Short Sermons for Farmers.

And he said, So is the Kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground...

The parables are the most difficult parts of the scriptures to interpret. They have, by spurious, but false interpretations...

But my limits in the Farmer admonish me to postpone the remaining part of this subject until next month.

Washington, June 8, 12 M.—Maj. Gen. Dix: A dispatch from Gen. Grant, dated yesterday 5 p. m., reports that all has been quite to-day.

Details of the position of our troops and contemplated movements are given, but are not needed for public information.

The dispatch further states that the enemy is not in our front, but his signals are seen at Lost Mountain and Kewaw.

Dispatches from Gen. Canby, dated June 3d, have been received, which reported satisfactory progress in the organization of his command.

TRAINING THE TOMATO.—Some gardeners think that the best way is to let them alone, allowing them to spread over the ground.

THE ORIGIN OF CHRISTIANITY.—The origin of personal godliness are both divine. This is explicitly affirmed as well as necessarily inferred from the revealed fact from the natural alienation of man from God.

It is necessary that a class of men shall be set apart to sow the seed of the Kingdom. Hence the apostle, speaking of those who are ignorant of the gospel, says: "How shall they call on him in whom they have not believed?"

In view of this divine plan with reference to the sowing of the seed of the Kingdom, the apostle gives this charge to Timothy: "And the things which thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit them to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also."

Pennsylvania Reserves. The remnant of this gallant corps, met with a grand reception, by the authorities of this city, on Monday last.

On arriving at the Capitol, Mayor Rounfont, delivered an eloquent and appropriate address; after which Gov. Curtin spoke as follows: GOVERNOR CURTIN'S ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

It is nearly three years since you left this city a mighty army. Nearly that length of time has passed since I had the honor of presenting to you the standards which you are now here to return in honor to the State to-day.

I cannot speak of your deeds—they have passed into history already. I have not time to enumerate the battles you have done for your country.

But I can welcome you to your homes. From the north to the south, and from the east to the west, the voice of the old Commonwealth bids you welcome!

With this welcome I bid you farewell; I had something to do with making the Reserve Corps—God be blessed!

I am not ashamed to boast in this multitudinous assemblage of suburban, bronzed faces that I have stood by the Reserve Corps in all their history.

Col. Fisher, of the Reserves, spoke in reply to the speeches of the Mayor of Harrisburg and the Governor of Pennsylvania. In the name of what was once a great division, he thanked the citizens of Harrisburg for their welcome this day.

THE CHRISTIAN COMMISSION has sent through Washington and Baltimore over a hundred delegates since the change of base, to work among the wounded coming in at the White House; also large quantities of stores.
