

$100 Reward, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional treatment, Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

In the United States many are found an immense body of public sentiment in favor of divorce reform and an immense body of private practice against divorce reform.

The celebration of Washington's birthday in Honolulu is something of a surprise. American patriotism is more highly esteemed in the Sandwich Islands than in some parts of the United States.

There seems to be a revival of the spirit of '76. Washington birthday celebrations throughout the country were on a more extensive scale than usual. This patriotic feeling is most commendable.

Newspaper men are not prime favorites for public office. Editor Treccott, of the Millville Tablet failed to get a majority vote for justice of the peace, and Editor Mosnot, of the Lewistown Sentinel was 118 votes short of being burgess of his town.

The drydock Dewey has reached the Canary Islands, and while the trip across has consumed much time, its progress was sure, which after all, is the principal thing.

Professor H. A. Surface, State Economic Zoologist, is now instructing a class of twenty-seven on the best methods of killing noxious insects. His class consists of men from all parts of the state, many of them are college graduates, many of them are quite old, and all are experienced in the culture of orchards and the problems which necessarily arise in the pursuance of such work.

Professor Surface is not dealing with unskilled pupils, but is taking intelligent farmers, and gardeners and is showing them the very best method of eradicating the San Jose scale. Yesterday afternoon the entire class went to the orchard of S. S. Rupp, in Shiremanstown, and sprayed the trees in Mr. Rupp's orchard with the lime-sulphur preparation which Professor Surface has found far superior to anything else which has been tried anywhere. The class yesterday afternoon went through the entire work of measuring, boiling and spraying the preparation. The latest bulletins which Professor Surface has received from California show that this lime-sulphur process is being used on the Pacific coast with most successful results.

The entire State has been divided into twenty-seven districts and one of the pupils in Professor Surface's class will be assigned to each district. With the knowledge and drill which they can take among the farmers of Pennsylvania it seems most probable that the San Jose scale will be entirely eradicated this year. If it is not destroyed it will be through indolence or through a lack of interest.

A demonstration will be given today at the north end of the capitol, within the enclosure. The gates will be open so that any who wish to see the demonstration may enter. A number of people from Philadelphia and Harrisburg yesterday to witness the demonstration which was given at Shiremanstown. This demonstration will be duplicated in every particular today when the trees in the capitol park are sprayed and all who wish may be present.

Eiks' Reunion at Philadelphia. In behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Governor Pennypacker has invited the grand lodge of the Benevolent Order of Eiks to hold its 1907 reunion and convention in Philadelphia. The governor's letter, together with the formal invitation which was extended by Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, and the cordial promises of welcome given by business men generally, will be carried by Philadelphia lodge to Denver, where this year's convention is to be held.

Guess the grand hog has come on again.

FORTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. George Spalde celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary Tuesday evening by entertaining a number of their friends at their home on Church street. During the evening music was furnished by a phonograph and refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mesdames W. C. Linger, H. Jones, C. Linger, J. Livizey, G. Ridgeway, H. Reppert, G. R. Sechler, H. Kavanaugh, W. Smith, J. McCall, G. Gross, B. Moyer, M. Driscoll, M. Eyerly, L. Herman, C. Mills, W. Roney, W. Linker, H. Trotter, Misses Alice and Nellie Trainor, Ella Sperring, Rebecca Smith, Bessie Miller, Ethel Reppert, Bert Driscoll and Jennie Woodside, Messrs. Louis Herman, Fred Evans, Robert Armes and Alvin, William and Arthur Spalde.

Last week our election returns showed Mr. Hummer to have 216 votes in the Fourth ward and Mr. Hoffman 174 in the same ward, which was an error. Mr. Hummer had only 143 and Mr. Hoffman had 175.

At the ninth annual convention of the P. O. S. of A. camps of Columbia and Montour counties, held at Bloomsburg, the delegates were welcomed by John C. Harman. Other addresses were made by Ralph Kinsler, of Danville; Dr. L. B. Kline, of Catawissa; William Chrisman, of Bloomsburg, and Dr. I. E. Patterson, of Beutou.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 28.--Just as soon as the workmen get out of the capitol, and only the decorators are left to finish the work of ornamentation, Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds Shumaker will begin the work of cleaning the building, carting out the debris, placing the floor coverings and gutting in the furniture.

After all this has been done will come the work of installing the different departments in the new edifice that have for several years been from under the capitol's dome.

GOVERNOR IN SOUTH WING. The executive department, attorney general's department, State general department, State treasury, auditor general's department, all now in the executive south wing will be transferred to the south wing of the capitol, next to the present executive building. The school department, in the south wing, will remain where it is, and the department of public buildings and grounds will be transferred to the front of the main building, to the left of the main entrance, opposite to where Senate Librarian Miller is now located, on the first floor.

