eight mothers and their errant sons had been summoned upon evidence that the boys had been robbing cars. Five dollar fines would otherwise have been imposed, but the chief of police wisely considered that the parents, who were poor, would have to supply who were poor, would have to supply the funds, and that while they would not then be likely to spare the rod the lads might be more thoroughly pun-ished if he should remit the fines and see the whaling personally administer-ed. He would see that each mother neither spared the rod nor spoiled the child

As a return to first principles and imitive custom there is something acing about that Ithaca incident, bracing about that Ithaca incident, but it must be pointed out that it is both impolitic and impossible to relieve parents of the punishment that comes to them also for the wrong-doing of their children. There is no stronger deterrent force against wrong-doing than the realization of the pain and trouble that it must bring to the parent, assuming that parental duties and kindnesses have not been neglected and that natural affection prevails. But these are the days of smart yellow kids and of parents too busy to be bothered. If we are to go back to primitive justice we must also go back primitive justice we must also go back to primitive rules of life and its duties, and round out the simple life with the rearing of good old-fashioned children.

SERMON AGAINST

Alfred Belt was so busy making money that he took no time to marry, though some twelve or fitteen years ago it seems that he came so near to it as to have his life insured for the benefit of Elizabeth Bennett, whom he described as about to become his wife. But she does not seem to have done so. He may have forgotten about his intention being to on. have done so. He may have forgot-ten about his intention, being too en-grossed in his accumulation to think about it. He was living a strenuous life at that time, having become en-gaged with Cecil Rhodes in the pro-ject for cornering the diamond market, which is said to have left Beit the richest may in, the world richest man in the world, unless ou Rockefeller matches him in the pro duct of his petroleum corner.

These two men illustrate how much may be done in the way of money accumulation without a conscience and with endless assurance. Neither was of any account in any other way, but of any account in any other way, but in this they were supremely eminent, because of the opportunity they seized to control a natural prodeet and milk it. One is not enjoying life greatly now through physical infimity, and the other has ceased to live; the service stream of the control of t mon against greediness that their lives teach is a profit that the world gets from their careers.

—1N a recent address on the inade-quate pay of female school teachers, the Superintendent of the Public Schools of Indianapolis took occasion to remark that many teachers were getting less than servant girls. With-out stopping to argue the correctness of the assertion, we can only say it seems to be in the power of the In-dianapolis female teachers to correct dianapolis female teachers to correct dianapois female teachers to correct this inequality. They have only to exchange the one employment for the other but it does not seem to have oc-curred to him to make the sugges-

PANAMA

The strenuous struggle of the Administration to force Congress to adopt the lock type of canal at Panama, against the advice of the greatest hydraulie engineers from all countries, because it could be built in less time, has been given fresh and ominous warning by the serious accident in the Mauchester, England, ship canal. The Engineers, in the evidence before the Senate committee "arrued against The Engineers, in the evidence before the Senate committee "argued against the plan of putting three locks in flight at Gatun," says the New York Post, "as in the accepted project for the Panama Canal, pointing out the peril of thus putting all the eggs in one basket. They maintained that if by accident a skip should get out of one basket. They maintained that if by accident, a ship should get out of control and crash through the gates of one lock, she would be certain to carry out all three; whereupon the canal would be drained, and it would be the work of two or three years to put Humpty Dumpty back again. Well, something very like that, in miniature, happened at the Irlam locks of the Manchester Canal. A steamer of only 700 tons, the Cassia, by some blunder made for the wrong lock, instead of the one filled to reby some binder made for the wrong lock, instead of the one filled to receive her. Though she had but little way on her, she smashed through one of the gates, the weight of water broke in the others, and the safety broke in the others, and the safety gates which were promptly set were also speedily swept away, and all the water higher up the canal poured out to sea. Traffic was entirely suspended for two days, till the spare steel gates could be got in place. It was, of course, a comparatively simple affair in such a canal; but imagine an accident of the kind at Gatter 185 accident of the kind at Gatun, at 85 feet above the sea!"

The sea-level plan which was pre-ferred by the Democrats is more cost-ly and would take somewhat longer to construct but there is no doubt would in the end be cheaper and

REAL TRUST

A POLICE COURT SOLOMON.

