DANVILLE INTELLIGENCER

VOLUME 77.

DANVILLE, MONTOUR COUNTY, PA., FRIDAY, AUGUST 24, 1906.

NO 48

The First Baptist church yesterday morning was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Goldie Johnston became the bride of Frederick Lewis. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Sherman, pastor, at eight o'clock. The church decorations were most beautiful, in the scheme a profusion of hydrangeas and rhododendrons being employed with charming effect. The bride was attended by Miss Edith Reed as maid of honor and Miss Pearl Vastine as bridesmaid. The groom was attended by Benneville Johnston brother of the bride, and Benjamin Rolston, of Middletown, N. Y. Miss Irene Super of Newport News, Va.; Mrs. Dainet He wedding march from Lohengrin. The ushers were: Roy Smith, Harry Camp, Edward Aten and Clyde Snyder. Beatrice and Carrie Blue, little daughters of George Blue, were flower girls.

Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Super, Miss Bertha Persing, of Shamokin; George Blue, Bellefoute: Mr. and Mrs. John Barry, of Sunbury.

The bride is prominent among the young needle of the First Baptist weeks burglars attempted to rob the home of George Deibert, in Toby Run hollow, early Tuesday morning. The bride is prominent among the seeks burglars attempted to rob the home of George Deibert, in Toby Run hollow, early Tuesday morning. The hollow, early Tuesday morning. The thieves were prevented from accomplishing their designs only by the burglars attempted to rob the house were prevented from accomplishing the individual maching the bride's part house, She date and the barking of the watch dog. On the occasion of the first attempt to burglarize the Diebert home the robbers had already gained admittance to the house, when Mrs. Deibert was awakened by the presence of the men in her room. This occurred just three weeks ago.

Thesday morning about 2 o'cloc Mrs. Deibert, who siceps in the front of the animal upon hearing the sound per hearing the sound he animal upon hearing the sound he house. Mr. Deibert was awakened by the barking, but made only a cas

Sumbury.

The bride js prominent among the young people of the First Baptist the window, when evidently they were The groom holds the position of telegraph operator at Grovania and has made many friends during his residence of some three years in Danville.

The newly wedded couple left on the parties are, and that but for the lack Middletown, N. Y., the groom's former home. Returning they will take up their residence in Danville.

The bride was the recipient of a The bride was the recipient to the state of host that ever arrived at this content of the state of host that ever arrived at this content of the state of host that ever arrived at this content of the state of host that ever arrived at this content of the state of host that ever arrived at this content of the state of host that ever arrived at this content of the state of host that ever arrived at this content of the state of host that ever arrived at this content of the state of host that ever arrived at this content of the state of the sta

P. O. of A. Camp in Riverside.

Estizabeth Shultz; assistant enductor. Miss Hannah Yeager; recording secretary, Miss Ruth recording secretary, Mrs. Tamar Nuss; financial secretary, Mrs. Tamar Nuss; financial secretary, Mrs. Blanch Riffel, assistant vince of other sort.

It was not many years ago that bass were in danger of becoming extipet in the north branch. Yet at the present guardian, Mrs. Ella Ball; orator, Mrs. Sallie Purcel; trastees, six months, Mrs. Blanche Riffel; eighteen months, Miss Aunie Spotts.

Repairing Bowling Alley.

Work was begun yesterday on the repairing of Achenbach and Moore's bowling alley for the coming fall and winter. Two men frow the Brunswick Balke-Collender company, of New York City were at work yesterday putting the alleys in fine shaper. It is the increase in tention to start \(\tilde{a}\) poor in fine shaper. It is the increase and the proposed and measured 21 inches.

The allage of the township and the Orange will Academy. He began work on the rules were suspended and the ordinance was given to was begun with election of his personal township. Columbia County, April 26, Offs. McHenry's management the district was swept back into the period township and the Orange ville Academy. He began work on the rules were suspended and the ordinance was given township. Columbia County, April 26, Offs. McHenry's management the district was swept back into the pairing township. Columbia County, April 26, Offs. McHenry's manag tention to start up on or as near caught by Jacob Miller some years ago after the first of September as possia farmer of Benton township. Columbia county, all kinds of trouble during the past several days, and just what burg and special embassy is a Shamo method it will be necessary for him to kin visitor. No one knows he is a for a time, but they again took refuge main there, Mr. Gibbons will no doubt middle aged man, very well educated.

