Dear Hamiltons' gone and left us,

His death we deeply mourn;

Tis Jesus that bereft us,

He only called him home—

- To join his sainted mother, And dwell with her above, And Jesus, his elder brother, To continue in his love.
- His seventeenth summer had passed by, His eighteenth just coming on, When angels took him on lingth, To join the blessed song.
- His sufferings were very great,
 When death to him drew nigh—
 He kindly did his friends embrace,
 And bid them all go-d bye.
- He then expressed his love for them, And thanked them one by one, For the kind acts they'd done to him, And the friendship they had shown.
