

THE AMERICAN CITIZEN.

Butler, Pa., Wednesday, Dec. 7 1864

Court is in session, with a full Bench. Nothing of general interest has transpired. The celebrated Lowry case is still (Tuesday evening), undisposed of.

There is no general movement of Grant's forces, although one is daily expected. Sherman is making good his move to the seaboard, inflicting serious damage on the enemy as he passes through Georgia.

Watches and Jewellery.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that T. & H. Ganahan, of 716 Broadway, New York, offers to all who are desirous of purchasing articles in their line, an assortment of Watches and Jewellery, at very low prices.

BURNED.—On Saturday night 26th of November, 1864, a portion of the Rough Run Furnace, the property of Hon. Wm. Stewart, was destroyed by fire, the engine house and coal bridge. We are not informed as to the amount of damage, but learn that it is considerable. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

In to-day's paper will be found a written communication from Captain Kirker, in reference to correcting enrollments, which we trust will receive the prompt attention of all concerned. Now is the time for corrections to be made and then should a draft come, equal justice will fall upon all.

Enrollment of the 23d District. The following are the numbers of men on the several rolls of the 23d district, subject to draft, as officially reported on the 30th of November, 1864:

It is very desirable that these rolls should be still further purged and corrected, by striking from them the names of men now in service; of men who have already served two years or upwards; of men over forty-five years of age; of those manifestly or permanently disabled; of aliens; and of men who died since the enrollment was made, and also by the addition of the names of young men who have arrived at the age of twenty years, and of any others whose names ought to be enrolled.

To prove allegiance requires the affidavit of the party, in proper person, supported by the oath of two subscribing witnesses, who must be citizens.

To prove age requires the formal affidavit of the party, corroborated by the oath of two subscribing witnesses, together with the best testimony the party can produce. The best is a regular family record, which ought always to be brought, or a copy of it, certified by a magistrate, endorsed on the affidavit. The next best is the oath of one or both parents, who, if living, ought to be the subscribing witnesses. Then the testimony of older brothers or sisters, and so on, being the best that can be offered.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, December 1, 1864, S. E. M.

Lieutenant General Grant:

I have just heard from Gen. Gregg. His dispatch is dated 3:45 p. m. He reports having captured Stony Creek Station, which was defended by infantry and cavalry, in works with artillery. He captured two pieces of artillery, but had no means of bringing them off, so he spiked them and destroyed the carriages. He had one hundred and ninety prisoners and eight wagons and thirty mules. He burned the depot with 3,000 sacks of corn, and a large amount of bacon, clothing, ammunition and other government stores, and destroyed all shops and public buildings. The second brigade, Gen. Gregg commanding, had the advance and is reported to have most gallantly carried the enemy's position. Gen. Gregg is now returning to camp. No information could be obtained of any troops passing southward, either cavalry or infantry. The bed of the branch road from Stony Creek was seen to be graded, but no rails were laid. At Dunals Station, south of Stony Creek, much property was destroyed and a large amount of railroad iron found. An effort was being made to destroy it by fire, when the staff officer who brought the dispatch left. The enemy showed signs of having concentrated, and were following, but the officer thinks Gen. Gregg will be in camp by midnight.

The World has made a very bitter and unnecessary attack on New England, denying her originality in politics, literature, science and art; and arguing that American greatness owes little to her influence. It might be courteous but it would be superfluous for Pennsylvania journalists to take up the defence of this great section, and we leave the World to the mercy of Boston. We may note, however, two of its mistakes. Fenimore Cooper and Robert Fulton are claimed by it as New Yorkers, but the first was a son of Judge Cooper, a Pennsylvanian, and was born in Burlington, N. J.; the second was a native of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania.—Phila. Press.

It is a rather significant fact that the only prominent hotel in the city of New York that was not attempted to be fired on Friday last, was the New York Hotel, the general rendezvous and the hot-bed of the accessories of this city.

Arrival and Departure of Mails. The mail from Butler to East Shady, by way of Halls Creek, Conoverville, Anandale, Martinsville, and Clintonville, 20 miles; leaves Butler on Monday and Friday of each week, at 10 o'clock, a. m.; returns Butler on Tuesday and Saturday of each week, at 10 o'clock, p. m.

MARRIED. On the 1st inst., by Rev. Wm. A. Black, at his residence, near North Washington, Mr. WILLIAM SLOAN, late of this city, to Miss SARAH J. GIBSON, daughter of Mr. Charles Heckshorn, of Washington, D. C., D. C., Pa.

Special Notices. To Consumptives. CONSUMPTIVES will receive a valuable prescription for the cure of Consumption, Asthma, Emphysema, and all throat and lung affections, (free of charge), by sending their names to REV. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings co., New York.

Sherman's Advance. The reports of Sherman's progress in to the heart of the South, are from rebel sources, but highly satisfactory. Nothing is disclosed that can be kept back. Of the capture of Macon and Milledgeville, there is scarcely a doubt. The great consternation prevails throughout the South, is entirely certain. It is evident from the proceedings in the Rebel Congress that the rebellion totters on the brink of destruction from internal dissensions. Vice President Stevens and Gen. Brown, of Georgia, are causing scarcely less trouble than Sherman. While there are no adequate means for resisting the progress of the latter, the former are openly denounced for conspiring to overthrow the Davis dynasty. There is a report, lacking confirmation, however, that Georgia and Alabama have signified the wish to return to the Union, and that Sherman has halted in consequence.—While there may be some ground for the former, the latter part of the report is quite improvable. It is not necessary to establish the entire accuracy of even a small part of the reports the Rebels have sent up to us, to make it manifest that the Confederacy is convulsed as it never has been before.

For the next week or ten days she only news from Sherman will be through Rebel sources. Never did a general undertake a task so stupendous as that on which he has entered. Just enough is known of his progress to cause further reports to be awaited with thrilling, not painful, interest.—Phila. Com.

The New York Tribune.

NOTWITHSTANDING the enormous increased expenses attending the publication of this TRIBUNE, occasioned by the employment of numerous army correspondents and other liberal expenditures, we have advanced in the price of paper for the Tribune, but to continue to furnish them at $2 and $3, respectively, per annum; being the same prices which were established two years ago, and which, we are confident, are the lowest rates for a paper of this size and quality. We are, therefore, to be distinctly understood that the Tribune is not to be sold at a lower price than the above rates, and no other alterations or abatements will be made in any case whatever.