ARE HARASSED

The bride was the recipient of a large number of presents, covering the usual wide range of useful and ornamental articles. There were large quantities of silver and china ware, cut glass, table linen, counterpanes, a handsome rocking chair, a table, pictures, lamps, etc.

Big Shipment of Bass Fry.

Tomorrow one of the biggest shipments of boas that ever arrived at this partial evill be turned loose in the north branch. The shipment made is in accordance with applications simultaneous distinctions and the properties of the shipment of bass Fry. ously sent in, by a number of local fishermen and is in pursuance of a well defined policy not only to replace the fish annually taken from the river, but, if possible, to restock the stream up to a point that will make fish as plantiful as the vector was in

P. O. of A. Camp in Riverside.

A camp of the Patriotic Order of America was instituted in Riverside.

A camp of the Patriotic Order of America was instituted in Riverside.

Tuesday evening with a charter membership of twenty-six. State President Julia K. Richardson, of Philadelphia, was present and presided at the installation ceremonies.

The affair took place in the P. O. S. of A. hall, Riverside, and beside the State president there were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rittenhouse and L. B. Kitchen, of Berwick After the initiation a banquet was served to the members and their guests and a most delightful social session was enjoyed.

The officers that have been elected for the ensuing year are as follows: Past president, Mrs. Mary Gottshall; vice president, Mrs. Mary Gottshall; vice president, Miss Annie Spotts; conductor, Mrs. Bertha Hummner; assistant past president, Miss Claudia Yeager; assistant vice president, Mrs. Schaudia Yeager; assistant vice president year vice and the firm between the river between the river between the river between the river between the rive or, Mrs. Bertha Hummer; assistant past president, Miss Nettie Yeager; assistant president, Miss Claudia Yeager; assistant vice president, Mrs. Elizabeth Shultz; assistant conductor, ystematically restocking streams, to Miss Hammah Yeager; recording seemore than counterbalance the loss of and measured between 24 and 2

Schram a year or so ago. Shamokin Has a Prince

Adolf Van Ziel, prince of Wurtemprince save himself. Adolf arrived in sons tried smoking out the tast in a manner successful trust and lastly, and most important, them away from the house on special and very secret mission but they again took refuge which he absolutely refuses to divulge He says it is most important. He is a refined and speaks the German languheir honey.

age like a native. He expects to remain in Shamokin until Saturday

Providence is kindest to those who when he will leave for another part of age like a native. He expects to re

STILL DEADLOCKED

The principal business before c Friday was the election of a water commissioner. Several ballots relat-ing to the matter were taken, but the final result was a deadlock, the vote standing precisely the same as at the close of the previous meeting. The water commissionership, therefore, is ites nominated at the previous ing-George Reifsnyder and Charle

ing—George Reifsnyder and Charles Pusey. A vote resulted in a tie as fol-lows: Reifsnyder—Vastine, Boyer, Bedea, Finnigan, Gibson and Hughes. Pusey—Sweisfort, Russell, Dietz, Eisenhart, Jacobs and Angle.

It being evident that the same dead-lock would continue Mr. Russell mov-ed that both candidates be dropped and a new candidate be selected. This was lost by the following vote Yeas-Sweisfort, Russell, Dietz, Jaobs. Finnigan.

cobs, Finnigan.

Nays—Vastine, Boyer, Bedea, Eisenhart, Gibson, Angle and Hughes.

In order to break the deadlock Mr.
Jacobs nominated W. G. Pursel as water commissioner. Mr. Russell see onded the nomination. was then taken with the following Finnigan, Gibson and Hughes.

Pusey—Sweisfort, Russell, Dietz,

Eisenhart and Angle Pursel—Jacobs.

