VOL LXXV.

DANVILLE, MONTOUR COUNTY, PA., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1904

NO. 50

HUGE CHESTNUTS WITH A HISTORY

Chestnuts of remarkable size and a history of uncommon interest are displayed in the window of the Leuziger drug store, M. H. street. They were brought here by Dr. Sobers and a party of Danville friends who recently visited the chestnut farm near Paxinos owned by O. R. Sobers, a cousin of Dr. Sobers and a man whose fame as a fancy shot with the shot gun is wide. Even Buffalo Bill had to yield laurels to Mr. Sobers, who won a contest with him and with it $1,000. At the present time Mr. Sobers has a standing challenge offering to wager from $5,000 to $25,000 with any marksman of his class who desires to meet him.

WANT RULES ALL OBEYED

Some of the School Directors at the regular meeting of the Board of Education Monday night went after the teachers "tooth and nail." The things they complained of were detaining children too long after school, making them write words for punishment, giving them too much work and taking a per centage from their lessons for bad conduct. After a long discussion the superintendent was instructed to inform the teachers that if they violated the rules governing the schools he would not recommend them for re-election.

HEAD CRUSHED BY TRAIN

Michael Greely, aged about 28 years, was instantly killed at Grovania on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad yesterday afternoon. His head being frightfully crushed, an arm torn from his body and his body all over knocked and bruised in a shocking manner. Philadelphia and Reading freight train No. 84 was passing the north Mill street crossing as a crowd of men and boys, Greely among them, approached the track. The party decided to ride to Grovania and back. Greely remarked before mounting a car that no train ever running could make him dig the gravel, but he narrowly escaped meeting his fate a moment later in jumping on. When the train passed the station he was sitting on a lumber car. When the train reached Grovania, in attempting to dismount, he missed his footing and fell under the cars. After several cars passed over him he was thrown from beneath the cars outside of the rails.

BOAT UPSET; MAN IN RIVER

The most exciting kind of an experience was that of John Burke, one of the bridge engineers, who on Saturday morning was thrown into the river by the upsetting of his boat and burdened with the weight of his clothes, was obliged to swim for his life a long distance to a "dead man," the nearest place on which he could find a place of refuge until fellow workmen came to his aid.

ONE AFTER BOAT, OTHER AFTER SON

Two runaway boys and a stolen boat, the pursuit of the boys by the crew of the boat and by a man looking for his missing son and the chase meeting in this city of the two men, who resumed the search together, form the basis of a strange story of considerable interest.

ONE MILL TAX FOR BOND DEBT

Council met Friday night in regular session and acted upon numerous matters of interest and importance. President Davis occupied the chair and the following members were present: Messrs. Vastine, Reifsnider, Swank, Montgomery, Fenstermacher, Boyer, Deitrich and Lloyd.

OLD TIMERS WON THE VETERANS OPENING GAME

Before an audience of four hundred people Friday eve the Danville Old Timers Basketball team defeated the Friendship Fire Company team of Bloomsburg by the score of twenty-five to eight. This was the first game of the season for both teams, the fact being evident from the character of the playing. Numerous chances for goals failed to net any gain, and the passing was ragged at times. This is to be expected, however, in the early part of the season when the players have had so short a time for practice.

Sunbury Defeats Danville.

In the Sunbury-Danville foot ball game, which was called 3:15 p. m. Saturday, at Sunbury the Sunbury team won by a score of 15 to 0. It was difficult to keep the people off of the field and many times the Danville players were unable to see the runner. Danville won the toss and the kick-off. By end plays Sunbury in this half made two touch downs, but in the second half they only made one. Geist got one touch down and Faushold two.

Hospital Barn Still Burns.

And still the fire burns at the State Hospital barn. In spite of the rain of the last few days the grain and hay that was in the structure destroyed by the flames on last Wednesday is yet smoldering. Of course while the fire exists nothing can be done to clean up that section of the barn, but in the part where the steers perished good progress is being made in removing the debris.

A Pleasant Trolley Party.

The following ladies Friday evening enjoyed a trolley ride to Bloomsburg and there took supper at the Exchange hotel: Misses Annie Angle, Catherine Andrews, Mame Connelly, Lizzie Fischer, Belle Riffe, Odessa Rounley, Laura Thornton, May Horton and Mary Pegg.

