THE COUNTY TICKET

R. C. W. SEIDEL, for County Commissioner, is a deserving young man, capable and ambitious, will serve the people honestly and exert himself in their interests. He is a property owner in the county and a good citizen. Give him your support.

Mr. Geo. M. Leighow is now serving you in the capacity of that which he asks your support for. If he has been near what you desire in a man for that office, return him to the same. You know his record is without a blemish.

For District Attorney—Chas. P. Gearhart is a capable attorney. He was a major in the late Spanish-American war, and will receive a rousing vote from soldiers, both old and young. He's a good man. Boost him along.

For County Auditor we have two whom we should be very careful to remember when speaking to a friend of our ticket, especially so in the case of Mr. Thos. Van Sant, who is able and willing at all times to do what he can for the county's interest. Mr. Amandus Shultz is the other candidate.

For Associate Judge you have only Judge Frank G. Blee to vote for, so we can see no reason for cutting your ticket at all, and we therefore advise to vote the straight ticket, both state and county, and save all unnecessary trouble of going over both or all sides.

—Every voter should go to the polls next Tuesday and vote for the men who will make good officials for the people, regardless of politics.

—It never pays beyond some slight temporary gain to deceive a man in any kind of business transactions. No man can afford to sell his reputation for probity, honesty, truthfulness or fair dealings as worth more than any price.

A party was held at the home of Emanuel Mower on last Friday evening. The young people reported a very pleasant time.

Another Life Sacrificed TO RAPACITY OF THE GANG

Cashier Clark, of Allegheny, Commits Suicide to Escape Importunities of Treasury Looters.

Having Involved Him Hopelessly in the Toils of Frenzied Finance the Gang Abandons Him to a Dishonored Grave—"The Bank Has Been Robbed by a Lot of Politicians," Was the Despairing Comment of Its Deceived President.

The failure of the Enterprise National Bank, of Allegheny City, and the suicide of its cashier, T. Lee Clark, is a climax in the trail of "blood and boodle," which has marked the career of the fiscal affairs of the Commonwealth by the Republican machine during a third of a century.

Favored by the Gang.

The Enterprise National Bank, of Allegheny City, has been favored by the gang since its incorporation in 1899. As far back as 1900 it held one-tenth of the treasury surplus and that ratio has never been diminished, though according to exigencies it has been increased at intervals. Its balance, moreover, has been regulated by its necessities. For example, according to the statement of the state treasurer a check of $100,000 was drawn against the balance on the last day of September. It didn't suit the bank to give up that amount at that time and the cashier notified State Treasurer Mathews of the fact, whereupon he drew a check for the amount in favor of the Enterprise Bank and mailed it at once.

The Enterprise National Bank, of Allegheny City, has a capital of $200,000 and no prudent custodian of trust funds would put in its vaults on deposit more than a single cent of its capital. But according to the records of the state treasury there was in 1912 $417,000 of state money, general fund, on deposit in the institution. In 1903 this was increased to $712,000, and in 1904 to $767,000. At the time of the failure of the bank and outside of the cashier the state deposit, including general and sinking fund, amounted to the prodigious total of $1,030,000.

Business Men Curious About It.

Naturally business men are curious to know the influences which secured for that particular bank the favor of the state in such profligate proportions. They can't understand how business men can be hypnotized in that way. But a scrutiny of the records of the gang speculators and industrial operators makes the matter entirely clear. That is about the time that "Bull" Andrews and his associates in the New Mexico railroad enterprise began operations the first considerable increase in the state deposit of the Enterprise National Bank, of Allegheny City, occurred. The cashier of the bank, now in a suit's grave, had undertaken to "finance" that operation with the funds of the state deposited in his bank. As the demands for money increased the state deposit was being run out and exposure inevitable the cashier settled his troubles and cancelled his obligations by blowing his brains out, just as other victims of gang rapacity had done before him.

Cashier Victim of Gang Rapacity.

The Enterprise National Bank, of Allegheny City, and its unfortunate cashier are victims of the machine admits of no doubt. When the crash came the unsuspecting president of the bank, Mr. Frederick Gwinner, was overwhelmed. Mr. Gwinner is an honest, industrious German American whose reputation for probity and intelligence was the mainstay of the institution. He trusted the cashier implicitly and the information of the disaster came to him like a bolt of lightning from a clear sky. After he had recovered from his astonishment he made the following statement:

"The bank has been robbed by a lot of politicians. I know nothing of the affairs of the bank. I have never been paid a cent allowed. For three years I have demanded of the directors that they accept my resignation, but they held to using my name."

"I was not under salary, nor will I be held responsible for the doings of Clark or anyone else connected with the bank. The only thing I will pay is about $50,000 which my relatives put in there at my special request. They believed it was safe, and put it there at my solicitation, and they must be protected. Further than that I will go in."

Notes which the bank should hold for large loans to politicians and others are reported missing. Their face value is probably several hundred thousand dollars. The total of this and of the secrets which receiver Cunningham is keeping to himself. One report is that it will reach as high as $900,000.

The most careful and repeated searching among the bank papers has failed to bring the notes to light, although the records of the institution show that they should be there. They are believed to represent the loans which the directors of the broken concern say were made by T. Lee Clark, the suicide cashier, without the knowledge of the board.

Clark, before he ended with a pistol ball, the troubles which were heaped upon him by the gang, may have been destroyed or hidden them. There is evidence that for some months prior to the crash the bank papers were badly mixed.

Among the notes which the receiver has found are said to be some old ones, on which the time had expired, with nothing to indicate that they had been paid or renewed. The system by which operations were conducted is one of the deepest mysteries which the government's bank experts have ever been a possibility is suggested that the politicians who got the money or overdue and unrenewed notes, after pocketing the spoil obtained through Clark, left the cashier to his fate. Then, unable to make good the loss or explain the missing notes, he was murdered. The missing notes are never found. It will be an immense relief to those politicians who got the money or overdue and unrenewed notes, after pocketing the spoil obtained through Clark, left the cashier to his fate.