A hot discussion followed as to whether the six votes cast elected Mr. Reifsnyder when Mr. Jacobs to relieve Paul Swentek appeared before council and protested against the use of cinder in repairing the alley at his property. He urged that brick or co ment be used for a distance of ninety feet from Mill street. On motion of Mr. Jacobs it was ordered that the committee on streets and bridges as-certain the cost of paving or repairing with concrete the alley for the dis tance of ninety feet and report the same at the next meeting.

Mr. Vastine called attention to the bad condition of East Market street and he declared that a heavy taxpayer on the street threatened to pro against council for neglect. As a first step toward repaying the street he moved that the borough proceed at its own expense to pave the intersection of Ferry, Pine and Church streets Mr. Boyer seconded the motion which was lost by the following vote:

Yeas—Vastine, Boyer, Bedea, Eisen
hart and Hughes. Nays-Sweisfort, Russell, Dietz, Jacobs, Finnigan, Gibson and Angle. On motion of Dr. Sweisfort seconded by Mr. Vastine, P. J. Keefer was re-elected as superintendent of the water works and superintendent of

On motion of Dr. Sweisfort second ed by Mr. Vastine, the present em ed by Mr. Vastine, the present em-phoyes of the water works-Mesars. Bell and Byerly, engineers, and Mesars Hullihen and Wertman, firemen—were re-elected to serve another year. The ordinance relating to the paving by the plaintiff in the making of such extension is first tried and finally disposed of by the court.

In the second place, the solicitor stated, that rain storms repeatedly demonstrated that nothing short of cobble stones or something of that substantial character will ever properly and permanently meet conditions on A recept the common of A street should be accepted only after due deliberation and a carefully prepared motion. On motion of Mr. Vastine the communication was accepted and ordered spread upon the passed the prelimitary examination and in the state of the company, and, uncle his management, it has attained that only a little more than four years old it is now one of the strongest of the younger banks in the country.

Mr. McHenry was a studious boy and the state Grange, of which he is a member, the expediency of the Grange. He had no idea of participating in the work, but made it a feature of an address delivered at one of the annual picnics of the organization during the summary and the summer of 1905. It met with the instant and enthusiastic endorsement of accepted and ordered spread upon the passed the preliminary examination and instant and enthusiastic endorser minutes. By this action, it is under- was duly registered as a law student, but the working with the same kind of brick.

Grand Ovation at Edgewood

Harmonious Congressional Conference=John G. McHenry, of Ben= ton, the People's Choice=Many of His Friends There.

while among the sports were base ball and dancing, Fetterman's orchestra furnishing the music.

An incident in connection with the picnic was a fall-out between the com-

O NE of the grandest and most complete events in local politics was the Democratic Congressional Conference of this Sixteenth District, which was held at Edgewood park, near Shamokin, on Tuesday, and plainly illustrated the popularity of the candidate and the friendly feeling of his large circle of friends.

The regular nine A. M. o'clock train on the Penn'a railroad brought. The regular nine A. M. o'clock train on the Penn'a railroad of the candidate and the friendly feeling of the candidate and the friendly feeling of the committee on arrangements went to Bloomsburg and Catawissa and employed hackmen there who under a private arrangement were willing to adopt a five-cent fare for the day.

Three of these hacks from the above towns were on hand early in the morning of the candidate and the five cents per head as advertised—the committee on arrangements went to Bloomsburg and Catawissa and employed hackmen there who under a private arrangement were willing to adopt a five-cent fare for the day.

The regular nine A. M. o'clock train on the Penn'a railroad brought more than an extra car load of the close Columbia county friends of the candidate, and at the South Danville station the number was increased by an enthusiastic crowd of admirers; at Sunbury more joined, and by the time the park was reached we would venture to say that at least four hindred of the many friends of Mr. McHenry were with him. Among the number were Hon. "Farmer" Creasy, Hon. John G. Harman, Ex-Congressman Dickerman and other leading and representative Democrats throughout the four counties comprising the district.

man and other leading and representative Democrats throughout the four counties comprising the district.

