☞ The Pittsburgh Sanitary Fair, has thus far been a grand success. The cash receipts are now over $600,000.

☞ We have been requested by many of our present readers to re-published the Local Bounty Bill. We would advise all who receive the present number of the Citizen to file it away for future reference, as we do not desire to take up our columns by reproducing that which, with a little care can be preserved. Newspapers should be filed for future reference.

☞ In to-days paper will be found the proceedings of the Convention, which met here on Monday last. The convention was a full one, and the deep interest manifested by all present, promises well for the future. No one can doubt that a campaign so auspiciously begun, will terminate in victory.

The Resolutions.

The platform adopted by the Union National Convention is a frank statement of the principles upon which the Union party rests its claims to the confidence of the people. There is no duplicity abont it, no evasion of real issues, and not the slightest appeal in a single line to party prejudice or party malevolence. It is a manly utterance of the views of the Union party upon the great questions of the day, and of the ends it seeks to attain. Its features may be briefly summed up thus: The assertion of the belief that it is the highest duty of the American citizen to mantain the integrity of the Union, approbation of the efforts of the Government to compell rebellious citizens to return to their just allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; approbation, also, of the acts and proclamation by which the Government in its own defense has aimed a death blow at slavery, the cause and strength of the Rebellion, a declaration in favor of the abolition of slavery by constitutional amendments; thanks to our brave soldiers and sailors; indorsement of the policy of employing negro soldiers to assist in saving the Union; an assertion of the duty of the Government to give to those soldiers the full protection of the laws of war; the fostering and encouragement of foreign emigration, the speedy construction of a railroad to the Pacific; the keeping inviolate of the national faith, pledged for the redemption of the public debt, and the re-assertion of the Monroe Doctrine. To which is added an expression of confidence in the President, and of the necessity of harmony in the national councils. The question of reconstruction was not referred to. That is a question which can only be viewed properly in the light of event, to occur hereafter, and the Convention was not composed of prophets.

The platform is one that will command the hearty approval and earnest support of all true friends of the Union. It is a war platform, and war candidates have been placed upon it. Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnston represent the party that is in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war until the Union is restored and all who are not for them are practically against that consummation. Practically, we say, for any and all opposing to the election of the candidates above mentioned is calculated in the nature of things to encourage the South to continue its efforts to desrtoy the Union, and to assist in transferring the Government to those who, if they were in power, would patch up a dishonorable compromise with traitors to-morrow.

And here we will be pardoned for impressing upon our loyal readers the necessity of taking positive ground at once in favor of the election of Lincoln and Johnson. Let no false sentimentalism, no factious spirit, no party prejudices begotten before the war, lead you to withhold from them your best efforts to secure their success. Above all things, do not suffer yourselves to be deluded with the notion that, if they are not elected, the country will be just as safe and the war as vigorously conducted if either of the opposition tickets is successful. Be sure that, if Lincoln and Johnston are defeated European governments and the South itself will regard the result, no matter who may be elected, as a condemnation of the war in support of the Union. We dare not run that risk, if we would crush out treason and preserve from destruction the last hope of all who are in favor of the right of the people to govern themselves.—Pitt. Gazette.

Mr. Raymond of New York, from the Committee on Resolutions, reported the following:

Resolved, That it is the duty of every American citizen to maintain against all enemies the integrity of the Union and the paramount authority of the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the laying aside all differences of political opinion, pledge ourselves as Union men animated by a common object to do every thing is our power to aid the Government in quelling by force of arms the rebellion raging against its authority, and in bringing to punishment due to their crimes the rebels and traitors arrayed against it.

Resolved, That we approve of the determination of the Government of the United States not to compromise with the rebels or offer any terms of peace, except such as may be based upon an unconditional surrender of their hostilities, and return to their just allegiance to the Constitution, and laws of the United States, and that we call upon the Government to maintain this position and to prosecute the war with the utmost possible vigor to the complete suppression of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrifice and the patriotism, heroic valor and undying devotion of our people to their country and its free institutions.

Resolved, That as slavery was the cause and now constitutes the strength of this rebellion, and as it must be always and everywhere hostile to the principles of republican government; justice and the national safety demand its utter and complete extirpation from the republic, [applause] and that we uphold and maintain the acts and proclamation by which the Government, in its own defence, has aimed a death blow at this gigantic evil we are in favor, futhermore, of such an amendment to the Constitution to be made by the people in conformity with its provision as shall terminate and forever prohibit the existence of slavery within the limits or jurisdiction of the United States. [Applause.]

Resolved, That the thanks of the American people are due to the soldiers and sailors of the army and navy, (Applause,) who have periled their lives in defense of their country and in vindication of the honor of the flag; that the nation owes to them some permanent recognition of their patriotism and their valor and ample and permanent provision for those of their survivors who received disabilities and honorable wounds in the service, and that the memories of those who have fallen in its defense shall be held in greatful and everlasting remembrance. [Loud applause.]

Risolved, That we approve and applaud the practical wisdom, the unselfish patriotism, and unswerving fidelity to the Constitution, and the privileges of American liberty with which Abraham Lincoln has discharged under circumstances of unparallelled difficulties, the great duties of the responsibilities of the Presidential office; that we approve and endorse as demanded by the emergency, and essential to the preservation of the Nation within the Constitution the measures and acts which he has adopted to defend the nation against open and secret foes. That we approve especially the Proclamation of Emancipation, and the employment as Union soldiers of men heretofore held in slavery. [Applause.] That we have full confidence in his determination to carry these and all other measures essential to the salvation of the country into full and complete effect.

Resolved, That we deem it essential to the general welfare that harmony should prevail in the National councils, and we regard as worthy of public confidence and official trust those only who cordially endorse the principles proclaimed in these views, and which should characterize the administration of the Government.

