PERSONAL.

All persons indebted to this office, are notified that they must settle up before the first of January, 1860. We trust all will square up their accounts during December. and thus save us the trouble of making up and forwarding bills. It is our intention to bill all accounts due at that time, and if not then promptly paid, we shall be compelled to make costs. We hope our patrons will settle promptly, as the demand upon' each is so small that there is no reason why it should not be paid.

The Superintendent of Common Schools of Columbia county is visiting schools in the rural districts this week.

For The County Auditors will meet at the Commissioners' office on Monday next. to make the annual examination into our county affairs.

To OUR PATRONS.-The coming February Court will afford an opportunity to many of those indebted to this office to square up their accounts with us.

The Berwick Gazette says: "Our Methodist friends are engaged in holding a series of protracted meetings. They are meeting with success."

DO. IT is contemplated to start another banking institution in this town. If established it will not do business under the National Banking system. The idea does not seem to meet with general favor.

BO A Sabbath School Convention is being held in the M. E. Church at this place. It commenced on Tuesday last to continue till Thursday evening. Delegates from nearly all the Schools in the county are present.

As the editor of this paper has retired from business, all who are indebted to this office know what to do; and those having claims on the editor had better not be in too big a hurry calling on him.

***** Dor Prof. F. H. Wilson, an experienced and renowned ventriloquist, is in town, and will give private parlor and school entertainments at reasonable rates when called upon. All orders through the post office will be promptly attended to.

THE jurors were drawn for the February term on Monday last. One hundred and twenty-four were selected. Some one said the editor of this paper was "pulled".

THERE is a lull in politics. The political millennium is postponed till the holidays are over. Our legislators are recruting themselves with two weeks' relaxation, after just two weeks of labor. While there are many of them for whose courses we would not like to answer, yet we venture the assertion that the majority are doing less mirchief now, in their holidays, than they will do when they get to work again. semble the millennium will be further postponed till Grant's inauguration. We hope it will not then end in smoke !

the sale of the former having been made after full and ample consultation with all "whom it concerned." It is true, the editor, late of the pill box, was not consulted. Reason: it was supposed by all immediately interested in this transaction, that he would have nothing to say in a matter that was entirely Democratic. Had we known that the Republican man would have taken this purely private business transaction of our own so to heart, he might have been called in, but we doubt very much whether he would have been considered a man of sufweighed for all it is worth, when we announce that we had barely become acquaint. ed, he having just entered the editorial chair. All people had best not be too fast, Harper's Monthly Mugazine Is unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the world. Here is what the press says : The most popular monthly in the world. -

New York Observer. We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of Harper'

Magazine—a journal with a monthly circula-tion of 170,000 copies— in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of this work as an evidence of the culture of the american people; and the popularity it has acquired is merited.