The conference, which had been postponed from July 31, owing to the illness and subsequent death of Rohr McHenry, father of Hon, John G., convened at one o'clock and the organization was effected by the election of John. G. Scouten, of Sullivan county, as chairman. The meeting was then called to order by Mr. Scouten, after which the name of John G. McHenry was placed in nomination by Hon. C. H. Dickerman, of Milton, in a neat and appropriate address, and was seconded by George E. Elwell, of Bloomsburg, and there being no opposition, Mr. McHenry was nominated unanimously.

Mr. McHenry, having been formally apprised of his nomination, re-sponded in a strong and vigorous address, thanking the conference for the greate honor conferred upon him, and outlining his policy during the coming Reifsnyder when Mr. Jacobs to relieve the tension begged permission to change his vote, withdrawing Mr. Pursel. A vote was then taken on a motion to carry the election over to the next meeting. This resulted in a tie. No further ballots were taken, however, and council adjourned with the meeting of the meature.

G. Pursel and Harry Ellenbogen, of Danville.

ability appreciated that he was invited, close of the year

nen of the Grange and Mr that town a short time ago coming from New York to take the position of a painter at the new Graeber hotel. He is doing ordinary painting. That one tried to hive them, but the little one tried to hive them, but the little one tried to hive them, but the little one tried to hive present one tried to hive them, but the little one tried to hive them, but the work all was dulised on the work allows the work all the work induced as a law student, but the work induced as a law student and these areas a law student, but the work induced as a law student and the con bons tried to hive them, but the little is all so far as his trade goes. fellows persistently refused to enter the hive. Coming out of the chimney, they flew all about the house and the family was obliged to remain indoors to avoid being stung, but in spite of this precaution one of his children was stung several times.

Mr. Gibbons tried to hive them, but the little is all so far as his trade goes.

But Adolf claims he is of royal blood. He hands out a highly engrave the future.

On motion of Mr. Boyer it was ordered point the table was ordered bearing the family was obliged to remain indoors to avoid being stung, but in spite of this precaution one of his children was stung several times.

Mr. Gibbons tried smoking out the

with the same kind of brick.

On motion of Mr. Bedea the street commissioner was ordered to raise the commissioner was ordered to raise the District Chairmanship of a Division comprising at Church and Front streets to conform with the pavement as 1et paired by Herbert Myerly at his property there.

The lover of out-door life is now in his glory.

Ability appreciated that he was invited, and finally prevailed upon, to accept the close of the year.

Mr. McHenry is a man of domestic indications and spends his leisure with his wife and son in his charming home on the farm on which he was born. His bounded the was invited, and finally prevailed upon, to accept the close of the year.

Mr. McHenry is a man of domestic indication and spends his leisure with his wife and son in his charming home on the farm on which he was born. His bounded to make the counties of the Sixteenth Congressional District management the Republicans had secured control of the Sixteenth Congressional District in the election of (Continued on page 2.)

which took place in DeWitt's park yes terday, was a well attended and suc

mittee and the liverymen of town which caused some controversy and HIS ELOQUENT SPEECH | feeling. The facts as generally understood are that the local liverymen declining to haul people to the park of the grandest and most complete events in local politics was the towns were on hand early in the morn ing and were to be followed with an tinguished from any other vehicle of the kind that might appear on the street by placards displayed on each which contained the words 'Heps' Hack-5 cents."

It was a question whether during the rush that might occur in the afternoon the hacks that adopted the five-cent fare would be able to carry all the people. The local liverymen early repeople. The local liverymen early re-solved that they would not come upon the street. There were some people who took sides with the liverymen and did not like to see teams from out of town employed while our own livery-men were waiting for business.

