THE JAPANESE GIRL.

There were not many Japanese women at the party, which made me wonder, considering the fact that there were hundreds of men present, but perhaps the absence of the many might explained by the uncomfortable and self conscious air of the few who were there in most menustrated for and self conscious air of the few who were there in most undecustomed for-eign finery. Word From Him, As Capitol Commission's Attorney, Would Have halted Plundering.

There is one man who could have halted the $9,000,000 "extras" graft in the new capitol. By just taking the public into his confidence and saying the word, that one man could not only lawe protected his own reputation, but also have good the machine at least also have saved the machine at leas that part of its present misery which the revelations of the capitol "steal" have caused. That man is Rebert K. Young, of Tioga county, the McNicholwilliam A. Stone, wound up its af-fairs recently with the boast that the commission had "completed" the capa-tol far enough within the $4,000,000 appropriated to turn $40,000 back into the state treasury. Can Young offer the excuse that he did not know what he was paid by the state for knowing? If so, he would be an incompetent, un trustworthy auditor general. If it be assumed that he is too intelligent no to have understood that the board of public grounds and buildings were selzing the unappropriated millions to pay for things that were in the specifications upon which all the bids for "completing" the sential were hard completing" the capitol were based, then a much harsher word than "ignorant" must be applied to Young.

Call it "ignorance" or worse, Young remained silent while the bosses who remained silent while the bosses who nominated him continued the deceiving of the people with the announcement made by Stone to the public. Young spent his time in Harrisburg, as the commission's lawyer, to see that the building was put up in accordance with law, and that his dear friend, Stone, formerly of Tioga. and the other commissioners, should not make any mistake. Nearly all of the "extras" were put into the capitol make any mistake. Nearly all of the "extras" were put into the capitol while Young was supposed to be earning his pay by staying around to protect the interests of the commonwealth. While the lawyers in various parts of the state are talking of the officials likely to be impeached or officials likely to be impeached or otherwise punished for their connection with this colossal crime, they have in Young a case for inquiry as to what ought to be done with a commonwealth's "legal adviser" who never let the public know if he "advised" against the looting of the treasury to cover work and supplies which the builders of the walls and roof were paid for furnishing, but did not furnish.

cover work and supplies which the builders of the walls and roof were paid for furnishing, but did not furnish.

Now Young asks the people to elect him to a position in which he would "audit" capitol accounts, and, in case of a legislative probing of the $9,000,000 graft, would be called upon to cooperate with the investigating crimititee. If Penrose and pals could elect the vie-den and ripper voters whom they have renominated for the legislature, the character of their "probing" rould be foreiold now. In any event, Young, as auditor general, would not be expected to convict Young as solicitor of the commission. But Stuart says he would favor "arigid investigation." His record as a centinual dodger of corporation bills and other important measures in the Philadelphia select council, is not a good recommendation for his backbone. He positively refused, when requested by leading citizens of Philadelphia, to lend his name with theirs against the "gas lense" and other ourges which caused the upheaval in city and state. He now stands for the election of Young, with full knowledge of the latter's acquiescence in the capitol "steal." What is the value of the "furniture" act of 1895, but in this he is backed up by hurriedly adopted alarm resolutions of both the gang city oommittee of Philadelphia and the Robbine "auxillary" campaign committee—selected by Penrose to work as an "eminently respectable" annex to that senator's state committee, which Wesley R. Andrews, in contempt for Young's now recanted protest, continues to head. If Penrose elected the legislative majority he could well afford to repeal that act, as the gang has got all out of it that it wanted, the capitol being packed to overflowing with the $9,000,000 "furnishings." And then Penrose could wanted, the capitol being packed to overflowing with the $9,000,000 "fur-nishings." And then Penrose could have just the kind of "investigation" to suit him and Young. Young's interest in appealing to the voters to take the advice of Stuar and re-elect the gang legislators of the Mrs. Britzenhoff and daughter, Miss Stella, of White Deer, spent Saturday with the former's daughter, Mrs. Chas. Stahl.

Mrs. Wetzel, of Kansss City, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Robinson.

Mr. Chas. Keiser's 80th birthday was pleasantly celebrated on Thursday of last week by a reunion of his children and grandchildren.

Mrs. Taylor of Stangalizations of the daylor commission. Stuart's interest for Young may be explained by his dread that Young's candidacy alone suffices to drag down the whole gang ticket. The gubernatory with his Mrs. Taylor, of Shamokin, spert torial nominee, in harmony with his last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Keiser. lative or auditor general candidate pull through if Stuart could be saved also. As Stuart is actually defending and supporting those malodorous can didates now, in the full glare of all Mrs. Brown, of Selinsgrove, is the guest of Mrs. Henry Simington.
