All persons indebted to this office, are notified that they must settle up before the first of January, 1869. We trust all wi square up their accounts during December, and thus save us the trouble of making up and forwarding bills. It is our intention to bill all accounts due at that time, and if not then promptly paid, we shall be compelled to make costs. We hope our patrons will settle promptly, as the demand upon each is so small that there is no reason why it should not be pald.

THE LADY'S FRIEND for January has been received. It commences the new year in full earnest, and bids fair to improve as it grows older. The ladies have, in this magazine, an interesting and instructive visitor. The fashion plates and patterns are gotten up in the most tasteful manner; always pleasing and fascinating to ladies of good taste and judgement. Its literary department is filled with most excellent reading from the ablost pens in the country.

A gentleman from the country came dashing into town the other day with his wife, bent on doing up their winter's trading. They stopped at our friend's store across the way, and while Mrs. - was doing up the trading in the dry goods and grocery line, the husband thought he would step out and buy a suit of clothes for himself: and in a few moments he returned fitted up from head to foot with an entire new out-fit, which so much improved his appearance that it was with great persuasion that the lady could be convinced that she possessed so comely a husband. He had bought his clothes of A. J. Evans.

anarchy and ruin.
The Day Book, therefore, demands the restoration of the White Republic, and as his must be and will be accomplished, either through their reason, or the blood and suf-fering of the people, it carnestly labors for the former, and by boldly grappling with the errors, lunacies and crimos of Mongrelsm, it strives its utmost to save the country from the awful necessities of the latter.

The DAY-BOOK will, however, be more than ever devoted to all the varied purposes of a news paper. The result of his labors was a glorious success for himself and suffering humanity.—The celebrated Plantation Bitters was thus made known to the world.
