

THE AMERICAN CITIZEN.
Butler, Pa., Wednesday, Aug. 17, 1864.

At a special meeting of the members of the Butler county Agricultural Society, held in Butler, on the 5th day of Aug., it was agreed that the meeting called for on the 15th inst. be postponed until Tuesday the 25th day, at 1 o'clock, P. M., at which time the different officers of the Society and all persons interested are hereby notified and requested to attend.

AGRICULTURAL.
At a special meeting of the members of the Butler county Agricultural Society, held in Butler, on the 5th day of Aug., it was agreed that the meeting called for on the 15th inst. be postponed until Tuesday the 25th day, at 1 o'clock, P. M., at which time the different officers of the Society and all persons interested are hereby notified and requested to attend.

QUOTAS FILLED.—The borough of Butler, through of Zelinopne and Adams township have filled their quotas under the late call for 500,000 men.

DEATHY HANGING.—Joseph Adams, of Cherry township, hung himself on Wednesday, August 10th. The deceased was supposed to be laboring under insanity.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday, Aug. 24, John Worthington and David Hoffman, while engaged in setting up the rafters on the barn of John and Wm. Worthington, were precipitated from the top of the building to the ground, a distance of 40 feet. Mr. Worthington died the same evening; Mr. Hoffman was very severely injured, but hopes are entertained of his recovery.

NEW COMPANIES.—An effort is being made to raise at least one new company within the bounds of our county. R. O. Shira and W. H. H. Wasson of Co. H, 162d Pa. Vols, are operating in the northern part of the county, we have not been informed as to the progress they are making and therefore cannot speak with any certainty of their success. Those who may volunteer in our county have an opportunity of joining a new organization. These gentlemen have established a recruiting office in North Washington.

D. C. Ayres, son of John Ayres, and member of Co. I, 162d (old 13th Regt.) has arrived at home; he was wounded in both legs in one of the late engagements under Grant. His left leg is entirely amputated above the knee, which is entirely healed up; the right leg is not yet healed; but he is doing well and in fine spirits; and when fully recovered, intends entering the Invalid Corps. He is truly a patriot and brave soldier. He has served his country nobly and faithfully in the time of her trouble and danger, and has won the gratitude and respect of his many friends; we hope that he may long live to enjoy the rich blessings of civil and religious liberty—an honor to his parents and friends.

The quiet of our town, was disturbed on Monday, the 15th inst., by a number of men becoming intoxicated, one of whom became intolerable, by interrupting peaceable citizens on the street, and finally by attempting to twist a gun from the hands of a man, quietly passing along the highway. At this juncture, the High Constable, as a good officer, arrested him, but while on the way to the jail, a number of the companions of the drunken man, came to his rescue, and before he could be secured in the jail, they forcibly tore him from the officer and a few citizens who were about him. He was subsequently arrested however by the sheriff and lodged in jail during the night. As a citizen of Butler, we can but confess our shame, at being compelled to report such outrageous conduct. The drunkenness itself was outrageous, and the obstructing the officer, while in the line of duty, is as possible more so. We feel that our love for the prosperity of the community, our love for the youth, and good order, demand that we condemn the outlandish conduct. We hope the proper officers will not fail to deal with them as their crimes deserve. Such occurrences are becoming too common. It is certainly the duty of all order loving men to unite, in order to prevent such scenes in the future.

THE NEW YORK HERALD suggests that Admiral Farragut's recent movement is probably designed not so much for the capture of Mobile as it is to obtain for the Union a base of operations on the Gulf coast, so that the harbor can be effectually blockaded, and at the same time to relieve the large Union fleet now off that place, who are hourly threatened with an attack from the rebel iron clads lying under the guns of Fort Morgan.

HAVE NEGROES THE RIGHT TO VOTE?
—Before the special election it was a favorite question, and the people were anxious to tell the people that if the first amendment was adopted it would give negroes the right to vote. The amendment has been adopted. Are they willing to admit, now, that under it negroes have the right to vote?

