being so many small wagons, three hundred and forty would cover the crowd. Say there were as many more walking along the streets, which there were not, there would have been only six hundred and eighty, all told. If any of our Radical friends find fault with our count, we will throw in three hundred and twenty, and make it one thousand; and if this will satisfy them, it certainly will us.

The meeting was organized in Market Square, by appointing some respectable looking old gentleman chairman, after which Col. J. L. Baer, the "Buckeye blacksmith," was introduced, who "started the fire" and got it up to a "welding heat," when he left it in charge of Senator Cragin, of New Hampshire, who hammered away for nearly two hours, failing to weld the two political parties together, or even make as much as a respectable horse-shoe nail. The Senator no doubt did his best. He talked 'reconstruction." "freedmen's bureau," and "negro suffrage" until the patience of his audience was well nigh exhausted. The next speaker was Gen. Hinks, of one of the New England States. He made the most practical speech of the day, talked very much like a lawyer arguing a knotty case. We have no doubt a large portion of his hearers did not agree with him, which the vote of this county on Tuesday next will prove. The "inevitable" negro stuck out of all their speeches, as usual. The doctrine advanced by these New England satraps will not go down the throats of the Columbia County people. The Democracy ought to raise a purse and get these men back again, as they are quite a help to the election of Seymour and Blair.

Think of this, good men of all parties. Think of it and vote against so great a calamity.

MERCUR argued to his dupes on Monday night, that Government bonds were taxed the same as a farmer's land was taxed. Now every school-boy knows better. The farmer pays his Bounty, County, Poor, Road and School taxes upon his land, according to its valuation. The bondholder who holds a forty thousand dollar bond, more or less, pays not one cent of Bounty, County, Poor, Road or School taxes on that bond. Nothing but the little income arising from the interest when that interest is above one thousand dollars. If his interest amounts to eleven hundred dollars, he pays an income of six per cent, on the one hundred dollars as a revenue tax! But not one cent for Bounty, County, Poor, Road and School taxes. Yet he receives all these benefits. and the farmer has got to pay for it. He not only pays all these taxes on his land, but pays his income tax on all above one thousand dollars besides. So he pays both ways while the rich, bloated bondholder only pays one. Yet Mercur had the impudence to stand up in Market Square and tell his people "the bonds are taxed the same as the farmer's land." He must be an ass, and all who believe him bigger asses.

GEN. McCLELLAN.-Gen. George B. McClellan, whose name will descend to posage, and who was defrauded out of the Presidency in 1864, arrived in New York on the 29th ult. He commanded the armies of the United States during the most perilous period of the struggle, and had he been sustained, as he should have been, by the government, would have ended the war two years, at least, before it did, and without the horrible loss of life which Grant inflicted upon the troops by his blindfold campaign in the Wilderness, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor, and elsewhere.

Democratic Meetings.

BRIARCREEK.

The Democracy of Briarcreek township was eloquently addressed on Wednesday evening last by Charles W. Miller, Esq., of this town. The meeting was enthusiastic, and all were well pleased with the speech. Everybody in that township is willing to concede to the Democracy an increase on their majority, on Tuesday next. The good old Democratic cause is well worked up in that as well as other townships in the coun-

GREENWOOD. On Monday evening last a good portion of the Conservative and Democratic citizens of Greenwood and Madison townships, were ably and earnestly addressed by Robt. F. Clark, Esq., at Millville. The meeting was respectably attended by men of both political parties. The speech was well received, and elicited frequent bursts of applause. It is confidently expected that Greenwood will "do better." Of course the Quakers will "vote as they fought." "Let us have neace."

On Monday evening last a large and enthusiastic meeting was held at Shellhammer's School House, on Summer Hill. The house was closely filled with the honest and true Democracy of Summer Hill, and many were compelled to remain outside. After the raising of a fine hickory, the assemblage was addressed by C. G. Barkley, Esq., who spoke about two hours to an attentive and earnest audience. This meeting was one of the best held in the county this fall. The Democrats of Summer Hill will show their strength on Tuesday next.

CENTRE.

ANOTHER MEETING IN CENTRE. On Tuesday afternoon the Democrats of Centre and adjoining townships were addressed by Robert F. Clark and Col. John G. Freeze, on Hill's camp ground. This meeting was the largest, possibly, ever held n the township. The Democrats of that district will increase their majority. The speeches were listened to with a good deal of attention and earnestness. Cheers for the speakers and the Democratic nominees closed the meeting. SUGARLOAF.

A pole and flag raising took place in Sugarloaf township, on Friday last, at the house of Ezekiel Cole. After the pole had been successfully placed in position, the audience withdrew to a stand prepared for the speaker, and after a short address by Mr. F. Cooley, Robert F. Clark, Esq., gave a full and complete history of the actions of the Republican party, and advocated strongly the claims of Seymour and Blair.

A meeting was held in this township on Saturday evening last and addressed by R. F. Clark, Esq. The meeting was organized by electing as President, SAMUEL LORE-MAN, Esq.; Vice Presidents, Solomon Artley, J. H. Hendershott, William Rohrbach, Elias George, and as Secretaries, N. W. McHenry and J. H. Reeder. It was well attended, and the indications are that Franklin will do her duty at the coming elections. Arrangements were made to have a full delegation at the mass meeting here.

MAINE. Mr. Clark and Freeze addressed a spirited and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy in Mainville, on Tuesday evening last. The Democrats in all that section of country are earnestly working for the success of the whole Democratic ticket. Maine will give a good account on next Tuesday.

For the "Democrat," An immense out-pouring of the Democrats of Colerain and the adjoining townships.

About 5000 in council! The Democrats of Colerain held a Mass Meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 29th, 1868, at Kirkwood, and never in our experience have we attended such a political meeting, of such vast num-bers, and such wild enthusiasm. Depend upon it the masses are moving for the Democratic nominees. Old Colerain is a consecrated spot, in Lancaster County, an Oasis, in a desert—the home and asylum of the oppressed, and which will give Seymour and Blair a sweeping majority. After the meeting was organized, it was ably and eloquently addressed by several gentlemen from Lancaster and Philadelphia cities. Music by Fulton's Cornet Breez. by Fulton's Cornet Brass Band. We may truthfully say, the meeting was a grand success, and indicates the great carnestness of the people to achieve a victory this fall. The Rudicals have adopted oil and torches instead of argument. Poor, simple creatures, do they think they are in Africa instend of America? Brains and not negro and oil must rule this country! LOOK OUT EOR A BLOODY SHIRT.—The necessity of the Radicals is extreme. The election is near at hand, and horrible stories of outrages in some far off sections of the South, of bloody deeds at the dead hour of midnight by the terrible Ku Klux, will now be circulated, with the design of operating upon the minds of the credulous. Believe no such tales! After the election you will hear none of them. Don't be fooled, but make the Radicals toe the mark and explain and defend their own outrages upon popular liberty, and their frauds upon and robbery of the public treasury. Depend upon it, the bloody shirt which they flaunt in the air, has been stained by Radical pigments in order to influence the election.
