

SHE WON WAGER BY 12 MILE WALK

Over the hills to Danville is every step of twelve regulation miles, but the trip by foot is only a jolly lark on a moonlight night. At least Miss Mary Beaver, of Danville, a sister of Mrs. Russell Kelly, of Sunbury, thinks so, and she ought to know for she feasted on "Huylers' New Year's day for making the trip.

It was all the result of a dare. New Year's eve a party of young folks gathered at Miss Bertha Cromwell's Danville home to bid adieu to old 1905 and welcome young Mr. 1906. Cards and games not being available to hurry off the old year on account of it being Sunday, a moonlight stroll was suggested by one of the young gallants. All agreed and pairing off in couples the party sallied forth for a promenade. Conversation drifted from one subject to another until finally it reached romance and then "dare." The latter proved to be Miss Beaver's long suit.

One of the young men about midnight remarking that Miss Beaver did not care to walk to Sunbury, the young lady quickly accepted the challenge. Calling for a volunteer from the coterie of young men to accompany her Miss Beaver was somewhat embarrassed in making her choice, as all were "just dying" to serve her. Young Mr. Paul Vanman, however, was the chosen one. With a merry hurrah from the others as a send off, Miss Beaver setting the pace, which was indeed quite lively "the dare" couple crossed the bridge to South Danville and struck out over the hills for Sunbury. Ping pong ideas were cast to the winds by Miss Beaver and pedestrian records were smashed with ease.

On more than one occasion her escort complained of being tired and wanted to rest, but she turned a deaf ear to all such seemingly foolish ideas and kept cutting off mile after mile, while the man in the moon with the smile that won't rub off nodded his head in encouragement and acted as referee. No foot pads were met on the way and so far as is known the trip was without a single sensational incident. But 7 a. m. New Year's Day when Mr. and Mrs. Kelley came downstairs they found the couple in their parlor and were greeted thusly, "Happy New Year. Just came down for a little walk."

Miss Beaver was as fresh as a lark and coaxed her escort to tramp back, but he was "all in" and they returned home on the train.

Miss Beaver was the "Lion of the Hour" in Danville and feasted royally on Huylers and wears a brand new pair of gloves at the expense of those who reckoned saving about her ability to accomplish big as well as little things.—Sunbury Daily.

Many Were Duped by a Subscription Fakir

Scores of prominent Hazletonians have been made victims of a magazine subscription fakir, who operated in that section during November. From each victim he received from $2 to $3. He offered club rates on all the magazines, which were away below the prices quoted by any other agency and he had little trouble in interesting patrons. He claimed to be traveling for the World Clubbing Subscription Co., of New York City.

The subscriptions were to have started in December. The month rolled around and none of the parties who had paid him their money received their magazines. One of the conditions of the contract was cash payment in advance.

Then several who had subscribed wrote to the supposed company the fakir claimed to represent. They waited in vain for answer. Finally, a few communicated with the New York World, which they thought might have been used in connection with the scheme.

The World replied saying that it had nothing whatever to do with the agent whom it denounced as a swindler. It has put the police on his track. The mail of the World Clubbing Subscription Co. has been stopped by the postal department.

Hereafter when magazine agents come around it would be well for those on whom they call to turn them down if advance payments are asked, or to require credentials showing that they are bona fide representatives of the publications they are canvassing for.

JACOB WEIMBER'S JOYFUL NEWS

Unmistakably the happiest man in Danville yesterday was Jacob Weimber, the Hobart shoemaker on Lower Mulberry street, who had good reason to believe that his wife and four children had fallen victims to the cruel mobs at Kishenev. The moon delivery of mail brought him a letter from his wife which conveyed the joyful tidings that they were all alive and well—that they had already got beyond the land of the Czar with its bloodshed and horror and were safe at Amsterdam awaiting the departure of the ship that is to bring them to the new world, where lies safety, freedom and where awaits them the love and protection of a kind husband and father, who risked so much for the little family's welfare. In two weeks' time, the letter stated, they would all be in Danville.

The shoemaker laughed in his joy and he fairly danced as he told of receiving the letter and tried to explain its contents. His wife had written that the children were on the tip-toe of delight and expectation at the prospect of meeting the father, from whom they had been separated for nearly three years. In the interim the baby, six months old when the parting took place, has grown to be quite a boy, as shown by a photograph received a few months ago and is now wearing trousers.