Several prominent Heptasophs explained the situation in this wise: The committee had advertised that people would be carried to the park for five nts, and at least several of the liverymen had agreed on that figure: for erymen had agreed on that ingure; for the Hops to have come out with a ten cent fare on the day of the picnic would not have been treating the pub-lic fairly. The local liverymen would not carry people for five cents so that nothing remained but to go out of town for the lacks. There are some 250 Heps in Danville and these togeth-er with their families and friends, it was reasoned, would make a large crowd which would keep the hacks busy and even at a five cent fare would repay them well. It was adverted to that there is a general objection to a ten-cent fare and that it will have to give way to something more reasonable. At a ten-cent fare, it was held, and we have the family of general year. a man with a family of several per-sons is often deterred from visiting sons is often deterred from visiting the park by the cost of hack fare. During an interview a leading and representative liveryman stated some facts that may be new to the public. To begin with, he stated, people have an exaggerated idea of the profits made at a ten-cent fare by hack-ing on the occasion of a picnic. One liveryman, he said, is credited with having realized forty dollars, which is probably true, but during the greater part of the day he had four teams out. The common run of earnings for a hack on such occasions is twelve to fifteen dollars. Speaking for himself the highest he ever realized in a day's hacking was sixteen dollars. are expensive; they are hard on horse ment, for his risk and trouble. As for the burden imposed on large families, he said, hackmen always make it a practice not to charge for children un-der ten years of age.

such as church picnics, liverymen had hired their hacks for a fixed sum, say four dollars, but that it was under-stood that for that consideration only four trips were to be made, each way, and that for all over four trips the liverymen were to receive extra pay. This arrangement, he declared, the Heptasophs were not willing to enter into.

New Physicial Director Here.

The Y. M. C. A. has another new city yesterday and after looking over position which had been offered him. It will be remembered that another man, Harry Felix, of Reading, had accepted the position, and had con-tracted to be in this city about the Danville for several days, however, he It then devolved upon the secretary to look after another man. He had experience in gymnasium work, and is now assistant physical director at the Wilmerding association. Besides being an all around athlete, Mr. Ainsworth is an expert on the mats. will come to Danville as near the first

Broke Collar Bone.

Mrs. Andrew Krum, an aged resi-

State Highway Commissioner Hunter, yesterday, which clears up a misun-derstanding existing between the bor-ough and the highway department in a most satisfactory way.

provement at this time.

Last week a communication was received from the State highway department stating that the borough was under a wrong impression—that the State under the act could pay for reconstructing only three-fourths of 16 feet in width instead of three-fourths of 20 feet. This communication, which was read at a special meeting last week, jarred the councilmen considerably. With the State paying for only twelve jarred the councilmen considerably. With the State paying for only twelve feet the borough would have to meet the cost of reconstructing some 20 feet. The additional cost was considerable and for awhile the fate of the North Mill street improvement hung in the balance. Council finally decided to go on with the work

In the communication received yesterday the State highway department completely reverses itself and states than Mr. Vannan himself, who, while on with the work

In the communication received yesterday the State highway department completely reverses itself and states that the understanding now is that the State will pay for three-fourths of the cost of reconstructing a road 20 feet in width. The reason three-fourths of 16 feet was mentioned in the former letian on the spot. Here Dr. Newbaker ter, the communication states, was be-cause of a misunderstanding. This, indeed, is good news, as it brings the conditions back to what they were in the beginning, the State paying for about one-half of the reconstruction of the history. of the highway.

Met With Injury at Station.

er, No. 351 Mill street, met with painful accident at the Bloom street painful accident at the Bloom street crossing yesterday morning. She met the 7.55 train with a friend, who was leaving town. The friend boarded the train while Mrs. Keeler stood on the platform with a package stood on the platform with a package in her hand, which belonged to the person leaving. Mrs. Keeler was in the act of handing the package on the train when the latter suddenly started. Acting on impulse without thinking of the danger she seized hold of th railing as she tossed the package on railing as she tossed the package on the platform.

The train starts quickly at that point and as it bounded forward it gave the woman a sudden lurch turning her quickly upon her foot, with the result quickly upon her foot, with the result that her ankle was badly sprained. She suffered intense pain, her ankle swelling so badly that she was unable to walk. A vehicle was procured in which she was driven home from the station. Last evening she was doing station. Last evening she was doing very well and, although recovery may be slow, it was conceded by those familiar with the accident that Mrs. Keeler was fortunate that worse injuries were not sustained. Had she been thrown from her feet she could hardly have escaped coming in contact with the wheels.

