Save your girls.

These are picnic days. Do you like vegetables? Remember the ice gorge. Haymaking is about over. Back to the breakfast food. Just so the hens don't strike. Garden vegetables are plenty. We are in the thunder storm belt. Open air services are popular now. Vacationists are on the move daily. Got the fever; improve your property.

The next legal holiday will be Labor Day.

January 1st, 1905—A new year and a new town. The belated corn crop is now rushing the season. No sunstrokes have taken place hereabouts so far. There is no cry of a scarcity of water this summer. Two papers for the price of one. The Intelligencer and The American Farmer go together for $1.00. Our neighbor, Groceriesman John Bruders, Sr., enjoyed a pleasant visiting trip to Philadelphia for a few days. Miss Lottie Belle Bingham, one of Sunbury's amiable young damsels, graced our humble domicile for a few days this week.

Prof. Dieffenbacher and family and Miss Amelia Phillips, our kind neighbors, are off on a pleasant trip, visiting at Lewisburg, Washingtonville and other places for a few weeks.

Milton, which up to this time has had but one fire company, will have three and possibly four horse companies in the near future.

Keep your horses covered with nets so that the flies cannot torture the patient animals during this weather.

A number of the churches of this city will be closed during the month of August.

Dealers in this section are complaining about a scarcity of quarter dollars.

The Rev. L. D. Ulrich will return home July 30th. Services at Trinity Lutheran church will be resumed Sunday, July 31.

The Milton council has voted to pave Front and Filbert streets in that borough.

The weather man has been showing a disposition to do things again.

A number of the city's pastors will take their summer vacation next month and they well deserve it. No other city has more conscientious, hard-working men at the head of its churches.

Many are now overheating themselves rushing for a cooler place. The Japanese live mainly on rice and dried fish. We're coming to it.

The Bloomsburg fair and the new trolley line will work hand in hand.

The superstructure for the Danville and Bloomsburg Electric Railroad's bridge over Fishing Creek is now being unloaded at Rupert.

Supt. Keefe with a force of men made some necessary repairs on the 18 inch water main near the Hotel Oliver yesterday.

It's hard to tell whether the weather will energy or collars the quicker. It may get too hot to work, but it is never too hot to go to the ball game.

The man with a cool place in the country is finding out how many devoted friends he has.

It is no doubt because the air of Danville is so pure that heat prostrations are so comparatively few among us.

The Reading Company has a force of men at work in the lower yard at Tamaqua, laying new tracks. It is the intention of the company to greatly increase the capacity of the yard.

The press dispatches state that Roosevelt took a bath and Parker indulged in a swim yesterday. The indications are that the country will have clean politics this fall and that the candidates are playing for the cold water vote.

Tuesday afternoon the vicinity of Kinross was visited by a thunder storm of a cyclonic character. While no buildings were materially damaged much injury was done to the crops. Fields of oats were laid completely flat, and corn was blown down. A number of trees, both fruit and forest, succumbed to the storm.

Save Expense

and save a bit of sickness by having Beecham's Pills in the house and taking one when you first notice anything going wrong. You will feel well, look well and keep well if you will learn to use

Beecham's Pills

Sold Everywhere. In boxes 10c. and 25c.

New potatoes, beans, peas, lettuce and beets are plenty, no one need suffer if the meat strike keeps up.

It is hard to tell what the business men of Sunbury are talking most about—base ball or free bridges, says the Northumberland Press.

Although the election is nearly four months off voters generally seem to be taking more than the usual interest in the progress of events.

Every effort for good roads in this country deserves the most cordial encouragement. Good roads mean greater pleasure, better markets, more comforts and increasing contentment.

The Fourth of July death list is now up to eighty-four and all the snowflakes are not yet in. But that is sufficient to prove that the people of the United States are patriotic at any expense.

Milton has a peeping Tom, and the other night he was discovered on a tree opposite an Arch street home, and beat a hasty retreat. It will not be good for him, says the Standard, if he is ever caught in that vicinity again.

Washington Camp, No. 567 P. O. S. of A., of Riverside, will picnic at DeWitt's Park, August 29. An excellent program will be rendered. In the afternoon a base ball game will be played, and in the forenoon prominent speaker will deliver addresses. P. O. S. of A. members and the general public are invited.

Hospital for the Insane Commencement Exercises

Superintendent Meredith Master of Ceremonies—Eight Sweet Girl Graduates, Three of Whom Receive Valuable Prizes—Et Cetera.

DANVILLE, PA., JULY 20, 1904.

To the Editor of the INTELLIGENCER.

The twelfth annual commencement of the training school for attendants at the Danville Hospital for the Insane, was the feature in this vicinity on Thursday night of last week, when the handsomely frescoed amusement hall glittered with 'fair women and brave men,' and upon which brilliant event nearly every available seat in the spacious auditorium was occupied with especially invited guests, attendants and patients of the hospital.

At the appointed time the officials, entertainers and portion of the board of directors—Wm. L. Gouger, of this city; Howard Lyon, of Hughesville, and Wm. F. Shay, of Watsonstown—were formed on the stage in graceful crescent shape; the scene thus presented would have added lustre even to the great master of art illustrated London News.

The several numbers on the program, which follows, were announced by the efficient superintendent of the hospital, Dr. Hugh B. Meredith:

Prayer by Rev. J. E. Hutchison, pastor of the Mahoning Presbyterian church; overture, "Flora," Schlegelgroll, orchestra; address to the class, Chas. M. Clement, Esq.; "A Dream of Heaven," Bauer, orchestra; conferring diplomas, the Superintendent; march, "Uncle Sammy," Holmann, orchestra; awarding prizes, Dr. J. E. Hutchison; benediction, Rev. J. E. Hutchison; march, "Soldier's Blood," Von Blohn, orchestra.

The graduating class consisted of Mae C. Shade, Lizzie M. Johns, Sarah Emily Johns, Mrs. Sarah J. Kester, Margaret Naomi Dieck, Carrie Isabel Russell, Mrs. Wm. C. Burger, Alice Cullen Bookmiller, C. Fress Ash, Whitfield Ford, Harry F. Deane, Jno. A. Strauser, Jno. C. Robinson, G. Raymond Barrett, Cyrus M. Gerringer, Harry De La Bigler, Wm. Chas. Burger, George Anderson Brown.

Dr. J. E. Hutchison, of the hospital staff of physicians, awarded prizes to three graduates having attained the highest average in the class of '04: First, Carrie Isabel Russell, of Danville; second, C. Fress Ash, of Stillwater; third, Lizzie M. Johns, of Lykens. Previous to the awarding of prizes Superintendent Meredith addressed the graduates in well-chosen, eloquent and scholarly remarks, and then presented the worthy, with diplomas, which was enthusiastically applauded by the large and delighted audience.
