THE AMERICAN CITIZEN Butler, Pa., Wednesday, Mar.23. 1864.

AT Entrance to the AMERICAN CITIZEN Printing Office Boy There was no news of importance from the seat of war, up to the hour of going to press. A local bounty hill for this county has passed both branches of the Legis lature, and only awaits the signature of the Governor to become a law.

10 The County Superintenent, desires us to say, that owing to sudden indisposi- ish all thoughts of an approaching change tion, he was unable to attend the Joint Convention of Teachers, in Saxonburg .-He had reached Butler on his way to the Besides, if the country is expected to be meeting, but was unable to proceed fur- able, next summer, to carry on a presidenther.

Volunteering.

Our readers will notice by to days issue that the Government bounty of $300 and only conquering the rebellion, but at the 8400 will cease on the first of April.— There are therefore, but a few days left for volunteering under the increased boun-ties. Our citizens should work diligently and faithfully to fill the quotas of their respective districts. Do not delay; as delays are dangerous, and there is but difficulties he had to meet and master. barely time enough to work, for those who may improve the same. You have done nobly so far; a little effort now, and slavery, the greatest evil that exists under all will be well.

It will be well. ship, we are informed, have raised their quota of men under the late call for 700,-000. Well done for Washington. most suffocating. They rushed in; Mrs.
Miller picked up th babe, and after searching they found the child, Emma, sitting under the bed, with nearly all its elothes burnt off, and the person of the child was burned in a most shocking manner. The poor child was making no lament or noise, and the last words the child was heard to say, were " By ! By! Ma."
Parents should be very careful not to leave small children by themselves. From the best information that we have been able to gather, it appears that one of the little children had pokeda corn broom into the fire and had drawn it out again, and by some means or other little Emma's clothes were set fire. The wash-board was on dent?. Let sober-mindee citizens ponder the question. It is no time to be raskly nominating, but it is time for everybody to be prudently considering. The nation, just now, is busy with something beside candidating—having a toilsome task upon its hands, having a blody sweat upon its brow. But while the blacksmith is ham mering, the soldier is marching, and the farmer plowing, they may be thinking— It is idle to say that because the rebellion is on our hands, therefore we are to ban-ish all thoughts of an approaching change of Administration—a change that may either be thesafety or ruin of the country. Besides, if the country is expected to be

School Exhibition. A grad school exhibition came off at Coal Run Collage. Summit tp., on Friday evening. March 18th, at which I had the honorof being present. On the afternoon, previous to the exhibition, the citizens of the distriet manifested their interest in the cause, by creeting a grand stage for the benefit of the students. The performance 'consisted of Orations, Declamations, Essay and Vocal Music; in which the whole school participated and performed their 'exercises in a manner highly commenda-to their teacher. They showed by their performance, that they appreciated the instruction imparted to them by their teacher; and thus merited the approximate of all true lovers of education. The gas. grand school exhibition came off at of all true lovers of education ercises were accompanied with instrumental music, by Messrs, Lemon, Bergman, and Smith.