The shoemaker has only a short time longer to wait until his family will be with him. Not until then will he know the full chapter of thrilling events that caused the delay in the mails and prevented his family from sailing for America as he had planned.

State Gives Pointers. State Highway Commissioner Joseph W. Hunter has issued a bulletin summarizing the features of the new law governing the election of road supervisors in townships.

The salient points, to which attention is called, are: Beginning with the February election, 1906, every township of the second class in the State must elect three supervisors. In any township which now has three supervisors, or elected officers having charge of roads, elected under existing laws, no new election shall be required, except as the terms of these officers expire.

The Board of Supervisors of each township is required to organize on the first Monday of March. One of their number is chosen chairman and another secretary. The treasurer must not be a member of the board.

The board is required to meet at least once a month, two constituting a quorum.

The supervisors receive no compensation for their services, but actual expenses are to be paid. The treasurer receives compensation not to exceed 2 per centum of the money handled by him as secretary.

The board has authority to levy a tax rate not greater than 10 mills; the levying of an additional 10 mills being authorized by an order from the Court of Quarter Sessions. In addition to the regular levy, the board must assess $1 upon every taxable person.

Upon a petition from at least twenty-five taxpayers, the Court of Quarter Sessions shall authorize a special election to be held at the time of the February election, when the question of abolishing the work tax shall be decided by a majority vote of the electors. A township which thus abolishes the work tax is entitled to receive from the State a sum in cash equal to 15 per centum of the actual amount of cash tax collected by the township.

Each board is required to divide its township into districts of not less than five miles each, but there is nothing to prohibit the dividing of the township into districts having more than five miles each, or one district of the whole township. A roadmaster must be employed for each district.

Roadmasters are required to work upon the roads themselves, to oversee men employed and to carry into effect the instructions of the Board of Supervisors. No member of the Board of Supervisors can be employed as roadmaster.

The board, may, if it seems advisable, make a contract with any citizen of the township for keeping in repair of not more than three miles of road. On all road taxes paid before June 1 an abatement of 5 per centum is made. The full amount is required to be paid on all taxes paid between June 1 and November 1. After November 15 per centum in penalty is added.

DIED AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Mrs. Mary Gallagher, mother of Miss Rose Gallagher, the well known school teacher of the Borough, departed this life on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, after a very brief illness.

Mrs. Gallagher had been ailing only one week; death was quite unexpected and came as a great shock to the family. She was able to be about and along with her daughter was as late as Thursday evening. All arrangements were made for a happy holiday week, but death came as a sad ending.

The deceased, was the widow of Michael Gallagher, who died about eleven years ago. She was 73 years of age and along with her husband emigrated to this country from Ireland in early life. It was before the days of the railroad and the last stage of her journey here was made by stage coach. She was married in Danville and resided here continuously until her death. She was a woman of most estimable character, of generous impulses and kind sympathetic nature. Her demise has left a vacant place at the fireside that never can be filled, while throughout the neighborhood she will be missed in many ways.

In addition to Miss Rose Gallagher, the deceased is survived by three other daughters: Catherine, the eldest, (Mrs. P. H. McCaffrey Sallie (Mrs. Griffin) and Mary, (Mrs. Charles Beyers.) A nephew, Michael Dougherty, was reared by the deceased and has always been one of the family.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Gallagher took place from St. Joseph's Catholic church Tuesday morning and was largely attended. The services, which included high requiem mass, were conducted by Father Hilary (James Welsh,) of Scranton, nephew of the deceased. The pall bearers were: Thomas Gill, James Finnegan, Bernard Shovelin, James Dailey, John F. Tooley and C. P. Murray. The funeral proceeded to the cemetery in a Danville and Bloomsburg trolley car.

The following out of town persons attended the funeral: Thomas Gallagher and three sons, James, Peter and Bernard, of Johnstown; John Welsh, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Lafferty, Peter McCaffrey, Mrs. Mary Haines, Mrs. Bernard Lafferty, Miss Susan McCaffrey, of Scranton; James Grogan, of Luzerne.

Danville Defeats Ashland.

Another victory was added to Danville's long list when the local team defeated the Ashland aggregation at the Army New Year's afternoon by a score of 51 to 20.

The Ashland team is composed of good fast basket ball players, but the members of the visiting team, however, were not able to make much of a showing. They played a hard, strenuous game individually, but did not seem able to play together. They set a fast pace but the Danville tossers were nearly always just a little faster. Some of the finest basket throwing ever seen at the Army was done in the game Monday afternoon by the local team. The game was very exciting and almost sensational from start to finish.