In the presence of a dignified magistrate, and within the thronged precincts of a hall of justice, eight women advanced in obedience to the summons of a court-official, who supplied each of them with a stout rod, and then pointed to eight lads who stood awaiting punishment, and who straightway received it.

This scene was not enacted in some remote city of the fabled East, where justice is even yet patterned upon the simple plan found in the pages of the "Arabian Nights," but in a police court of Ithaca, N. Y., whither the eight mothers and their errant sons had been summoned upon evidence that the bore had been rebility as well. The scene was not enacted that the selling its products cheaper that the bore had been rebility as well as the proved to be selling its products cheaper that the bore had been rebility as well as the proved to be selling its products cheaper that the bore had been rebility as well as the proved to be selling its products cheaper that the bore had been rebility as well as the proved to be selling its products cheaper that the bore had been rebility as well as the proved to be selling its products cheaper that the proved to be selling its products cheaper that the provention of the prov United States Steel corporation, that controls nine-tenths of all steel products of the country and that has been proved to be selling its products cheaper abroad than here, should be continued in its monopoly by the tariff law. That gigantic corporation, by far greater than any of its sistent take refuge as an "infant industry" that needs protecting. It may not be policy to take the chances of disturbing the steel business by at once abolishing all its protection, but cutting off one half of its tariff protection will be one of the first propositions of a Democratic House of Representatives. That would be a start at real trust-busting.

presentatives. That at real trust-busting. A REPUBLICAN PREDICTION.

That erudite and trust controlled Republican purveyor of news, the Yew York Sun, in a late issue says:

"The Sun craves permission to resent its humble service to the suthe sober-minded and self-respecting Republicans to whose confidence it can appeal, and with all deference and respect submits:

'The next Governor of the State of New York will be a Democrat.

"The next Governor of the State of
New York will be the next President

New York will be the next President of the United States,"
Yet after all the Sun may be mistaken and the next governor of New York may not be the next president of the United States. But its prediction shows the Democratic trend of public opinion and that even Republicans see the probable downfall of the party of trusts, protection, graft and scandals.

PITY 'TIS

One of the leading journals of the ountry says: "The highest financial ewards of politics are no longer ffices, but contracts, franchises and offices, but contracts, franchises and special privileges."

Another great journal says: "The cheap rewards of political place count for little now in political manoeuvres. The 'boss' is no longer the man who The 'boss' is no longer the man who distributes 'patronage.' The real boss is the railroad man, the traction man, the insurance man, the man who is willing to contribute enormous sums to the campaign fund, if only his own interests be left safe or his new projects be aided."

"Protection" which means favorities.

The corporations pay tribute to the party in power; and the party the party in power; and the party in power gives the corporations the rivilege of plundering the people in the party in the property of the party in power; and the part with impurity. "Protection," in the beopte with impurity. "Protection," in the form of high tariffs, franchises, false bertificates like those give to the beef trust, and immunity from punishment for crimes, is the policy now.

—IF the Democrats of Pennsyl--T the Democrats of Pennsyn-vania were as insistent upon having one of their own faith elected to the governorship as the Rev. -Inttelligencer Avenue de erves better attention at the hands of are on the sick list and the whole detection of the hander soundrel is by a drown street commissioner. Since the sewer was installed a year ago there are all sizes of cobble stones lying about to make unpleasant the paths of the great number of pedestrains that daily travel this popular street.

—Doos, cats, and mosquitoes are the pests that go to make up the plague that now besieges Danville.

American boys should be to prize the ballot as a precious description.

THE "DOTAGE"

Oregon has been the storm center of land frauds. One of her Republi-can Senators and both of her Repubcan senators and odn of ner Repub-lican representatives in Congress, be-sides a United States Surveyor general and many other federal officials, have been implicated and have either met their just desserts or are in a fair way to do so. Now comes the only mem-ber of Congress from that State that the law has not entwicked. Scarter ber of Congress from that State that the law has not entangled—Senator Fulton, who declares that Secretary Hitchcock, who to his credit has relentlessly prosecuted the land thieves, "is in his dotage." If Secretary Wilson had shown the same efficient "dotage" there would have been no beef, cotton and seed scandals. If Secretary Taft had exhibited a similar brand of "dotage" there would have been no been no beef and of "dotage" there would have been no Panama Scandal and matters in the Philippines and Porto Rico would be in better condition instead of being a disgrace to American management. If Secretary Root had shown the same patriotic "dotage" the Santo Domingo and Venezuela scandals would ever have occurred. beef, cotton and seed scandals. If Secretary Root had shown the same patriotic "dotage" the Santo Domingo and Venezuela scandals would never have occurred. If Secretary Moody had exhibited the If Secretary Moody had exhibited the

If Secretary Moody had exhibited the intense "dotage" that his older as sociate has exhibited, there would be a large bunch of Trust magnates to the American people.