Resolved, That the Government owes to all men employed in its armies without regard to distinction of color, the full protection of the laws of war [Applause.]

Resolved, That any violation of these laws or of the usages of civilized nations in the time of war by rebels now in arms, should be made the subject of full and prompt redress. [Prolonged applause.]

Resolved, That the foreign immigration, which, in part, has added so much to the wealth development resources and increase of power to this nation, this asylum of the oppresed of all nations should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the speedy construction of the Railroad to the Pacific.

Resolved, That the national faith pledged for the redemption of the public debt must be kept inviolate, and that for this purpose we recommend economy and rigid responsibility in the public expenditures and a vigorous and just system of taxation; and that it is the duty of every loyal State to sustain credit and promote the using of National currency. (Applause.)

Resolved, That we approve the position taken by the Government that the people of the United States can never regard with indifference the attempt of any European power to overthrow by force or supplant by fraud the institution of any Republican Government on the Western continent. [Prolonged applause.] And that they will view with extreme jealousy, as menacing to the peace and independence of this our country, the effort of any such power to obtain a foothold for a monarchical government, sustained by a foreign military force, near proximity to us. [Applause]

On motion of Mr. Bushnell, the report of the Committee on Resolutions was adopted by acclamation.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

LEXINGTON, KY., June 13.—Captain Dickson telegraps to Gen. Carrington: Gen. Burbridge gave the rebels a total defeat at Cynthiana yesterday morning.—The rebel loss was 300 killed and 400 prisoners, besides wounded. Their force exceeded ours. Morgan's command is divided and utterly demoralized trying to get off in small squads. Cols. Hanson and Ganard are pursuing Morgan himself, with a few hundred men, northeast from Cynthiana. General Burbridge, with part of his force, has returned here.

A telegram from Gov. Bramlette to Gen. Carrington dated, at Frankfort, June 13th p. m., says: There is no rebel force moving towards Louisville. A gentleman from Gerrystown reports that a few hours after Hobson's surrender at Cynthina, Burbridge attacked the enemy killing and capturing half of the forces. The remainder fled in great confusion, crossing the Railroad yesterday at Paincsville.—We had repulsed the enemy before our reinforcements arrived, but felt insecure until their arrival.

LEXINGTON, June 13.—Capt, Dickson to Gen. Carrington: Gen. Burbridge is now here, and reports the rebel force were out of ammunition, scattered and utterly demoralized in the fight at Cynthiana.

A dispatch from Falmouth, Ky., this afternoon says: After the Cynthiana defeat, General Hobson and part of his staff were sent under guard to Falmouth, but the whole party were recaptured by a scouting party, and are now at Falmouth.

AN old Scottish woman, wishing to cross the River Forth, hesitated to enter the ferry-boat, because a storm was brewing. The boatman asked if she would not trust in Providence. "Na, na," said she, "I will na trust in Providence as long as there is a bridge at Sterling."

THE GREAT American Tea Company

51 Vesey Street, New York.

Since its organization, has created a new era in the history

Of Selling TEAS in this Country.

ALL our Teas are selected by a Professional Tea-taster, expressedly and exclusively for us, and we never charge over Two Cents (08 Cents) per pound above cost for original packages.

We have but One Price to every one for each quality, and that price is always marked on each sample package at our store in plain figures.

We send a monthly price list of our Teas, which will be sent free to all who order it—we advise every Tea Seller to see it. It comprises a full assortment selected for every locality in the States, Provinces, South America and the West Indies. In this list each kind is divided into Four Classes or qualities, namely: Cargo, High Cargo, Fine, Finest, that every one may understand from description and the prices annexed that the Company are determined to undersell the whole tea trade.

We guarantee to sell our Teas in original packages at not over Two Cents per pound above cost, believing this to be attractive to the many who have heretofore been paying Enormous Profits.

Our business is largely done on orders, which we always execute as well and promptly as though the buyer came himself, giving true weights and tares, and always guaranteeing everything; our responsibility enabling us to do all we promise. Every dealer can order his teas direct from the Company, and parties doing business within Five Hundred (500) miles of New York, can Return Teas bought of us if they are not cheaper than they can buy elsewhere, and the purchaser is dissatisfied with his bargain, within fourteen days, (14), and have the money refunded to them. Those who are over Five Hundred miles can have thirty days (30), and the same privileges extended to them.

Besides these advantages the Company will pay All Expenses, both ways, if the Teas are returned.

GENUINE LOUISVILLE LIME for sale, by

Butler, April 13, 1864. J. C. REDICK & CO.

AN excellent quality of Plaster Paris on hand and for sale by J. C. REDICK & Co.

U. S. 10-40 Bonds.

These Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 8th, 1864, which provides that all Bonds issued under this Act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any state or municipal authority. Subscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT. INTERRST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually and on other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year.

Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U. S. Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds, are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accrued interest in coin—(or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are their value is increased from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay

Over Eight Per Cent Interest in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin:

These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 p to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

It may be useful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold, on the 3d day of March, 1864, was $768,965,000. The interest on this debt for the coming fical year will be $45,937,120, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been so far at a rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasurer for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per annum.

Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued from the United State Treasury until March 26, but in the first three weeks of April the subscriptions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS A WEEK.

Subscriptions will be received by the

Having been duly appointed a "Committee of Six," to proceed to parts beyond these diggins, to procure for the citizens of Butler, and all others who may favor him with a call, the choicest articles in his line, would respectfully represent: that in pursuance of his appointment, he has been successful in collecting "tall specimens" of the best articles ever found in Butler! He would also further represent: that he feels grateful to the public for the favors conferred upon him, in "days gone by," and hopes he will merit a continuation of their patronage in "days that are to come."
