

The Farmers' Department.

CULTIVATION. How fit and sweet the planted rose, Beyond the wild in hedge grow I...

Pruning Fruit Trees. There is, perhaps, no subject in horticulture so little understood as the principles upon which pruning is founded.

There is no more striking instance of the silent and imperceptible changes brought about by what is called "time" than that of a language becoming dead.

Make it a study, next season, to disband and summer prune all growing trees, so that you may weaken and check the wood; pruning such trees now increases their future vigor.

CAPTAIN PRIEST OF THE VEGETABLE KINGDOM.—The term vegetable—sometimes vegetable—is probably derived from the peculiar long and pointed form of this description of esculents.

MUTTON VERSUS PORK.—An exchange says:—"Mutton can be produced pound for pound, at less than half the price of pork; yields more nourishment when eaten, and keeping sheep does not exhaust a farm to the extent feeding hogs does."

FATTENING TURKEYS.—The alimentary properties of charcoal are very great; indeed, it has been asserted that domestic fowls may be fattened upon it without any other food.

AMONG the novelties of the age is seedless apples. A tree has been found in Dutchess county, New York, bearing this fruit.

There is a man in Connecticut so opposed to anything bordering on monarchy, that he will not wear a crown in his hat.

If you want to see a black squall, just look at a negro baby attacked with the cholera.

BORN to rise.—People who tease bulls during the continuance of "fly time."

Educational Department.

TO ANNIE. BY MISS M. CROSBY. Then fare the well! my dream is fled, These all too bright to last...

There is no more striking instance of the silent and imperceptible changes brought about by what is called "time" than that of a language becoming dead.

As a worldling you, beloved youth, are falling into the sad mistake of the latter class. You are looking for the happiness not in God, but in his gifts alone.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Eighteen things in which young people render themselves very impolite: 1. Loud laughter.

There is a man in Connecticut so opposed to anything bordering on monarchy, that he will not wear a crown in his hat.

If you want to see a black squall, just look at a negro baby attacked with the cholera.

BORN to rise.—People who tease bulls during the continuance of "fly time."

Religious Department.

How to Enjoy This Life. The Orientals relate a beautiful legend of their renowned calif, HAROUN AL RASCHID.

There is no more striking instance of the silent and imperceptible changes brought about by what is called "time" than that of a language becoming dead.

As a worldling you, beloved youth, are falling into the sad mistake of the latter class. You are looking for the happiness not in God, but in his gifts alone.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Eighteen things in which young people render themselves very impolite: 1. Loud laughter.

There is a man in Connecticut so opposed to anything bordering on monarchy, that he will not wear a crown in his hat.

If you want to see a black squall, just look at a negro baby attacked with the cholera.

BORN to rise.—People who tease bulls during the continuance of "fly time."

ture as to prohibit you from enjoying all the delight which springs from the legitimate exercises of your bodily senses and appetites.

THE POETIC VIEW OF AMERICA.—In the history of the earth hitherto the largest and most stirring nation appears tame and orderly to our ample largeness and stir.

As a worldling you, beloved youth, are falling into the sad mistake of the latter class. You are looking for the happiness not in God, but in his gifts alone.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Eighteen things in which young people render themselves very impolite: 1. Loud laughter.

There is a man in Connecticut so opposed to anything bordering on monarchy, that he will not wear a crown in his hat.

If you want to see a black squall, just look at a negro baby attacked with the cholera.

BORN to rise.—People who tease bulls during the continuance of "fly time."

A "STRANGE" PREACHER.—His name was Strange. Many will think his conduct was strange also.

THE WAY TO CAPE ANN.—Some forty-five years ago there lived in Boston a Frenchman, and who spoke our language imperfectly.

As a worldling you, beloved youth, are falling into the sad mistake of the latter class. You are looking for the happiness not in God, but in his gifts alone.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Grain must be treated like infants; when the head buds it must be cradled; and threshing is resorted to fit for use.

Eighteen things in which young people render themselves very impolite: 1. Loud laughter.

There is a man in Connecticut so opposed to anything bordering on monarchy, that he will not wear a crown in his hat.

If you want to see a black squall, just look at a negro baby attacked with the cholera.

BORN to rise.—People who tease bulls during the continuance of "fly time."

PRINTERS' DEVILS.—The following toast was given at a celebration of Franklin's Birth Day, by the printers of Syracuse, N. Y.

REVERIES OF A DRUNKARD.—I think liquor's injuring me; it's a spoiling my temper. Sometimes I get mad when I am drunk.

THE MISERIES OF A BRIDEGROOM.—The editor of a country paper had been absent for a few weeks, and during that time a drunken compositor had been employed half a day.

Arrival and Departure of Mails. The mail from Butler to East Sandy, by way of Holyoke, Contoosick, Amundson, Merrimack and Clintonville.

Arrival and Departure of Mails. The mail from Butler to East Sandy, by way of Holyoke, Contoosick, Amundson, Merrimack and Clintonville.

Arrival and Departure of Mails. The mail from Butler to East Sandy, by way of Holyoke, Contoosick, Amundson, Merrimack and Clintonville.

Arrival and Departure of Mails. The mail from Butler to East Sandy, by way of Holyoke, Contoosick, Amundson, Merrimack and Clintonville.

Arrival and Departure of Mails. The mail from Butler to East Sandy, by way of Holyoke, Contoosick, Amundson, Merrimack and Clintonville.

Arrival and Departure of Mails. The mail from Butler to East Sandy, by way of Holyoke, Contoosick, Amundson, Merrimack and Clintonville.

Arrival and Departure of Mails. The mail from Butler to East Sandy, by way of Holyoke, Contoosick, Amundson, Merrimack and Clintonville.

IMPORTANT NOTICES.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF ENROLLMENT, 254 Broadway, New York, Dec. 5, 1863.

THE HOMO MAGAZINE. For 1864. Edited by T. S. ARTHUR AND VIRGINIA F. TOWNSEND.

THE HOMO MAGAZINE FOR 1864 will be conducted in the same spirit that has distinguished it from the commencement.

THE HOMO MAGAZINE FOR 1864 will be conducted in the same spirit that has distinguished it from the commencement.

THE HOMO MAGAZINE FOR 1864 will be conducted in the same spirit that has distinguished it from the commencement.

THE HOMO MAGAZINE FOR 1864 will be conducted in the same spirit that has distinguished it from the commencement.

THE HOMO MAGAZINE FOR 1864 will be conducted in the same spirit that has distinguished it from the commencement.

THE HOMO MAGAZINE FOR 1864 will be conducted in the same spirit that has distinguished it from the commencement.

THE HOMO MAGAZINE FOR 1864 will be conducted in the same spirit that has distinguished it from the commencement.

THE HOMO MAGAZINE FOR 1864 will be conducted in the same spirit that has distinguished it from the commencement.

THE HOMO MAGAZINE FOR 1864 will be conducted in the same spirit that has distinguished it from the commencement.