

Danville Intelligencer

Established in 1828.

Keep the gutters open for the January thaw. The winter can hardly be called "too open."

One of the assurances—a white Christmas.

For the balance of this week there will be busy times in the stores.

Old Santa Claus is now packing up and preparing for his annual sleigh-ride.

There's work for every man who wants it. That is a condition, not a theory.

The corner stone for the new Methodist church in West Berwick was laid on Sunday.

Many farmers took advantage of the good sleighing yesterday and drove to this city.

Clear the snow from your own sidewalk and shake your neighbor into doing likewise.

Turkey seems disposed to go on the list of profitable meats so far as prices are concerned.

Mr. W. E. Berger, of Turbotville, renewed his subscription to our paper Saturday.

Mr. J. M. Moore, of near this city, paid his subscription for 1905 on Saturday.

Mr. J. B. Pullock, one of Washingtonville's foremost citizens, gave us a pleasant business call Monday.

The holiday vacation in the schools will begin on Friday afternoon and the pupils are full of gleeful anticipations.

Boys and girls are having a jolly, good time coasting on the pavement in front of the Mahony Presbyterian church.

Messrs. Wm. A. and Howard Smith, of Turbotville, made a pleasant call at the office of the Intelligencer on Friday last week.

Where is it the custom to peddle coffins on the streets, and to run funeral cars on the street railway tracks? Read Stoddard's Lectures.

Mr. Chas. Cotner, of Strawberry Ridge, an old subscriber to the Intelligencer gave us a business call Wednesday. He also renewed his subscription.

WANTED:—Manager for Branch office we wish to locate here in Danville Address, with references. MORRIS WHOLESALE HOUSE, CARE THIS PAPER.

What city has a climate so peculiar it has been described as "nine months liberal and three months infernal?" Read Stoddard's Lectures.

Another snow storm settled upon this city on Saturday last. It commenced falling about one o'clock in the afternoon, and continued until evening.

The fame of Lancaster county tobacco has spread abroad, and recently a request was received from the government of Italy for Lancaster county tobacco seed.

In what country are potatoes sold in halves and quarters, poultry by the piece, and doctors paid only as long as their patients have good health? Read Stoddard's Lectures.

Stacy Matlock, a graduate of the Carlisle school, class of 1890, has been appointed assistant disciplinarian of the Carlisle Indian School, a position heretofore filled by a white man.

Those in search of Souvenirs for Christmas presents for relatives and friends, should consult the advertising columns of the Intelligencer, and they will make no mistake in getting the worth of their money.

The annual meeting of the stock holders of the First National Bank, for the election of Directors, will be held at their Banking house, Cor. Mill & Bloom streets, Danville, Pa., on Tuesday, January 10, 1905, from one to three o'clock P. M.

W. L. McClure, Cashier.

Mr. Geo. Boudman, of Milton, gave us a very pleasant call on Monday, while in town visiting his sister. He renewed his subscription to the Intelligencer for 1905-6. Mr. Boudman is real jolly, and shows very perceptibly a hand disposition.

Thrown against the side of a car on which he was a passenger, while bound from his home in Montgomery to Williamsport, Douglas Denier lost consciousness and wandered about for a week, his mind a blank. When his memory returned he found himself in Massillon, O.

Egyptian planters have placed an order for three traction engines with the A. B. Farquhar Co., of York, Pa. Each engine is of 35-horse power. They will be built upon special designs, and patterns are being made to be used for plowing in the Nile valley, and are to be ready for shipment before March 1.

Burglars who broke into the general store of J. W. Fenner, at Ashley, Pa., Saturday night were so little concerned by the fear of discovery that they took time to have a feast of crackers, pickles and cheese, after which they leisurely went over the stock, picked out what they could carry away easily, and got away safely with goods valued at $300.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore Stalker celebrated her 104th birthday anniversary at her home at Williamsburg, Pa., Monday last. According to the custom of the last four years, she kept open house, and the whole town turned out to pay its respects to its oldest citizen.

