An adjourned Court will be held in Butler, on Tuesday, the 19th instant. All who are interested will bear the same In mind; be in attendance, "and they shall be heard."

All interested are hereby notified that the different officers of the Court House, and members of the Bar, have agreed that the different offices of the Court House, shall be open for business as follows: From 8 o'clock, A. M. to 12, M. and from 1 o'clock till 5, P. M.

The ladies, and every body interested, are referred to the advertisement of Wm. S. Ziegler, who is prepared to furnish "Fisher's latest Improved Patent Fruit Can," which for utility, simplicity and excellence, surpasses anything of the kind that has ever been offered to the public; he has also, on hand constantly, a great variety of Tin Ware, which he will sell at reasonable rates. Give him a call.

Terrible Accident.

On the 12th inst., Wm. Rea, Esq., of Adams township, this county, while engaged in mowing with a machine, his team being fractious, ran the machine against a stump, throwing Mr. Rea off in front of the knives. It is reported that his left leg was taken taken off below the knee; the right terribly mangled above the knee. In consequence of these feartul wounds, it was feared that he would bleed to death before medical assistance could be procured.

Our readers are referred to the different Proclamations of Gov. Curtin. calling for 100 day volunteers to serve in Washington and vicinity. The neces sities of the hour are urgent and pressing; the rebels, in considerable force have invaded Maryland, and are said to be within a short distance of Baltimore and even threatening Washington city; communication has already been interrupted between Harrisburg and Baltimore and also between Baltimore and Washing ton, and our forces have been compelled to fall back before the invaning foe. The quota of Butler county, under the calls for 24,000 men is 279.

Citizens of Butler county, it is for you to say, whether as freemen and patriots, our quota shall be filled. It is very evident, judging from the best information we have; that the necessities of the case imperatively demand prompt action on our part : we should fill our quota at once ; there is no time to spare in idle speculations; we should be willing, if necessary to give our lives a sacrifice in defense of our Government. Freemen of Butler county, To Arms! Your country calls! WILL YOU GO?

TUESDAY, 4 o'clock, P. M., I have just headed a roll for 100 day service; we expect to raise a company. Who will go? C. E. Anderson.

General Order. Harrisburg, July 5, 1864.

GENERAL ORDERS,

In response to a cell of the President of the United States this day made, for twelve thousand Militia or volunteer infantry, to serve at Washington and its vi-cinity for one hundred days unless sooner discharged:

It is ordered:

I. Troops will be accepted by squads or companies, as hereinafter indicated, and will, as rapidly as possible, be formed into companies and regiments.

II. Persons proposing to organize companies will be accepted under the following prayisjons, viz.:

rom twenty-five (25) to forty (40) men nust have been furuished as above. To be commissioned a Second Lieuten-int, from fifteen (15) to twenty-five (25) en must have been obtained as above. III. Camps of rendezvous will be es-stablished by the United States at Har-risburg, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, in ge of which camp commanders and ul surgeons will be appointed.

Transportation will be furnished on V. Bomford, U. S. A., Superintendent of Volunteer Recruiting service at Har-isburg, for the Western District, or to Major C. C. Gilbert, U. S. A., Superinndent of Volunteer Recruiting service Philadelphia, for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, to the Camp or Camps of rendezvous in their respective districts, to whom report must be made.

V. Actual and necessary expenses for boarding and lodging of troops, raised under this order, will be paid by the United States disbursing officer, at the proper post, for a period not exceeding fifteen (15) days, at a rate not exceeding forty-cents per day for each man mustered into the service of the United States, on the affiservice of the United States, on the affi-davit of the officer furnishing the men, supported by the receipts of the party to whom the money was paid. Names of the men, and the dates between which each man was boarded and lodged, must be stated in the accounts rendered. VI. The troops will be organized ac-

VI. The troops will be organized according to the general regulations of the service, armed, clothed, paid, transported, subsisted and supplied as other troops in the United States service, and mustered into the service of the United States by regiments, as soon as filled to the minimum strength, the term of service to be reckoned from the date of muster into the United States service.

United States service.

VII. As a reward for meritorious conduct, and also to secure valuable military experience, appointments of field officers will be made, except under peculiar circumstances from men who have been in service and have been honorably discharg-

VIII. No bounty will be paid to the troops, nor will this service exempt from draft, but if any officer or soldier in this special service should be drafted, he will be credited for the service rendered.

