These monks live in the ordi-nary manner during the novitiate; then they go into cells for a period of six months; then, after an interval, for three years and ninery-three days; later for life. And such a cell: "Almost on a level with the ground," says Mr. Landon, "there was an opening closed with a fast stone from behind. Raphael, worth $3,500.-Stray Storles. Inacontent With Work. That there is much discontent with work among the so called middle classes in America is due in large part to the pampering of children, to the supplying of their natural and artificial wants and to the sentimental idea that "their day of toil will come soon enough." In general, work is not ... curse, but a blessing -a positive means of grace. One can hardly begin too early to impress upon children lessons of self help by tasks appropriate to their age and forces and to beget in them scorn of idleness and of depend-ence on others. To do this is to make them happy through the self respect that comes with the realization of pow-er and thus to approximate Tennyson's goal of man, "Self reverence, self knowledge, self control."-Century.

After half a minute's pause the stone moved or tried to move, but it came to rest again. Then very slowly and uncertainly it was pushed back, and a black chasm was revealed. There was again a pause of thirty seconds, during which imagination ran rich, but I d on othink that any other thing could have been as intensely pathetic as that we actually saw. "A hand, muffied in a tightly wound piece of dirty cloth, for all the world like a stump of an arm, was painfully thrust up, and very weakly it feit along the slab. After a fruitless fumbiling the hand slowly quivered back again into the darkness. A few moments later there was again an ineffectual effort, and then the stone slab moved noiselessly across the opening. Do It Now. The following sentiment has been variously attributed to Stephen Grei-let, Sir Rowland Hill, Edward Courtelet, Sir Rowland Hill, Edward Courte nay and the Earl of Devon, and is said to have been inscribed upon the tombstone of the latter: "I expect to pass through this world but once. If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show or any good thing I can do to any fellow being, let me do it now. Let me not defer it nor neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."
