PITTSBURG, Pa., May 24.—Lock-ed in a freight car without food and water for six days was the trying ex-perience of Peter Armstroug, aged 16 years of Chicago, who was taken to the Allegheny General hospital this morning in a starving and emaciated condition.

The boy was hardly able to speak but administered food in small portions The physicians who examined him said that he was much emaciated but with several good meals would be able to leave the hospital in a few days. Armstrong said his home was in Chicago but that he had been in Buffalo. A short time after he boarded the empty car the door was nailed up and despite his cries he was unable to at-tract attention. As far as he could remember he said that he had been without ford and water for six days.

Three Most Beautiful Roses ' By Paul de Longpre

At the urgent solicitation of the Woman's Home Companion, Mr. Paul de Longpre, who is the greatest painter of flowers in the world, consented to make a painting of what he considered "The Three Most Beautiful Roses," and the painting is without doubt one of the master pieces of this great artist. This magnificent picture is reproduced in all its original granis reproduced in all its original grandeur on the cover of the Woman's sonal counsel in the big legal battle to follow upon the crusade which he has started to purify the politics of the city.

Shortly before 10 o'clock the mayor was joined by Colonel Seldon Potter, whom he last night named as director.