The President is to be congratulated on having one member of his cabinet in his "dotage" for that seems to be the only way to efficiently follow up fraud without fear or favor and doggedly determine to enforce the law. The strenuosity of the President has had no effect upon Secretary Hitchcock, he has gone along without blow of trumpet, or partism speech making, on his plain old "dotage" plan and it is a pity that the other members of the Cabinet have not been inoculated with the same disease, instead of the microbe of strenuousness that has Mr. Herr

THE BANKS GAIN MILLIONS.

THE BANKS
GAIN MILLIONS.

Press reports from New York report that the Secretary of the Treasury when in that city a few days ago authorized the statement that he would promptly deposit money in the banks, if money rates hardened and that he would immeliately return to the banks in the shape of public deposits the money received from the sale of Panama Canal bonds. So the banks under this arrangement are to have their cake and eat it too. They buy the canal bonds and draw the interest and our kind and devoted friend of the corporations, the Secretary of the Treasury, will hand them back the money, "if money rates harden" and who can doubt the rates will not "harden" under such an incentive. If the rates "harden" to 8 per cent, the banks would be able to loan the $30,000,000 at the rate of $2,400,000 a year and at the same time be drawing the regular interest of 2 per cent, on the bonds or $600,000.

The question naturally arises, why did the Administration sell Panama bonds when the money was not need.

The question naturally arises, why did the Administration sell Panama bonds when the money was not needed in the Treasury? Respectfully referred to the President and his Secretary of the Treasury.

THE CHOULISH COFFIN TRUST.

Of all the trusts the ghouls of the offin trust are the most despicable.

They prey upon the poor in the hour of their grief when the savings have been depleted by the enforced non-earning power of the bread winner.

The cheap box, called a coffin, with its teach of the savings are saving to the saving the sav present its humble service to the supreme powers at Oyster Bay, to Messrs, Platt and Depew, to the new and austere hierarchy of Odell and Associates, to one Frank Wayland Higgins, the putative Governor of the State of New York, and to all the sober-minded and self-respecting the soler-minded and self-respecting to the state of New York, and to all the soler-minded and self-respecting to the starff law of manufactures of the soler wood not specially provided for. Thus the Republican standpatters have made the government the partner and protector of this ghoulish trust which adds to the misery of the bereaved ones by the imposition of a tax upon necessity when least able to bear

One of the first duties of a Demo-cratic Congress will be to amend the tariff law by putting coffins and cask-ets upon the free list.

JUSTICE BREWER'S

According to Justice Brewer, Washington is the great lobby camp of the world. More legislation has been thrust upon Congress than it can atthrust upon Congress than it can at-tend to, and the consequence is that the Government has become a general disponsary, "The Federal Govern-ment is efficient," he says; "9but there are things greater than more effici-ency, namely, the protection of the individual and the upbuilding of his sense of individual responsibility." sense of individual responsibility. These greater things are lacking under our present system. "It is not how much the individual will willing-ly give to the country, but how much the nation could take from him."

-A BALLOONING craze appears to have set in all over the country. Hardly a day passes that an ascension and an accident is not recorded from some corner of the land. Clubs from some corner of the land. Clubs have been organized both in Philadelphia and New York, and sober men who years ago would not have gone up in a balloon for half of Wall street now speak of an ascent as one of the pleasures of life. Then, too, it costs something to indulge in the new sport. Aside from the original cost of the machines with which the sailing is done it costs about thirty-five of the machines with which the sail-ing is done, it costs about thirty-five dollars to fill a big bag with gas. Of course, the craze will run its course and die out, except among a few en-thusiasts, just as all other such fads

—OH YES, the Panama strip is quite salubrious since the President and Secretary Taft have cleaned it up, yet of the detachment of 300 marines who were stationed there 165 are on the sick list and the whole detachment has been ordered North to recuperate.

something will be done for the good of the party—the sooner the better.

