ROCKEFELLER CRUSHES A MAN

Buying Up Village to Get Control of a Tavern. Tarrytown, N. Y., Nov. 28.

For three years he has vainly endeavored to buy John J. Melin's property in Briggsville, a village near the oil magnate's large estate here.

When Rockefeller realized he had failed to budge Melin, he decided to take the tavern keeper's business away from him.

Rockefeller's many purchases have had their effect on Melin, whose business has dwindled until he is losing money.

A cold wave is due today. Now for the holiday rush of trade. The World's Fair shutters are now being hung up.

Now the man who sells coal will get weather that is to his liking. Now that Thanksgiving is behind us, the rush of holiday trade will set in.

The American hen once more manifests her ability to reduce the family savings. The foot ball casualties for this season have been somewhat above the average.

We have the sites, the advantages, the railroads, the facilities. Give us more industries. Lester Dreese of Paintersville, is temporarily employed as an operator at the South Danville depot.

The women who are advocating the abolition of Santa Claus never had any little ones of their own. It is believed that some of the amateur hunters are responsible for the disastrous forest fires this fall.

Unsettled weather conditions are noted in the Northwest, which probably means a snow storm later in the week. The hog leaves the farm for 5 cents a pound and comes back as bacon at 18 cents.

By falling from the top of a derrick thirty feet high at Reading, Howard Haviland, son of P. O. Haviland, residing at Sunbury, sustained injuries which caused his death.

The merchants welcome the present cold wave, as Christmas is less than four weeks away, and the weather up to this time has not caused much of a demand for winter wear.

The stores of Danville are putting on a decided Christmas appearance. We were, as Christmas is less than four weeks away, and the weather up to this time has not caused much of a demand for winter wear.

There is a distinct and noticeable apathy among the hon fraternity. Few of them are working and none of them appear to be looking for employment.

A settlement was effected Tuesday in the case of Com. W. William Mensch, William Burger, prosecutor, before Justice of the Peace Weiss at Bloomsburg.

MITCHELL TO REMAIN AS CHIEF OF MINERS

Volting Blanks Issued Show Him Sole Candidate for Head of Union. Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 28.

President John Mitchell, Vice-President William Lewis and Secretary-Treasurer W. B. Wilson, of the United Mine Workers, will be re-elected without opposition at the next annual convention of the union at Indianapolis January 16.

The voting blanks for the various locals, received here to day, show that Messrs. Mitchell, Lewis and Wilson are the only persons nominated for their respective positions.

The nominations have closed, and the men will ballot for national officers between now and January 1, when all returns must be in.

Ma. Eronn.—We have been enjoying beautiful weather here the past two weeks. It was cold in the morning, but as soon as the sun arose it would clear off and be very pleasant.

Our cider mills are still doing business at the old stands. Monday was the coldest day of the season up to this time.

Mr. Simon Jarrett visited his father, S. H. Jarrett, on Thanksgiving Day. William Marr's new barn has been completed, and is now ready for occupation.

From what I can learn there will be considerable moving among tenant farmers next spring. Thanksgiving Day was cloudy and gloomy, being quite a contrast to the fine weather we have been having.

Miss Ethel M. Fonk, of the Williamsport Commercial College, spent the Thanksgiving vacation at the home of her parents. Mr. Harry McKee, of Geneva, New York, has been spending a part of his honeymoon at the home of A. J. Levan.

John R. Derr sold his farm to Frank Ellis, of Exchange, and bought the Carver farm near McEwensville. Mr. Ellis has taken possession and is building a wagon shed. Mr. Derr moved to McEwensville.

Warrior Run Lodge, No. 645, I. O. O. F. will hold its thirty-sixth anniversary on Thursday evening, Dec. 8. There will be addresses by Rev. T. O. Stein, J. H. C. Mainford and Mr. A. F. Heller.

The teachers of our township are enjoying their usual yearly outing at the institute. Well, that is all right if they derive any benefit from their presence at the institute.

There is a distinct and noticeable apathy among the hon fraternity. Few of them are working and none of them appear to be looking for employment.

DANVILLE MAN IN TROUBLE

Arrested by Citizens of Allentown for Operating a Scheme. Several citizens of Allentown, have preferred charges against Ralph A. Foulke, of Danville, Pa., who, it is asserted, operated a "get-rich-quick" scheme there.

Foulke's scheme, it is said, guaranteed dividends of over 65 per cent in ten weeks, or nearly 340 per cent a year. Foulke, it is asserted, represented the Keystone Commission Company of Danville, and received subscribers to the stock of the company.

The time for the distribution of dividends came, but Foulke, it is alleged, was not ready to make payments. Sunday Daily.

This week finds us a day late again. We try to make it a rule to go to press Thursday afternoon, but, yesterday being Thanksgiving we decided to get our paper out today.

When a woman says she wouldn't marry the best man alive she speaks the truth; she couldn't get him. "To-morrow" is the reef that has cost the life of many a business man.

Justice might take your part, but injustice takes you all. Too many irons in the fire eat up more expensive coal. Don't take a polite acknowledgment for an encore.

Curiosity oftentimes hides behind the mask of solitude. Everything comes to him who waits, except the waiter. When you are arguing with a fool, just remember the fool is doing the same thing.

The Rev. Irl. Hicks 1905 Almanac. The Rev. Irl. R. Hicks Almanac for 1905 is now ready, being the first edition ever issued. This splendid and costly book of 200 pages is a complete study of astronomy and storm and weather for 1905.
