For president judge, vote for John G. Harman. A tribune of the people. Bogus half dollars, bearing the date of 1834, are being circulated in Pottsville.

Lloyd Packer, aged 19, of New Cumberland, died from an overindulgence in raw chestnuts. Half an hour before Harry Black, of New Castle, committed suicide he joined a burial association.

Mrs. Daniel Potter, of Easton, is very ill from having taken a headache powder which she found on her door step. All members of the Holy City chorus are urgently requested to be present at the rehearsal at the Mahoning Presbyterian church this evening at 8 o'clock.

A mysterious bird in the woods of Darlington Boeke, at Westtown, according to a dispatch from West Chester, is exciting the hunters of that town but none has been able to kill it.

Charles Wood, 26 years old, a brakeman on the Erie railroad, was killed by an engine in the Carbonate yard. He attempted to jump on the pilot and fell underneath the wheels. Lookout for a soap man who gives forty yards of Brussels carpet with a twelve dollar soap order. He collects the money in advance of course, and of course that's the end of the deal.

State Highway Commissioner Hunt has made public a statement showing the various townships that have made application for a share in the State fund for the maintenance of roads. It has long been admitted that Massachusetts takes the lead in the enactment of laws for the protection of labor from long hours, unsanitary conditions and for the protection of the workmen generally.

Democrats, scan your ticket well and see that you vote for John G. Harman. Full explanation will be printed before the election. Miss Louisa Miller, daughter of Chas. Miller, Upper Mulberry street, the popular fish and oyster man, died yesterday morning after a lingering illness, aged about 14 years.

A vote for Emery and McHenry is a vote for government of the people, by the people and for the people. A vote for Stuart and Samuel is a vote for government of the crooks, by the bosses and for the grafters.

The North American Review in its current number declares in favor of woman suffrage, that is the complete political enfranchisement of women. "We are convinced," it says, "that the time has arrived when the welfare of the nation would be most effectually advanced by conferring upon women the privilege of voting and holding political office."

SHALL THE GRAFTERS ESCAPE?

would go far toward equalizing the amount of personal property tax, license fees and other moneys which "Farmer" Cressy's grange tax-reform bills would have returned to the counties. It is now understood why the machine leaders smothered those bills, which would have greatly lightened the local taxation burden.

Berry picks out of the Pennsylvania-Snyder official report items amounting to $2,236,121, of which all were in the original building contract specifications, and were for work or supplies received by the firm of the building of the "shell," and yet all of that money was taken by Pennsylvania's board of the general fund without special appropriation, to pay for what the board has treated as "furnishings." Berry, quoting from the board members' own report, specifies among those items modeling and sculpting marble and wood wainscoting, mosaic glass, fireplaces, tile and wood floors, mantels, vaults and safes, drinking water plant, complete lighting system, duplex telegraph system, thermometers, etc., together with $303,093 for fitting up the fifth floor.

Despite the testimony of ex-Governor Stone, of United States Architect Green, and even of the final official report of Architect Huston, that the capitol was finished by the building commission in accordance with the specifications, and needed only the illuminating fixtures to be ready for occupancy, all of the foregoing work and supplies, aggregating three and a quarter million dollars, were afterward paid for by Pennsylvania's board under the pretense of "furnishings" according to the testimony of that board. This vast amount was paid twice—first in the building payments of the $4,000,000, and afterwards in the "furnishings" payments of the $9,000,000. Who got it? Would Bob Young, if Auditor General, tell us? He remains mum as a clam while he was solicitor of the Capitol commission for four years up to a few weeks ago. Would a legislature composed of Penrose's re-nominated vice-men and Ripper voters give the people the particulars of this $2,236,121 graft?

Then the Huge Overcharges. Setting all that aside, Berry shows that of the $4,562,252 spent for "furnishings" under the "furniture" act of 1895, at least $2,000,000 is overcharge. This is in the chandeliers and brackets, Beacraft cut-glass panels, bronze decorations, filing cases, etc. He considers probable "a proportionate overcharge" in the other $4,000,000 of expenditures, but declares that nothing short of a rigid investigation by experts, empowered to subpoena witnesses, will reveal the whole truth.

How the "Pennsylvania Construction Company," which had no plant or visible means of doing any work at all, got the metallic contract which gave it a clean profit of half a million dollars, is partly revealed by the fact that nearly everything was "by the foot" or "by the pound." Berry illustrates:

A special design was made for a chandelier; the bidder would estimate the cost, in part revealed by the fact that such things are ordinarily made and, suppose his figure was $200. He would then bid for it at $1,500, or as such things are ordinarily made, up to find that it would weigh, say 20 pounds; but the market price is $5 per pound, and, of course, he can not bid, but the contractor who is wise to the scheme, bids for it at $1,500. He knows that instead of the usual 1-16 or 1/8 of thickness of metal, he can make it 1/4-inch or 1-inch or a foot thick, if necessary, and make it weigh 200 pounds, and thus set $1,000 for it.