No Trouble in Adjustment.

The adjustment of the fire loss on the cattle barn on the State Hospital farm will be satisfactorily made and in a very short time, it is understood. Two of the insurance adjusters have been here already this week and have gone over the ground. Only one man is yet to come in the interest of a company holding insurance on the burned structure.

Constables Taken to Task.

Joseph Kalbfus, secretary of the State Game Commission, severely criticizes the constables of Pennsylvania, especially those in this section, for their inactivity in arresting violators of the game law. He says:

Men's Class Took Walk.

A novel and enjoyable feature of local Y. M. C. A. gymnasium work was instituted yesterday when the men's class took a trolley ride and cross country walk. They started from Danville at 8:20 o'clock in the morning and arrived at Grovania at 8:45. They then walked back to this city passing through Manser and Toby Run hollows.

Chief Gives a Warning.

The tendency to disorderly action on the part of boys and girls on Halloween has been growing so strong of recent years that in Danville this year very severe punishment will follow the arrest of any engaged in creating mischief or disturbance. Next Monday night is Halloween and Monday night is Halloween and Monday night is Halloween.

Died After Long Illness.

After an illness of several years Peter Kinn died of a complication of diseases at his home, 364 Church street, at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was 63 years of age. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Eugene, Alfonso, Harry, Edward, Emma, Margaret, Lily and Edith, all of this city; Mrs. John Williams and Mrs. Bert Schooley of Wyoming and Mrs. Edward Reed of Watson town.

Weds at Watson town.

At the home of Mrs. Widell, Elm street, Watson town, her youngest daughter, Miss Lou Widell, was married to Robert F. Dietz, of Danville, at noon yesterday. The bride was Miss Zora Harman, of Montgomery and groomsmen, John Lee, of Danville. The bride wore a pretty white mull gown and the bridesmaid's dress was of cream voile.

Steam Digger a Big Success.

The steam digger brought from Sunbury by Caldwell, Barry & Leonard yesterday was placed in operation and worked very well in taking a flat load of stone, concrete and other supplies out to the bridge piers. The placing of the coping on the third pier was begun yesterday, when the work of putting the remaining nine courses of stone on the fourth pier also was started.

Christmas Presents Free.

The War department will ship free of charge from San Francisco to Manila such Christmas packages as reach the superintendent of the army transport service in San Francisco by December 1st. Packages will be forwarded from Manila to points in the islands without charge, so far as they may be shipped by the inter-island transport system.

Shamokin Firemen to Parade.

At the coming election the citizens of Shamokin will vote on the question of increasing the bonded indebtedness of Shamokin $45,000, for the purpose of building new hose houses and purchasing fire fighting appliances. In order to work up interest in the election, the firemen of Shamokin will hold a monster parade and demonstration on the evening of November 7th, the day before election.

Election Oyster Supper.

The ladies of St. Paul's M. E. church on Tuesday, November 8, will serve an election night oyster supper from 5 to 12 p. m. in the room now used by a millinery store in the Saal Lyon building, Mill street.

Stop burning dead leaves. It is a nuisance.

The Burgess of Shamokin has issued a proclamation cautioning persons against scattering corn, grain, flour, etc., on the streets on Halloween.

Cavalry Veterans Meet.

The meeting of the Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry in the Milton Opera House Tuesday evening was an affair of a very happy nature. Ex-Sheriff Breckbill, of Montour county was at the meeting and helped in the enjoyable entertainment by giving an amusing address. Mr. Breckbill was elected a Vice President of the Association.

Annual Inspection G. A. R.

The annual inspection of Goodrich Post, No. 29, G. A. R., was held last evening, the event being one of the most enjoyable and interesting which the comrades of Danville have participated in for many years.

Sling Shots Under the Ban.

The State Game Commission has instructed its wardens and agents everywhere to arrest boys using slings as a weapon with which to kill song and insectivorous birds, and already some arrests have been made. Secretary Kalbfus has quite a collection of weapons adorning the walls of his office, all of which were taken from persons engaged in violating the game laws.