The New Volunteer and Con-scription Law.

Some people are inclined to condemn this law. I am not; for I think it the very best measure that could have been very best measure that could make devised under the circumstances. The draft, with commutation, has just proved a dead failure, so far as the filling up the ranks of the army was concerned. Take, for example, the result in the 23d district, in which the late draft, for a deficiency of about 440 men, with fifty per cent. added, to cover exemptions, has just been completed. About twenty-five men, including substitutes, were sent into the service. All the others, found fit for service, paid commutation. It demonstrated the utter impossibility of keeping the ranks of the army replenished by such a

Here was a dilemma. A draft, with commutation, was found to be unavailable while a draft, without commutation, was (of which slavery is the acknowledged cornerstone,) to resort to such means to keep up their military force; but we can-

On motion, Jake W. Franciscow, and the form of the strength o Som.

On motion, John W. Forrester, Wm.
Campbell and C. E. Anderson, were appointed a committee, to prepare the Premium List, and to report at the next meeting.

On motion, it was agreed that the Fair be held in Butler on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 4th and 5th days of October, 1864.

The solution of personal property, and even the hanging of men by the neck, in certain ther contingencies; but people may, by the exercise of a little prudence and fore cast, avoid any and all of these legal proceedings and penaltics. The laws do not make the stretching of necks, the forcible sale of goods, or the conscription of soldiers, a necessity. Life must be protected, debts must be collected, and the country must be defended against fraitorous enemies; but all these things may be done without a picessary resort to the penalties provided for distress and sale of call and 'personal property, and even the hanging of men by the neck, in certain ther contingencies; but people may, by the exercise of a little prudence and fore cast, avoid any and all of these legal proceedings and penaltics. The laws do not make the stretching of necks, the forcible sale of goods, or the conscription of soldiers, a necessity. The residence of a little prudence and fore cast, avoid any and all of these legal proceast, avoid any and all of these legal proceast, avoid any and all of these legal proceast, avoid any and all of these legal procea many people. But it is all a mistake. There is no necessity for a draft a all. There ought to be none; and I believe there will be none. Instead of this, I believe there is to be a great and generous effort at volunteering. I think the President will call for from 300,000 to 500,000 men, to serve for one year, and put an end to the rebel-One hundred dollars bounty in addition to the pay, rations and bounty heretofore allowed, is to be given to those who will enter the service voluntarily, and fifty days are ompanies and regiments.

II. Persons proposing to organize companies will be accepted under the following provisions, viz:

To be commissioned a Captain, the applicant must have furnished forty (49) or more men, who have passed Surgeon's exton amination, and been mustered into the United States service.

To be commissioned a First Lieutenant, from tyenty-five (25) to forty (49) men. vised more equitable, fair and honorable to all concerned than this; and

Under this system, no wrong, no oppression, will mar the glorious work of ving the country. Men will go willing; ; for patriotism and interest will com-ne their force to urge them forward.— It sounds very fine to talk about men lay-ing down their lives for their country. and calculation has taken the place of en thusiasm. The time has come when men think before they grasp the musket, how their wives and children are to be fed and clothed, while they are gone; and the time has come when enrolled men will count how much money they can profita-bly flive to escape an incommutable con-

I trust that the selfish policy of getting individual substitutes will not be re-sorted to except in districts where the formation of general bounty funds shall have been found, after an honest and earnest been found, after an honest and carnest effort, to be impracticable. If men in easy circumstances wish to sow the seeds of discontent and jealousy in the minds of their poorer neighbors, they can take no readier way to do so than by the sys-tem of individual substitution. I am glad to know that the noble-minded citizens of the Fourth Ward, Allegheny, have utterly repudiated that system, and that they have already taken measures to fill the heavy quota of their ward by a general and united movement, just as they did be-fore. J. C.

Another Braft Regulation.

It is generally known that the Board of Enrollment of the 24d district made their late draft on the principle of the law of 1863, giving fitty per cent addi-tional to cover exemptions. After the work of making examinations was nearly completed, an order was received direct-ing the Board to confine the draft to the net number required to fill the deficien-cies. Yesterday morning, however, an-other order war received revoking the first