More than 300,000 pounds of bronze was put into these chandeliers, costing $1,500,000. The work upon them cost, say twice as much more, making $2,700,000. The contract for $1,500,000, showing an overcharge of at least a million dollars in this one item. The contract was for "extra," and cost $1,387,757.09.

Every item on this schedule is open to dispute. The contract is so worded that I have made of the total overcharge $1,000,000. Berry is a mechanic, and knows a good job when he sees it. Let it be assumed that the capitol is a good job—despite the showing already that parts of it are the contrary—let it be assumed that the expenditures have been legally made, and that overcharges cannot be proved, yet the erection of such gorgeous, sumptuous palaces for the use of a few men and the gratification of a larger number, without excuse, having been secretly and surreptitiously done, while many worthy charities and necessary public works were denied, as they are today by the support of the Legislature. The helplessness of the state are suffering from common necessities, and the indigent insane are sleeping and dying in the corridors of the overcrowded asylums owned and ostensibly cared for by the state. The appropriations for these have been denied, and the money is kept in the treasury so that the grafting capitol scheme and the farming out of the surplus could continue.

The people are about to choose the men to investigate this whole shock of a disgrace. Will the people choose the candidates whose political or personal interest lies in exonerating the politicians who have done the plundering or made it possible? The bronze head of Candidate Young is on the capitol. He drew $200,000 a year from the state for looking up the capitol "straight." He is not seeking the Auditor General's office with the aim of exposing and condemning himself and the grafters. But that is the object of "Farmer" Cressy, Mr. Emery and their colleagues, including the anti-gang nominees for the state legislature.

A Bad Place to Get Sick. In his book, "Uganda and Its Peoples," J. F. Cunningham tells of a curious manner of treating the sick among a certain African tribe. "When a person fell ill, the village prophet was called in. He said to each whether the sick person would recover or not. If he was doomed to die he was allowed to fulfill the prophecy; if he was to live there was no need, and he was left alone." Another strange custom is explained in the words of the native who when asked by the author why women were not allowed to eat the flesh of goats replied, "There is no why; it is the custom."

Dumley Bewildered. Dumley—I never saw a man like Brixton to drift away from the subject under discussion. Dumley—As, for instance? Dumley—As I asked him what he was doing the night I saw him down the road, and he evaded an answer by remarking that he had known people to get rich by attending to their own business, I have no doubt he has, but why should he mention it at that time?

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable. Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cure made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in all cases of kidney and bladder trouble and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for anything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

The Only Survivor of the Hayes Arctic Expedition, Mr. S. J. McConick, now U. S. Deputy Mineral Surveyor, Bliss Station, Idaho, says: "For years I have suffered from severe pains in the hip joint and back bone, depriving me of all power. The cause was Stone in the Bladder and Gravel in the Kidneys. After using Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Roundout, N. Y., I was completely cured."

Isaac Acor and John Yeagle transacted business at Limestoneville last Saturday. P. F. Brennan's sale was not attended by a very large crowd, but all were buyers. George Marshall bought all the horses.

Mrs. C. J. Yeagle is on the sick list. Miss Mary Ellis is slowly improving, after an illness of fever. Last Wednesday evening the Millville band, twenty in number, came over and surprised our band and people with fine music, after which they had refreshments, starting again for Millville at midnight.

HAIR POWDER. The High Price of Grain in England Sealed Its Doom. During the last years of the eighteenth century the price of grain in England was very high. So much flour was used as a hair powder that an attempt was made to check its use. A book, "At the Sign of the Barber's Pole," contains a copy of a document issued by the "mayor, justices and principal inhabitants" of Great Yarmouth, recommending the dress of hair powder for a time.

NOT IN ANY TRUST. Many newspapers have lately given currency to reports by irresponsible parties to the effect that the NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO. had entered a trust or combination with such parties. We have been manufacturing sewing machines for over a quarter of a century, and have established a reputation for ourselves and our machines that is the envy of all other manufacturers of sewing machines. It is not necessary for us to enter into a trust to save our credit or pay any debts as we have no debts to pay. We have never entered into any combination with manufacturers of low grade cheap machines that are made to sell regardless of quality. Our "New Home" machine has never been revealed as a family machine—it stands at the head of all High Grade sewing machines, and stands on its own merits.

The "New Home" is the only really HIGH GRADE Sewing Machine on the market. It is not necessary for us to enter into a trust to save our credit or pay any debts as we have no debts to pay.
