ACOURST. - On Thursday last, Wilham Coleman, liveryman of this town, while returning from having taken a lead of passengers to Laird-ville, met with a rather serious accident, to himself, by the breaking of the pole in his wagon. His horses became unmanageable, from fright, which caused him to exert himself so much as to receive severe injuries. He was brought home a few days after, and at present is repidly improving.

place. Some important suits will be brought up. One murder trial is on the tapis and is confidently expected to be dispered of. We silude to the murderers of Maj. Rea. It is hoped that if any of our subscribers attend Court, they will not forgot to call in and take a look at the printer. Do not go off home before heeding this gentle hint. "Do you forstah?"

"Barney" Stohner keeps a Hotel in this town, near the Court House, and a pretty good one, too. Next week being Court, he is prepared to board Jurymen, Witnesses, Suitors, and others, upon the most reasonable terms. His bar is furnished with liquors of the choicest kinds, and eigers of the finest brands; besides his "beet" is unequalled in the hyperborean part of the State. 'Zwei lager und pretzel!'

ONE man less in the scramble for the office of Revenue Assessor in this District. Last Thursday's Republican contains a "card" from P. John, very politely declining the use of his name in connection with that office. He prefuces his "card" with a strong "solicitation," signed by his most active friends, to be a candidate for Assessor; but it's no use, the Colonel down town has got the inside track, consequently this the other day and found that the reasthe Docter has no inclination for that office.

DON'T fail to attend the Auction Bales of Dry Goods, Cloths, Cassimeres, Blankets, Silver-plated Ware, Notions, &c., in Wynkoop's New Building, on Third St., every evening this week. The goods are all note, and must be sold to the highest bidder. This is a rare chance for our citizens to obtain Fall and Winter Goods cheap. -Attend and buy your coats, vests, pants- | WILL GO TO loons, and hosiery, cheap. There is no deception in these sales. AN EXTRAORDINARY RUN.-The Sunbury Gazette of last week says: "One day last week Frank Bright, exercising at Haas' Billiard room, in this place, made a run of 1200. He could have continued the run, but got tired of the sport. Who can best it in this part of the State?"

What say our Bloomsburg billiardist to the proposition?

THE Berwick Gazette says that the Radicals of that town and vicinity became so ravinous over the election of Grant and Colfax that they went to work on Wednesday last and actually roasted and eat up a whole ox in the streets of that town. Isn't it horrible? An awful set of Radienls in that place. Wonder if they, in less than one year, will not be mad enough, if they are allowed to go on at this rate, to roast and cat Grant and Colfax, trowsers and all? Do you understand?

Joseph Lilley, Esq., of Light Street, makes it a point to never forget the printer. He always has a fat Turkey for him, and some times a lot of chickens to throw in. The "Turk." handed us the other day is of large proportions and in good case; and we understand that a council of war was held over him the first even ing after he placed his feet upon new and unacquainted grounds, and it was resolved ful of sult, half a teacup of molasses, and | not to make an attack upon "Turkey" until 14 o'clock P. After the engagement we'll inform our readers of the result; but in the meanwhile, let us not forresult; but in the meanwhile, let us not forget the walls; but in the meanwhile, let us not forget to exclaim, long live all such men as Squire Lilley!

Tax new editor of the Republican feigns to be smart, when he attempts to inform his readers, under "series of carthquakes," that a "great havoe" has taken offeet on the Democratic press of this place. In a political point of view, we have witnessed greater "swallowings" up of "concerns" than the astute editor imagines. -For instance, when A. Johnson was taken All cotton, thread, oil, &c. Business Notices.

Dr. H. C. Hower, has lately replenished his already large stock of boots, shoes, hats, caps, and furs. His stock will not only compare favorably with any other in this market, but is not surpassed by any goods found in other stores. His assortment of furs is varied and well calculated to meet the demands. They have been selected with much care. A good article can be had at this store. Every article he sells warranted as represented. Give him a call.

Propie are complaining about the high price of clothes, but if they would go to A. J. Evans' establishment they would find that he has a fine lot of clothing at prices which any one can afford to pay. Seeing is believing.

Splendid assortment of winter goods just opened at Brower's corner Main and Iron Sts. Don't fail to stop there and look at them, as his prices are as low, as his goods are high in the scale of excellence.

KEYSTONE ahead! Crowds still flock to the well known store of D. A. Beckley, to get good Boots and Shoes. We noticed on was, that he sold better goods for lower prices than any other man in town. He has some fine goods yet left. Call and get them before it is too late.