The state police department and the state health department will be sent to the north wing, and there will be located the department of internal affairs, the adjutant general's department, the agricultural department, the highway department, the insurance department and the department of public printing.

SOME LOCATIONS NOT DECIDED. As yet the locations of the state economic zoologist, the state game department, the state fish department, the soldiers' orphans school department and the rooms of the house resident clerk have not been determined upon, and it is one of the problems that confront Superintendent Shumaker. However, he is an executive genius, and he will see that all are suitably settled in comfortable quarters before hot weather sets in.

The legislative correspondent's association will occupy one of the lower compartments in the north wing over looking the Italian gardens which is proposed to make part of the landscape decorative scheme.

The last governor to move his quarters was Governor Pattison in 1904, when he moved from the dingy rooms in the old north building to the comparatively comfortable rooms now occupied by Governor Pennypacker.

Just what will be done with the present executive building is a problem, but it is probable that it will be converted into a museum and place for the flags, the present flag room being considered very inadequate for its purpose.

Last Thursday evening the Christian Endeavor Society of Shiloh reformed church entertained the pastor and people of the parish, with some friends, by giving a sociable in the Sunday school room. Recitations and vocal and instrumental music, as well as refreshments were enjoyed by the participants. The room was beautifully decorated and the occasion was in kindly commemoration of the birth of George Washington.

TALES OF TAMAGNO. Some of the Great Singer's Peculiarities in Money Matters. Despite the fabulous sums Tamagno received the great singer had a reputation for extreme parsimony. When staying in Moscow he noticed that the waiters in the hotel furnished him daily with fresh candles, although the old ones had been barely used. This vexed him, and, seeing that remonstrances were of no avail--the candles, he learned, formed a waiter's perquisite--he began to collect the candles himself. On leaving the hotel he gathered up the whole collection and distributed them among the waiters when they lined up to receive their tips.

Tamagno's one interest of the stage was his only daughter and her children. It was for her that he hoarded his wealth, which he appears to have feared might slip away. With his daughter near him, however, he kept open house at the villa in Varese, near Milan. Once, in St. Petersburg, he distributed a fee of 3 francs for the forwarding of a telegram, but on hearing that his daughter was ill he left St. Petersburg and 40,000 rubles ($20,400) to hurry to Milan.

In Berlin hotel, after appearing in "The Prophet," for which he received $1,250, he ordered for his supper two poached eggs and a bottle of mineral water. Eventually he drew from one of his pockets a bottle of wine, some of which he poured into the mineral water. It was a bottle which had been contrived to secrete at a banquet given in his honor two days before in Prague.

Takes Place of Post Card Craze With the Young Women.

The Gibson picture habit has been effectively stemmed on a big proportion of the reading population of this section by the publication by the Sunday North American of ten of the latest of this great American artist's pictures as art supplements. It has started the Gibson collection fad, and this promises to last until the last of the pictures are out.

There was a time when the Gibson girl was the idol of the young woman. Now the Gibson art supplement gives everybody an opportunity to collect the artist's works, and there will be few homes that will not have a good representation within the next few weeks.

For the time being the collection of Gibson drawings has taken the place of the collection of post cards in Philadelphia, and the fad is certain to spread to all of the towns where the pictures are made so easily obtainable.

The picture which The North American is to issue next Sunday is "A Cattle in the Air." It is one of the most forceful of Gibson's works, and teaches a broad moral lesson to young people and old alike.

Strawberry Ridge. The recent rains have swollen the streams and cleared them of all ice, without doing any damage along their courses. The crop was sufficient for all to fill their houses, and those who failed to do so need no pity.

The chicken and waffle supper was well attended last week. The waffles were fine. Clyde Springer entertained the people with his graphophone.

Every body enjoyed it as well as the supper. Come again, Clyde.

SCHOOL, BUT NO PUPILS. Teachers Sent Home 3 Months Ago to Enforce Vaccination Law. Reading, Feb. 28.--The school at Freeman has not had a pupil for three months because of the compulsory vaccination law. W. Walter Kessler, the teacher, sent the children home because the parents refused to have them vaccinated.

Mr. Kessler opens the building each school day morning, but not a child has appeared since December 1. He remains on duty all day, and devotes much of his time to study. His salary goes on just the same as though the school benches were all occupied.

The parents still prefer to keep their children at home rather than have them vaccinated. The school directors are supporting the teacher in his efforts to enforce the law.

The children of the Freeman school are barred from neighboring schools.

Clarence Wagner is home again, after an absence of a couple of months.