The line-up: Ashland: Welliver, forward; Bennethum, forward; Bowers, center; Betz, Russell, guard; Mather, Bedea, guard; H. Bennethum, Johnson, guard.

Goals from field—Welliver 9, Bedea 5, Peters 3, Sechler 3, Russell 3, Bennethum 3, Mather 3, Betz 2, Horn 2. Goals from fouls—Bedea 1.

Dr. Aldinger Resigns.

Dr. A. K. Aldinger, who for the past twelve years has been at the head of the Department of Physical Education at the Bloomsburg Normal School, has resigned his position, his resignation to take effect on the 1st of February. Dr. Aldinger has accepted a charge, similar to the one at the Normal, at the New York City High School of Commerce, where he will have charge of 1500 boys. Mrs. Aldinger who taught physical culture to the girls at the Normal will accompany her husband to New York City.

TWO REGISTRATION DISTRICTS

The new act to provide for the immediate registration of all births and deaths throughout the Commonwealth went into effect on Monday. The new law if carried out will entail considerable work upon physicians, undertakers, sextons and others and these have all been apprised of their duties in the premises by copies of the Act forwarded to them by the Bureau of Vital Statistics.

Montour county has been divided in two Registration Districts. Dr. C. Shultz has been appointed Registrar in one of these consisting of Danville Borough, Mayberry, Cooper, Mahoning, Valley, Liberty and West Hemlock townships. Of the other District taking in the remainder of the county William M. Robinson, of Washingtonville has been appointed as Registrar.

Each local registrar is obliged to have a deputy registrar whose duty it is to act in his stead in case of absence, illness or disability. Miss Harriet Mapstone has been appointed deputy in Dr. Shultz's district. Section 5 provides that the body of any person whose death occurs in the State shall not be interred, nor deposited in a vault or tomb nor removed from nor into any registration district until a permit for burial, removal or other disposition shall be properly issued by the registrar of the registration district in which death occurs.

The certificate of death is a voluminous affair and contains 28 items, the statistical particulars covering every conceivable circumstance of life and death. It asks for not only place and date of birth, sex, color, single, married, widowed or divorced, but also the name of father and maiden name of mother, birth place of each, state or foreign country.

The statement of facts relating to the disposition of the body must be signed by the undertaker or person acting as such. The undertaker shall be responsible for obtaining and filing the certificate of death with the registrar and securing a burial or removal permit. The undertaker shall deliver the burial permit to the sexton and no sexton shall inter or otherwise dispose of a body unless it is accompanied by a burial, removal or transit permit. The medical certificate shall be made and signed by the physician last in attendance on the deceased. Like the certificate of death it is sweeping in the extreme and involves no end of work. The registration of births omits no details and the attending physician or midwife who has to file a certificate will have plenty to do under the new act.

Court Next Week. December court, which has been carried over into January this year by the change in the term, authorized in November, will convene on Monday a week, January 8th.

There are upwards of a dozen civil cases on the list for trial, continued from last term.

Major C. P. Gearhart, District Attorney-elect, will look after the Commonwealth. There are very few cases of this sort on hand. Barring a few outbreaks our community has proven remarkably quiet and law-abiding.

There is but one prisoner in the County Jail, John Sees, who is doing time for attempting to break jail.

See's case will go before the Grand Jury again, the bill submitted charging him with causing the death of an infant as testified to by his wife in a sworn statement made when she believed herself to be dying.

Sees and his wife are seemingly on amicable terms again. They had an interview during the last term of court and since then have been permitted to converse over the telephone.

Curiosity to See Hanging.

Over a hundred applications for passes have already been received by Deputy Sheriff Sietzer, of Williamsport, from people who desire to witness the hanging of James Salerno.

All applications will be received and pigeon-holed as they come in, and the list will be gone over and tickets issued. It is, of course, not known how many tickets the Sheriff will issue, but not all applications will be granted.

Small Pox Vieing With Yellow Jack

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—A double epidemic of small pox and yellow fever is raging at Para, Brazil, according to a report just received from U. S. Consul Ayme. He says that thus far there have been 557 cases of small pox and 111 of yellow fever with 163 deaths of the former and 33 of the latter. "Every year" writes consul Ayme "during the dry season there is a marked increase in the number of cases of both small pox and yellow fever. This year the season is unusually dry and hot, and both diseases have assumed the character of an epidemic."