One of "Grandma" Stalker's warmest friends is the steel magnate, Chas. M. Schwab, and never a year passes without a gift from him.

In what country is the cultivation of dwarf trees and flowers a national pastime in which the people have become so skilled that maples, pines, and oaks one hundred years old are only about two feet in height, five or six varieties of a flower are grown on a single plant, and newspapers make daily announcements of the progress in blossoming of favorite flowers in the parks?—Read Stoddard's Lectures.

BRYAN TO DRINK DEMOCRACY

Has Bought Thomas Jefferson's White Marble Punch Bowl.

Lincoln, Dec. 18.—A giant punch-bowl, hewn out of a solid block of white Virginia marble, that once adorned the festal board of Thomas Jefferson, now rests in state upon an oak table in the reception hall of Col. William Jennings Bryan's home. Mr. Bryan purchased the bowl from Dr. J. M. Scott, of Culpeper, Va., with a certificate of genuineness from Mrs. Agnes Thurman, of Albemarle, whose husband purchased the bowl at Monticello.

The bowl weighs over a hundred pounds and has the original oaken pestle with which Jefferson was wont to stir the brew.

"Way Down East."

"Way Down East" Manager Wm. A. Brady's most talked of production which will be presented at the Opera House on Friday, evening, December 30th has had unstinted and enthusiastic praise from the city school teachers, women, and in fact from people in every walk in life including thousands who are seldom seen inside of the walls of a theatre.

The scenes are laid on a New Hampshire farm, the play written by Lotie Blair Parker and elaborated by Jos. R. Grismer.

The play deals with simple incidents of country life, the purity and sweetness of which might run on forever out for the shadow of a sin.

The story is worked out by actors peculiarly fitted to portray the eccentricities and quaint humor of New England folk.

The production from a scenic standpoint will compare favorably with any play presented in many years.

Official Warning.

Dr. Benjamin Lee, secretary of the State Board of Health, has sent copies of a resolution recently adopted by the board broadcast through the State, warning persons against the use of impure water during the present drought.

The resolution states that during the drought and for three weeks following the most heavy rainfall disease germs will lurk in all water that has not been thoroughly filtered or boiled, or both.

It is hoped by members of the board that the publicity which is being given to the resolutions will lead all persons to exercise great care in the use of water and thus prevent an outbreak of disease. Many water companies throughout the State are compelled to pump water direct, giving no opportunity for filtration by sedimentation, and this affords opportunity for germs to hold high carnival.

Mother Gray's Appeal to Women.

If you will send me your name and address I will mail you FREE a package of Mother Gray's Australian Leaf, a certain, pleasant remedy for Women's ills. It is a safe monthly regulator and never failing. If you have pains in the back, Urinary, Bladder or Kidney trouble, use this pleasant union of Australian herbs, roots and leaves. All Druggists sell it, 50 cents, or address, Lock Box 862, Le Roy, N. Y.

Injured at Berwick.

Amos Shenk of East Danville, an employe of the American Car and Foundry Company, Berwick, met with an accident on Friday that resulted in crushing the middle finger of the right hand.

Shenk was manipulating the sill of a crane when the accident occurred. He came to his home in East Danville and Dr. Winterstein was called to dress the wound. It was not necessary to amputate the finger.

Grip Prevalent.

A prominent physician of the State says that the grippe is largely prevalent at the present time. It is a disease that has its peculiarities, this year its ravages being confined to the throat and head, while last winter it attacked the stomach and was attended by dysentery. He recommends that the stricken keep within doors and indulge in absolute rest.

Wrap Packages Securely.

The railway mail clerks request that newspapers call the attention of their readers to the importance of putting up Christmas presents in secure packages. Numbers of them, they say, become loose before they reach their destination, causing the clerks a great deal of unnecessary labor, besides having the package arrive unsightly and often in a damaged condition.

Thirty-Two Dozen Quail.

