Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

The Harrisburg Telegraph prints a story which, if true, sounds the death knell of Sunbury as a railroad center. The Telegraph states that the Pennsylvania railroad will erect a stone bridge at Northumberland for a short connection between Shamokin Dam and Selinsgrove, and that the contract for the construction of the bridge has been closed. The shops at Sunbury will be moved across the river.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES HELD

At the Danville State Hospital for the Insane.

Last evening the beautiful Amusement Hall at the State Hospital near this city was again crowded to suffocation with the patients and their attendants neatly attired in white, besides invited guests from far and near, all of whom were delighted with the usual annual commencement exercises of the training school for the attendants of the humane institution. The entertainment commenced at 8 o'clock when the invocation was offered by Rev. C. D. Leitch; then followed a recitation, "Miss Bob White" by the orchestra; address to the class, Rev. Richard H. Gilbert, D. D.; March, "Flying Arrow," orchestra; Conferment of diplomas, Superintendent Meredith; "Sympathy Waltzes," orchestra; awarding prizes, Ida Ashenurst, M. D.; Benediction, Rev. C. D. Leitch; March, "Feather Queen," orchestra, after which a grand reception was tendered the class and graduates on the balcony overlooking the exquisite grounds, where rare and luxuriant flowers perfume the atmosphere, and here thick foliage charm the sight as far as the eye can reach. In fact there are few spots within a radius of a hundred miles where so much of Nature's beauty can be seen at this season of the year as the broad lawns that stretch out over this lovely Paradise. The graduating class of 1906 consists of Alta R. Dooler, Eva Elizabeth Raup, Nellie Edna Russell, Clara A. Youem, Katharine Regina Youem, Howard Cardell, Charles Wesley Crossley, David Swenk, Charles Libby, Arthur J. Swenk, Frank E. Youem and Charles E. Wise. Long before the exercises commenced the romantic and picturesque park bristled with delighted spectators who strolled idly at will beneath the sweet-scented and shady trees along the broad, serpentine walks that reach up to Tolly Run where the Indian once sported in pursuit of deer and bear, or perchance speared the wily game fish in the boisterous leaping stream which dashes into the noble and majestic Susquehanna. Finally the guests were called to the balcony where they were prodigally served with choice flavored ice cream and cake, after which carriages rolled up to the entrance of the grand structure, and taking in the precious freight conveyed all to their respective homes, but not before relaxing by bidding the genial host and hostess a warm good night.

GREASY CAN RUN FOR TWO OFFICES

Is Already Certified to State Department as Candidate for Auditor General and Representative. Has Precedent Back of Him.

Harrisburg, July 11.—The certificate of nomination for the candidate on the Democratic State ticket was filed at the State Department this morning. It certifies the nomination of Emery Black, Greasy and Green as candidates, and is signed by John T. Lushan as chairman, and John M. Flynn and H. Eyre Spyster as secretaries.

Mr. Greasy is also the nominee of the Democrats of Columbia County for Assembly, but he can be a candidate for both offices, as they do not conflict.

If Mr. Greasy should be elected to the Assembly and also Auditor General he can serve in the House until next May, when he would assume the office of Auditor General.

If the Legislature is in session at the time he can resign, as did Auditor General Hardenbergh, Senator from Wayne, who resigned from the Senate to go into the Auditor General's department.

It is possible the Legislature would not be in session when Greasy's term would begin. In any event however, he would have to resign from the House.

DOG GONE; LICENSE TAG FOUND IN A MEAT CAN

Chicago, July 9.—The mysterious disappearance of a Chicago dog, whose license number was 13,506, has been solved, but the identity of the owner, despite widespread inquiry by reporters, remains a subject of doubt.

The dog may have met an inglorious finish in a can of pressed food shipped out from Chicago. The can has been found at Roxbury, Va., according to a telegram from that place, and while the dog itself was not identified, its metallic license tag was intact and bore the words:

"No. 13,506, Chicago—R. F. C."

According to municipal records, this number has been worn by more than twenty dogs. Some of them are alive and kicking, others are gone.

EX-OFFICIAL CALLED TO MAKE RESTITUTION

Auditor Finds That Rutter, of Columbia County, Has Withheld State Taxes.

$4775.24 REMAINS DUE

Former Recorder and Register Will Probably Settle, to Avoid Trouble.

Bloomington, Pa., July 9.—Having delved into the accounts of J. C. Rutter, Jr., former Recorder and Register of Columbia county, William C. Johnson, special auditor, reports the amount yet due by Rutter to the State in collateral inheritance tax and tax on instruments, which he retained, to be $4775.24. This makes the total amount to be recovered from Rutter $5368.99.

Rutter held the office for six years, and was defeated for re-nomination at the Democratic primaries last year by Frank W. Miller, who was elected.

Miller's accounts now show that at the next January settlement he will have paid more money into the County Treasury than Rutter did in his six years.

The collateral inheritance tax which Rutter failed to turn over to the State is itemized by Auditor Johnson as follows: Estate of Mary Parsons, $85; estate W. J. Kuorr, $3033.05; estate Susanna Hunt, $166.80; estate Deborah Evans, $33.85; estate Daniel W. Thomas, $26.20; estate Margaret M. Robbins, $27.63; estate Thomas Gingles, $208.36; estate L. K. Krickbaum, $308.35; estate Susan Black, $30; estate T. H. Edgar, $16.25; estate Hulda Adams, $18.02; estate Margaret Smith, $88.16; estate Ann Smith, $10.

Johnson, in his report, states: "It seems to me, but it is apparently impossible to trace it down, that there are several estates which should have or have paid tax. I have done the best possible under the circumstances, and the condition in which the books have been kept."

District Attorney Small has called the attention of the County Commissioners to the Rutter finances, and states that he will take action to secure money due the county by Rutter should the commissioners fail to proceed in this direction.

Rutter is said to be ready to make good the deficiency, in which event prosecution is improbable.

SAYS NEGRO WANTS RIGHTS

Bishop Turner Declares Race is Not Seeking Social Equality.

Providence, R. I., July 6.—At today's session of the fifty-fifth annual conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Bishop Henry McNeil Turner spoke bitterly of the degradation of the negro, which was due, he said, to the malicious hatred shown by those who have every opportunity to slander and crush the race.

"This talk of the negro desiring social equality," said the Bishop, "is all rot. What we want is civil rights. This is either a nation or a sham. It is a disgrace among nations.

"This country is no place for our race. They should emigrate where they can establish themselves as a nation."