who during last_spring operated a bar ber shop on Epruce street, this city was arrested yesterday morning in con was arrested yesterday morning in con-nection with a robbery at Sunbury and is now behind the bars. "Jack" appeared in Dauville last spring and was here until the latter part of June, when for reasons best known to himself he left. The Sunbury Daily Item has the folrobbery was committed at the barber shop of Oscar Speece, on North Third street, opposite the Pennsy station, Sunbary, and over sixty razors were stolen, valued at two hundred dollars. Later Officers Gross and McPherson found that Wilson had left Sunbary and had gone to Danville where h

The new form of postal card, nearly Three very large potatoes were exhibited at this office yesterday. The largest weighs one pound and two ounces, while the others were nearly as large. The big potatoes were raised by Joseph Ritter, East Danville, who has a crop of fifty bushels grown one-eighth of an acre.

streets about 9 o'clock Saturday moing, when Joseph Fausnaught, a loring man, was run over by F. Vannan's automobile.

a most satisfactory way.

From the first it was the plain understanding between the borough and the State highway department that under the Act of 1905 the State would pay for the reconstruction of three-fourths of a street twenty feet in no more humane, more careful and prickly and the state of the state would be a street twenty feet in that it should have been caused by the street when the state of the street would be street twenty feet in the street would be street twenty feet in the street would be street when the street was a street twenty feet in the street was a street twenty feet in the street was a street when the street was a street was pay for the reconstruction of three-fourths of a street twenty feet in width, or 15 feet, which would leave the borough a trifle over the same width of the street to pay for. This view was also held by one of the engineers of the State highway department, who met with council about a month ago. Had it not been that the portion of the reconstructed street that the borough would have to pay for was limited to about one half the width, it is doubtful if council would have seen its way clear to enter upon the improvement at this time.

Last week a communication was received from the State highway department stating that the borough was under the act could pay for reconstructing only three-fourths of 16 feet in width instead of three-fourths of 20 feet. This communication, which was read at a special meeting last week, jarred the councilmen considerably. With the State paying for only twelve with the state paying the twelve is the with the auto, but with what momentum it others carried the injured man into the hotel, hastened to Dr. Newbak-er's with his automobile and with scar-cely any loss of time had the physic-ian on the spot. Here Dr. Newbaker soon after was joined by Dr. Paules, the family physician. The injured man was placed on a cot and made as comfortable as possible. A cursory examination failed to reve-al any very serious injury. No bones about the thighs, but no serious abras ions on the body, although the condi-tion of the man's clothing indicated how roughly he had been used. The injured man was taken to his home, No. 424 Walnut street, by Mr. Vannan. At last accounts he was still bedfast, but was resting as comfortably as could be expected under the circumstances. The physician is hopeful that there will be no complica-

Boy Sustained Broken Arm.

Edward Buckley, a boy about twelve years of age, sustained a broken arm at the Heptasophs picnic yesterday. It is the first serious accident which has occurred at that resort this summer. Edward Buckley is the son of John Buckley, Cooper street, and is a very active little fellow generally first and foremost in all sports. At the picnic yesterday Edward took much delight in operating the big drum. This is essentially a tread-mill and the trick essentially a tread-mill and the trick is to keep it rapidly revolving and to maintain a position on top. Few are able to keep it running very long and generally take an ungraceful tumble. Edward had not much experience in operating the machine and went the way of most others. In falling he struck his right arm on the ground and on arising complained of great pain and was unable to use his arm.

This was sometime during the after This was sometime during the after-noon and it was not until evening that the injured boy presented himself at the office of Dr. Paules for surgical aid. In examination revealed that the radius or smaller bone of the forearm was broken a short distance above the

Enjoyable Dance.

An enjoyable evening was spent at he home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hollabaugh Monday, when a dance wa given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. L Kline, of Lewisburg. Those presen . Those present William Holla-Bertha Sweitzer, Miss Irene Davis, Miss Goldie Mockinheim, Mrs. Mar. E. Lentzer, Frank Nevius, Arthur Mc quare, and printed in a delicate blue now in general use.

Nevius, Elwood Nevius, Joseph Long

The aerie of Eagles at Canonsbur has purchased from the Ritchie estate a business building in Pike stree The price paid was $15,000 and after the price pai The earth, solid as it seems, is at the home by the local members of the ord-