IF GRANT WAS A BATTLE, he is in part a triumph over the fundamental law of the Government. If Sherman conquers Atlanta, it is a triumph over the Constitution; if he conquers Mobile, it is a triumph over the Constitution; if he conquers the Confederacy, it is a triumph over the Constitution. We feel that our love for the prosperity of the community, our love for the youth, and good order, demand that we condemn the outlandish conduct. We hope the proper officers will not fail to deal with them as their crimes deserve. Such occurrences are becoming too common. It is certainly the duty of all order loving men to unite, in order to prevent such scenes in the future.

WELL PUT.—On the occasion of the National Fair, the Rev. Dr. Robinson, of the Theological Seminary, preached in the Central Presbyterian Church of Rochester, N. Y., and very pertinently asked:

What man can write his will and say, this goes down to my posterity, that I helped to arrest this war before its work is done? I should be ashamed to have it said of me, that for property or any other selfish consideration, I proved false to the issues of this Civil War of 1864. We are not exhausted. We can not be exhausted, even if it is carried down to the next generation. And we ought to carry it to the next generation, rather than abandon it before its work is done.

A handsome young lady being asked if she ever gave a kiss, replied, "No, but I have often had one stolen."

Personal and News Items.
—It is understood that Gen. Grant has ordered General Sheridan and General Wright to attack Early at once, and to fight the rebels where ever they are to be found.

REBEL TRAIN.—A rebel train of twenty-five or thirty wagons loaded with grain, was captured by our forces near Aldie Gap, in Virginia on Sunday. No prisoners were taken.

GENERAL GRANT AND STAFF have returned to the army of the Potomac on a visit to the Upper Potomac. Latest reports from the Shenandoah Valley represent the rebels in force south of Winchester, and it is thought we shall have an engagement with them in that vicinity.

A telegram from Buffalo states that rumors are rife in that city that the rebels and sympathizers in Canada are about to make a raid on that city. It is said that the Government is informed of it.

A Convention of the different Christian denominations is called to meet in West Alexander, Washington County, on the 25th inst., at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of discussing the following proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States, viz:

1. The explicit recognition of the being of God.
2. The mediatorial supremacy of the Lord Jesus Christ.
3. The supreme authority of the divine law.
4. To make the Constitution more explicitly anti-slavery.

Major General Wallace, lately in command of the Middle Department, is ordered to resume command of the Eighth army corps, and other troops serving with the department from which he was temporarily relieved. The troops of Maj. General Hunter's command, temporarily assigned to the forces under Major Gen. Wright, have been relieved from that assignment. At last accounts General Wright's command was at Leesboro, Maryland.

Dan Voorhes removed his law office in Terre Haute, a few days ago, and in doing so left behind a package of pamphlets which are now in the hands of the Provost Marshal. On examination they were found to be fifteen hundred copies of the Yellow Book, containing the second and third degrees of the ritual of the Sons of Liberty, done up in an unopened express package.

The Union officers recently exchanged at Charleston have arrived at Fortress Monroe. They report that Gen. Foster says he will take Charleston within two months. Prisoners of war confined in the interior of Georgia are being removed to Charleston, as the rebels don't consider them safe in their late prisons. Six hundred officers arrived on the 3d.

Speaking of the burning of Chambersburg, the New York Tribune thus disposes of a Copperhead falsehood: "The Copperhead has burned towns under similar circumstances simply because there is no other word that does them justice. No Union General ever ordered the firing of a city or borough where he had encountered no resistance; though Quantrell not only burned Lawrence, which was surprised and lay at his mercy, but called most of its unarmed male citizens out of their beds and butchered them in cold blood."

General Kilpatrick has recovered from his wound that he was enabled to resume his command in the Army of the Cumberland a few days ago.

The New York Herald suggests that Admiral Farragut's recent movement is probably designed not so much for the capture of Mobile as it is to obtain for the Union a base of operations on the Gulf coast, so that the harbor can be effectually blockaded, and at the same time to relieve the large Union fleet now off that place, who are hourly threatened with an attack from the rebel iron clads lying under the guns of Fort Morgan.
