Danville Intelligencer CRIMES OF GANG

Established in 1828.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put tegether, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it is a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a con-stitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Gure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitu-internally in dises from 10 drops to a tespoondu. It acts directly on the blood and muccuts surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testi-minals. J. CHENEY & CO. Toledo

SON OF STATESMAN WEDS SUNBURY GIRL

Sunbury, Pa., Oct. 10.—Simon P. Wolverton, Jr., and Miss Anna Cad-wallader were married at the home of the bride at noon today. The Cad-wallader home was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers, plants and rated with autumn nowers, plants and ferns and a select orchestra furnished the music. The Rev. O. G. Morton, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated. Miss Bess Keller, of Sunbury, was Miss Bess Keller, of Sunbury, was bridesmaid, and Benjamin Cummings, of Pottsville, served as groomsman. The bridegroom is the only son of ex-Congressman Wolverton, and the bride is the daughter of General George Cadwallader. One hundred and fifty guests were present. The pair will spend their honeymoon tour-ing the South and East. Both parties are well known in this city.

Friday evening last a hack load of product ladies and gentlemen, of Sun-bury, drove to this place and spent the evening very pleasantly as the guests of the editor and family. They entertained us with choice vocal and instrumental music and amused us greatly with their guess-not ("pickentertained us with enoice voen and instrumental music and anused us greatly with their games—not "ipick-ing cherries," "spinning the bottle," and those good old-fashioned games we used to indulge in, but new, modern games that requires an exer-cising of one's wit and is instructive as well as funny. No, sir, Danville does not have all the best looking t girls in this section, for we were al-ways accredited with having a good eye for the fair opposites, and we must say that this erowd, as a whole, compared favorably with any we have ever inspected. The young men were a gentlemanly well-behaved crowd, that this was an interesting party, and of which Sunbury can feel justly proud of. Come again.

Where Re Made His Money. Years ago a gentleman settled in the south of England and became very popular in the neighborhood. The coun-ty families could never discover how he had made his money, but were sat-isfied by his solenni assurance that it was not in trade. At first the house, seeing nothing that a de-biblied. At first the house, seeing nothing but justice as well as common sense in the resolution, together with a deserved tribute to Roosevelt passed it unani-monsly. But presently the gangester-learned that the Democratic chuckling was over the fact that the wish of god-speed to Roosevelt was connected with a clever abstract from the Democratic platform. When the gangsters recovered their breath they prompted Shern, of Phila-delphia, to move for reconsideration of the vote by which the resolution had passed. He did so half an hour after Croasy's success. Huhn, of Philadel-phia, seconded Shern. Creasy, after giving fair warning that the Republi-cans would slap their president in the face if they adopted Shern's motion, caused the resolution to be rcad again.