The members of the committee of the Danville Rifle and Gun Club recently appointed to solicit funds for the purchase of quail to stock the country in this vicinity have about completed their work. Sufficient money has been pledged to warrant the purchase of thirty-two dozen quail. These birds will be distributed about the middle of March.

The bridge building business is evidently booming. Several day passes northward over the Pennsylvania railroad from the Pennsylvania bridge iron is transported monthly to build miles of bridges.

The wise head of the family does not spend the last cent. He retains something for an emergency.

"I BELIEVE IN A GOD, BUT NOT AN ABSENTEE GOD."

"Bible No Longer Accepted as Ultimate: Ten Commandments Had Gradual Growth."

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 18.—Leaning far out over the pulpit in Appleton Chapel, his long white beard and flowing gown making him look like a veritable patriarch, Dr. Lyman Abbott, in a sermon to Harvard students to-night broke away from the theology which to-day forms the basis of the faith of millions of orthodox Christians and sounded the keynote of a new religion founded, not on the Bible, but on science and the out-reachings of the human heart.

"I wonder," he said, "if you students in Harvard will understand me when I say that I no longer believe in a great first cause. To-morrow the newspapers will get hold of this and brand me as a heretic. My God is a great and ever-present force, which is manifest in all the activities of man and all the workings of nature."

"I believe in a God who is in and through and of everything—not an absentee God, whom we have to reach through a Bible or a priest or some other outside aid, but a God who is closer to us than hands or feet. Science, literature and history tell us that there is one eternal energy, that the Bible no longer can be accepted as ultimate, that many of its laws were copied from other religions, that the Ten Commandments did not spring spontaneously from Moses, but were, like all laws, a gradual growth, and that man is a creature, not a creation."

"No thinking man will say there are many energies. The days of polytheism are past. There is only one energy. That energy has always been working. It is an intelligent energy. No scientist can deny it. It was working before Christ's time, even as it is now. For three years the clouds broke and the light flashed through. Then they closed again."

"Yet God has a personality. We recognize it as we recognize the personality of a Titan or an Angel. Only God is always working, always creating, whereas their work is done. God stands near us. The mother of a deaf, dumb and blind child gives her daughter one, two, three gifts without being recognized. Finally she breaks through the child's intelligence the fact that these gifts, so kind, so loving, spring from the same source. It feels the mother's hands and face, then throws its arms around her neck and kisses her. Even so, we, ever in the presence of God, come to realize His proximity and love. God makes for good, man's progress is a progress upward, each day is better than the first."

WED EARLY, SAYS PRIEST

Advices Girls Not to Waste Their Chances Long Courtships.

Mahanoy City, Pa., Dec. 18.—In a sermon of matrimony the Rev. William Sheridan, assistant rector of the Church of the Annunciation, at Shenandoah, strongly opposed protracted courtships and advised the young women of the congregation not to permit suitors to take up their time for years in wooing and then perhaps disappoint them when their opportunities for winning a husband are fewer. The young men of the parish were urged to marry early in life. As to courtships themselves, they should be carried on under watchful parental supervision.

Father Sheridan scored the divorce evil and declared that the children of divorced parents are worse off than orphans.

25 LASHES IF HE DRAK.

Document Dated in 1839 Bound Jesh Pomeroy to Sobriety.

Bangor, Me., Dec. 18.—A document recently found among the papers of the late S. D. Arnold, of Skowhegan, bears the signatures of fourteen men, only one of whom is now living. It resites that the signers agreed to pay Joshua Pomeroy $6. "to be divided between us, the undersigned, agreeable to the sums set against our names, provided that the said Pomeroy shall abstain from the use of any kind of ardent spirits for the term of five years, said $6 to be paid one moiety annually. Said Pomeroy agrees to take and receive on his bare back twenty-five lashes, to be laid on by any good athletic man selected for that purpose by any of the undersigned, in case he shall make use of any kind of spirits as before mentioned."

"Dated May 12, 1839."

The town records and traditions are silent as to whether Joshua Pomeroy kept sober and got the $6 or fell from grace and took the twenty-five lashes.