If it is possible for two candidates of the same party to run for the same office, why is it that such a great fight is made for the nomination and so much money expended in that direction when it is not necessary?

Both Harman and Herring entered the contest for the nomination, believing and knowing that one or the other would be defeated.

The contest resulted in a victory for Harman by securing half the con-

He appears to be about the worst example of a spend-thrift nobleman of which all Europe can boast. Reckless in his expenditures, dependent upon his American wife's fortune for all he cats and wears hopelessly in debt and pow wars, hopelessly in debt, and now kicked out of the Legislature of his country on the ground of corruption and bribery, he seems to be about the worst scapegrace in all France, and that is saying a good deal.

-Columbia county's house clean ing is progressing interestingly. Be-sides the renovation of the ex-register and recorder and the past record of that of School Director Brown, the county commissioners are undergoing a searching investigation, and Dis a searching investigation, and Dis-trict Attorney Small promises some startling developments. Mr. Small is a busy man these days, and is one of the few district attorneys that gives the attention to the office, the people has elected him to, that is required or supposed to be the duty inscribed in the oath of office. Let the good world go on and never cease until ever red-handed scoundrel is brought to justice, thus setting a good example to some of her neighbor counties.

Good Work Counts.

Good work should be the motto of oung people. Some of you have learned the value of good work very young. A judge living in one of our eastern cities tells the following story: He had occasion to send to a vil-lage for a carpenter, and a sturdy young fellow appeared with his tools. "I want this fence mended to keep out the cattle. There are some un-planed boards—use them. It is out of sight from the house, so you need not take time to make it a neat job. I will only pay you a dollar

The Judge went to dinner, and coming out, found the man carefully planing each board. Supposing he was trying to make a costly job of it, he ordered him to nail them on at he ordered him to nail them on at once just as they were, and continued his walk. When he returned the boards were all planed and numbered ready for nailing.

'I told you this fence was to be covered with vines,'' he said angrily; 'I do not care how it looks.''

'I do,'' said the carpenter, gruffly, earefully measuring his work. When it was finished there was no part of the fence so thorough in finish.

'How much do you charge?'' asked the Judge.

ed the Judge.
"A dollar and a half," said the young man, shouldering his tools.
The Judge stared. "Why did you spend all that time and labor on the job if not for the money?"

Don't Rake the Lawn.

Some persons advise raking after each mowing. I do not, because the clippings drop down into the grass and form a mulch which I consider of about towns-people being gold-bricked every day. If they wish to cast reflection upon a townsman he is referred to as a farmer. It is time these eity popinjays were learning there is as much honest intelligence among country people as among those of the city.

—The mellon-colic days are here and we would caution you to be cheerful and careful.

—That**Bold, bad man, John D. Rockefeller, has contributed $125, 1000 of his tainted money, just half the sum needed to build a seaside sopital for children suffering from tuberculosis. It took hustling and scraping to get together the other half, the men having untainted cash for some unaccountable reason, preferring to keep it in their own pockets. Of course, these last-named people will get all the credit and Mr. Rockefeller none. Serves him right.

The approach to the river bridge.

—The approach to the river bridge or the South side still presents an unsightly appearance. The Northumberland county commissioners are a set of ungrateful, unappreciative, biggotted, narrow-minded old fogies, and the better class of citizens should bring to bear their influence and insist that something speedily be done, if a man put down the date and terms in your note book and if you buy or sell an animal with a warranty write down the exact words and hav them signed. This is a protection which anyone can ill afford to neglect. It is not doubting a man's word to ask him to put it in writing; it is only ask him to put it in writing; it is only protecting yourself so that your part-ner, wife, children or administrator could attend to your business affairs with a clearer understanding and bet-ter results if the necessity should Stay on the Farm.

Boys are not leaving the farm now as they did in the hard times years ago. They are wise, says the editor of a leading agricultural weekly. Out of twenty who were boys with me on the farms of our neighborhood, just ten sought the city, one of whom is rich in money but poor ir all else, one is comfortably fixed, three make a living, two are hard up most of the time, two are no good, and one is in state's prison. Of the ten who are farmers two are relatively rich, five are well fixed, two are having a hard struggle because they weren't cut out the farmers and classification.
