Significant was a strong a reason of the property of the company o mer to serve but six years except it of the proposed by the Asperian by the Aspersary of the A an article from the Knoxville Whig, ac- and if possible relieve their "southern Marshals beware!"

"Let the tyrants tremble when the people speak."

"Usurpation unrebuked is despotism "Crush the tyrant Lincoln before herushes you."

"Erush to tyrant Lincoln before herushes you."

"End Satte was an accomplished fact; that he was an accomplished fact; that he had no authority to receive proposals for "This is a niggar war."

"We will not be conscripted in a for the emancipation of Slavery."

"Humility commands that this butchery shall cease."

"Lineoln has murdered three white men to free one negro."

and there can be little doubt as to whom that choice will be. How cheering to the Grant and Sherman, nor a single word as to the doings of Farragut! All this is significant, and shows that our neighbor of the Herald is not alone when he assignificant, and shows that our neighbor of the Herald is not alone when he assignificant, and shows that our neighbor of the Herald is not alone when he assignificant, and shows that our neighbor of the Herald is not alone when he satisfied to the doings of Farragut! All this is significant, and shows that our neighbor of the Herald is not alone when he assignificant and Sherman, nor a single word as to the doings of Farragut! All this is significant, and shows that our neighbor of the Herald is not alone when he assignificant, and shows that our neighbor of the Herald is not alone when he assignificant, and shows that our neighbor of the Herald is not alone when he assignificant, and shows that our neighbor of the Herald is not alone when he assignificant, and shows that our neighbor of the Herald is not alone when he assignificant, and shows that our neighbor of the Herald is not alone when he assignificant and Sherman, nor a single word as to the doings of Farragut! All this is significant, and shows that our neighbor of the doings of t beginning of the end that will soon be realized in the case of all those rebellious

Again, it is worthy of note, that they care-the coming Presidential canvass.—

Is the unimatum of the Riemmond cials. It is well to bear this in mind the coming Presidential canvass.—

are free to say that these gentlemen are deserves at least a passing notice. all good citizens—we trust therefore, that the canvass will be managed in such a that if the next election went against way as to avoid personalities. Personally them, that then they would take the matwe wish these gentlemen well—of course, while they stand associated with a party | World too has intimated that such a ne

A Card.

exercised as to the sub-district to which to be designated by him between this and both he and I belong. I was origin-the fourth of March next! Upon the ally enrolled in Penn township, where I then resided. But having moved to Button are worthy of examination by every er this spring, I desired to have my loyal man; as they show most conclusive ler this spring, I desired to have my name transfered to this place, and so informed Mr. Kennedy, the enroller for Penn.

I a ldres ed a note to the Prov. Mar. informing him that I had changed my residence, and therefore desired my enrollment to be changed accordingly. I was afterwards informed that the transfer was made, and thereupon paid over to Esquire Purvis, what was said to be my share of the bounty fund. I have not heard from this matter in the sine. The nave already manifest with the file winds and barbarous contact of the rebels is understood, and since the murderous and barbarous contact of the rebels is understood, and since the file with the file with the matter of the rebels is understood, and since the murderous and barbarous contact of the rebels is understood, and since the murderous that the began that

This Convention brought together a notely crew, and might well be said to have been "A spectacle of comical oddities, Things that had never been neighbors before."

The Seymours, the Munts, the ombs, the Longs, the Valandighams, the Powells etc., a gathering of old fossilsof all shates and opinions, brought together by an unyielding thurst for public plunder—a desire to thwart the efforts of the Government in suppressing rebellion, Little Mac to oblivion.

The platform is one of the most tame surrenders to treason possible to conceive out of the power of the Confederate Gov-

The campaign is now fairly open-the repel States! and also that they were The opposition met on Monday in careful to take their entire ticket from the this place, and put a county ticket in nomination. For Assembly, they nominated J. B. Wallace, of Penn, and J. T. Bard, Notwithstanding the fact that our victoriof Centreville. For Commissioner, Andrew Barclay, of Middlesex, and for Auditor, Wm. J. Graham, of Forward. We cant; but there is another matter which whose success we believe would be productive only of evil to our country, we cannot have any sympathy with them pofered by Mr. Wickliff, of Kentucky, and passed unanimously by the Convention, to the effect that the Convention shall re-A Card.

The editor of the Herald seems quite Chairman, to meet at any time and place,

"The certible outery against arming negative and the transfer was made, and the recognition of the control of t curing a full representation in said pro-posed convention.

W. G. Brownlow, Horace Maynard, John A. Campbell, orace H. Harrison, W. P. Jones, M. M. Brien, J. B. Bing-ham, J. M. Tomeny, W. H. Fitch, Jr.

The Rebel Account of Edimund, Karke's Visit to Richmond, Ludah P. Benjum, "Sengtary of Judah P. Benjamin, "Secretary of State of the Southern Confederacy," has written a letter to James M. Mason, Com-missioner to the Continent, &c.—which means itinerent diplomat—in reference to the Kirke-Gilmore mission to Richmond. compassion spare our guilty land?

Let us return to the Lord and he will bind us up. Amen.

OUTRAGEOUS SUPPRESSION OF Free Specific.—The following motitoes were inscribed on banners at the "Peace" meeting at Syracuse on the 18th inst:

"No more victims for the slaughter pen—not a man nor a dellar."

"If Seward touches his bells again the people will stretch his neek."

"Abe Lincoln slaughters white men under the pretence of freeing niggars."

"The people are ready to take vengeance on the advocates of civil war."

"Let us return to the Lord and he will bind us up. Amen.

"Let us return to the Lord and he will bind us up. Amen.

"Sometings being held at different places throughout the State, in the interests of the Union and Emanoipation.

"How strange it is to observe that while these patriotic movements are going on for Union and permanent-peace in some of the rebel States, that a party is being organized in the North whose object is to make the preference of freeing niggars."

"The people are ready to take vengeance on the advocates of civil war."

"Let us return to the Lord and he will bind us up. Amen.

"Lord and he will bind us up. Amen.

"Let us return to the Lord and he will bind us up. Amen.

"We have not space, at present, to notice the doings of this Convention at length ——indeed it was quite a tame affair.—

McClellan and Pendleton are the nominemes—the latter is a known trailor of the Valandigham stripe; and the fact that his prefect acquiescence was given by that the Rebel leaders have changed their opinions and are willing on any terms to return to the doings of this Convention at length ——indeed it was quite a tame affair.—

McClellan and Pendleton are the nominemes—the latter is a known trailor of the Valandigham stripe; and the fact that his nomination, as also the fact prethren" from the crushing blow now be- Mr. Benjamin's account of the in cials. It is well to bear this in mind in