In Memoriam.

To Past Grand Daniel Diehl.

Upon us devolves just now a hard d unpleasant task, that of writing the Memoriam of our long time friend and brother Daniel Diehl. Fain would we have enjoyed his genial companionship and hearty fraternity, but in the hour least expected he "died." Nay, not died for our faith in the validity of the faith he possessed entitles us to say:

By the death of P. G. Danie Diehl, of Exchange, Lodge No. 898 I. O. of O. F., the order has lost one of its most efficient and active mem-bers. Brother Diehl died on the morning of Nov. 13th, 1905, at his home in Exchange, aged about seventy-three years.

home in Exchange, aged about seventy-three years.

Mrs. Diehl, his good wife, had arisen to start the kitchen fire when she heard an unusual noise up stairs. Upon going to the door and calling and receiving no answer, she went up and found him unconcious, lying on the floor, and in a few moments he expired.

Brother Diehl was one of the charter members of Exchange Lodge and for a number of years treasurer and for a number of years treasurer of the same. In all his active life he of the same never missed a meeting of his lodge except by sickness.

Few members of the order were more active in looking after its wel-fare, and his genial character and social qualities combined with his sturdy honesty, drew around him a host of loyal friends and supporters, who will miss his friendly admoni-tions and his hearty accountings in tions and his hearty cooperations in the affairs of the order and the especial interests of his lodge.

Interment was made at Strawberry Ridge on Wednesday, Nov. 15th, where he worshipped, he being a true and faithful christian man and a member of the Reformed church. That hearty hand shake and genial velcome will be missed in his_church is well as at his Lodge home.

WHEREAS, "He that ruleth all things for the best" has seen fit to re-move our most worthy and esteemed brother, as well as a kind husband and loving father, we humbly submit and say "Thy will be done." RESOLVED, That we extend our heart-felt sympathies to the bereaved widow, children and friends in this their sad bereavement. RESOLVED, That the charter in our Lodge room be draped in mourning and the members wear the usual badge of mourning for the period of thirty

THAT, a copy of this memorial be presented to the family of the deceased and recorded on the minutes of the Lodge and be published in the Dan-ville Intelligencer and Morning News.
