Summary of War News.

From our Exchanges and Telegrams, we are enabled to gather the following particulars: The Potomac army com menced to move on Tuesday night, the -3d inst. Previous to moving, General Meade made a stirring address to the army, which closes thus : " With clear con eience and strong arms, actuated by a high sense of duty, fighting to preserve the government and institutions handed down to us by our forefathers, and if true to ourselves, victory, under God's bless ing, must and will attend our efforts."

Our army succeeded in crossing the Rappahannock and Rapidan rivers, with but slight opposition, compelling Lee to evacuate his strong positions and entrenchments where he had held us at bay so long. It was thought probable that he would give battle at Chancellorsville. After reaching the south bank of the Rapidan, our cavalry under Gens. Wilson and Gregg, were pushed forward, the former to Parker's store, and the latter some distance beyond Chancellorsville. They discovered nothing of the enemy but weak bodies of cavalry. This reconnoisance showed the fact that there was no strong rebel force immediately on the south: a few prisoners were taken, one of them bearing a dispatch from Gen. Rhodes to Gen. Ewell, that the Union or Yankee soldiers had crossed in force at Germania and Ely's ford. After the crossing and oisance was completed, our men moved forward. Gen. Hancock encamped on the old battle ground of Chancellorsville, Gen. Warren at the wildernes tavern, and Gen. Sedgwick at the tavern at Germania ford, being the head quarters of Gens. Grant and Meade. This appears to have been the disposition of our forces on Wednesday night, the 4th. At an early hour on Thursday morning, the Union army was in motion. The different portions of the army had been on the move but a short time, when reports were brought in that the enemy were advancing with infantry and artillery in strong force, from near Old and New Verdeirsville. At this time Gens. Grant and Meade came up, our forces were concentrated and formed in line of battle, Sedgwick on the right, Warren in the centre, and Hancock on the left. The two former got into line about 11 o'clock, a. m., soon after which skirmishing was heard in the front. Warren advanced about three quarters of a mile when he found himself confronted by a well-formed, strong rebel position on a thickly wooded A severe fight ensued. The enridge. emy made two desperate attacks upon our tines in hopes of breaking the same. The fight continued till dark, our forces remaining in possession of the ground; every corps in proper position, and Burnside fully up. The fighting was renewed on Friday, and is said to have been the ost terrific ever fought by the army of thePotomac. Lee's entire army made repeated and furious assaults upon the right and left which were repulsed. About 4 o'clock, p. m., an attack was made along the whole line, which was gallantly repuls After which, near dark, Lee concentrated his whole force against our extreme right, and fell suddenly upon Sedgwick, crushing a part of his line. It was rego to press, we are informed by our exchanges that Lee's army commenced fall-ing back on Friday night; our army in full pursuit. The loss is heavy on both sides. Gen Hays, of Pittsburgh, and Gen. Wadsworth, of N. Y., killed.

Registered Bonds are record ed on the books of the U.S. Treasurer, and can be tran ed only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for co l uses. Subscribers to this loan will have the option of have their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying th ned interest in coln-(or in United States notes, o the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for ium,) or receive them drawing interest from th date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are Exempt from Municipal or State Tuxation, their value is increased from one to three per cont. per a um, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts o he country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay Over Eight Per Cent Interest urrency, and are of equal convenience as a pe ent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great induce ments to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. It may be useful to state in this connection that th otal Funded Debt of the United States on which inter-st is payable in gold, on the 3d day of March, 1864, was $768,965,000. The interest on this debt for the comin fical year will be $45,937,126, while the customs reven fical year will be $15,057,129, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864 has been so far at a rate of over $100,000,000 per annum It will be seen that even the present gold revenues the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasurer for the payment of gold interest, while the reent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annueccipts from customs on the same amount of importa
