Fall Care of Gardens. We have more than once spoken of the tendency, which so often prevails among farmers to neglect proper attention to their gardens at all seasons of the year. The farm appears so much more important in farm appears so much more important in the extent of its productions, and in the amount of labor required to keep it in proper condition, that the household part of the grounds, the garden, is too often left to take care of itself, or left to the care of those who are unable to work it properly. In the season of planting, the comparatively trifling work that is required to make a good garden is withheld, on the plea that there is more pressing work in the field. The farmer who acts on this principle does an another transfer on the Pennsylvania Rail road and retriving at New York at 300 and 935 pm.

1540 a m and 350, 635 pm. and 935 pm.

1550 and 450 pm. and 935 pm.

1550 and 410 pm.

1550 and 810 pm.

1550 and 410 pm.

1550 farmer who acts on this principle does an injury to himself and to his friends; for nothing contributes more to the supply and the comfort of the social board than a productive garden. It may be made almost half the support of a family, and, with its small fruits, its roots and its vegetables of every description, it adds immensely to the good cheer of a country home.

On the supposition that this part of a farmer's duty has not been neglected at the proper season for raising the crops, we would remind our readers that the time is at hand when the fruits of such labor are to be cared for. And many of our readers have no other farm than their garden, so that it stands them in hand to reap the advantage of their summer toil by carefully gathering and storing the product. The value of all kinds of vegetables depends, in a great measure, upon the condition in which they are gathered and stored away. Many garden roots will not require to be taken up before the close of the month, and some of them not until October, but we give these timely hints and would especially advise all who have such crops to store to have places provided for them in season. that they may not suffer by being left out too long. After all the crops are garnered, the garden itself should be put in complete order all weeds and useless bushes removed, and everything made ready for another season. This will both invite and facilitate labor in the spring .- New York Observer.

CHICKEN SALAD. - Boil a young chicken

until quite tender, mince the white mean fine. Take two or three fresh lettuces and cut the leaves of all, reserving the hearts for garnishing. To make the dressing, boil four eggs for twelve minutes, take them out of the shells and put them in cold water until they become thoroughly cold; then rub the yolks smooth with a spoon, and mix them well with three tablespoonsful of salad oil or melted butter, a teaspoonful of salt. the same of made mustard, a little pepper and essence of celery; when these are smoothly mixed, add very gradually a wine glass of strong vinegar. Put the lettuce on a dish, lay the minced chicken upon it, and pour the dressing around it; cut the whites of the eggs in rings to garnish the salad, cut each lettuce heart in four, and make a border round the dish, interspersed with beet root, or hard boiled eggs in quarters.

Cows Holding up their Milk .- Cows that hold up milk, says Mr. Johnson, can be cured if they will drink sour milk. After drinking, and as soon as they begin to lick the pail, they will give down freely. He has tried it with cows that would give about two-thirds the proper quantity, retaining the other portion. Then he gives them the milk to drink, and waits until they begin to lick the pail, when he has no trouble in obtaining the remainder. He has tried meal, salt and various things, but found nothing to produce such an effect as sour milk.

THE Farmers' Club of Herkimer county. New York, resolved unanimously that it is unwise to pasture meadows in the fall, or to rely upon the after-growth for cow-feed. It was the general opinion that corn should be sown at intervals through the season, and be fed with hay in the proportion of three parts of the former to one of the latter.

Between 1850 and 1860 the increase in the valuation of American neat cattle was about thirty-three and one third per cent., and the aggregate value is now estimated at one thousand millions of dollars-an increase sufficiently large to demand special

For every three hundred and fifty bushels of potatoes removed from our fields, the soil sustains a loss of ninety-two pounds of potash. Consequently, wood ashes is one of the most valuable of manures in the culture of the potato. TWELVE quarts of soot in a hogshead of water will make a powerful liquid manure, which will improve the growth of flowers garden vegetables, or root crops. THE veterinary editor of Wilkes' Spirit of the Times recommends the following for scratches in horses: Take sulphate of zinc one drachm; glycerine two ounces; apply every morning.

ONE reason of the fertility of new land is the decaying of roots, which renders the soil porous. Clover roots will produce a similar result in old land.

PORKS HOTEL.

GEO. W. MAUGER, Proprietor.

The above well-known hotel has recently under gone radical changes in its internal arrangements and its proprietor announces to his former custom and the travelling public that his accommodations for the comfort of his guests are second to none in the country. His table will always be found supplied, not only with substantial food, but with all the delicacies of the season. His wine and liquory (except that popular beverage known as 'Mellenry,') purchased direct from the importing houses, are entirely pure, and free from all poisonous arugs. He is thankful for a liberal patronage in the past, and will continue to deserve it in the future.
