HIS "KINGSMAN." HIS "KINGSMAN." The slik Neckerchief Worn by the London Costermonger. Speaking of London costermongers. Mayhew says: "The man who does not wear his slik neckerchief—his kingsman, as it is called—is known to be in desperate circumstances." The neckerchief is more prized than any other item of his attire and a coster's caste is at stake if his kingsman be not of the most approved pattern. This habit is derived from the gypsles and doubtless dates from some long forgotten oriental custom. It is very curious that a taste for similar colors prevails among the Hindoos, gypsles and costermongers. Red and yellow are the favorite colors and the oldest. Of these, the coster chooses his plush waistcoat and his wife her shawl and gown; the Hindoo his robe and turban. If a	ire, she lies a mastless hulk.
