

Butler, Pa., Wednesday, Dec. 14 1864

Our Foreman has received a letter from Eli S. Flegler, which says: "I must tell you that we have lost one of our brave boys, Henry M. Miller—he was killed at the battle of Stony Creek—was killed almost instantly, on Dec. 1st inst."

We would invite the attention of the public to the card of our friends Ash and Graham, who have established themselves in Oil City—falling in with the great current which has been running Northward, they have gravitated to the very centre of Olddom.

The 103d Penna. Regiment. Just as we were going to press, we received a letter from Camp Parole, at Annapolis, Maryland, written by J. P. Wilson, of Co. A, giving a list of those who have died in the prisons of the South, during the last summer, of the 103d Regiment, Pa. Volunteers.

A Great Mail Robbery. About the first of November, a through mail from Galesburg, Illinois, was dispatched for Chicago on the regular night train from the former to the latter place, on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad.

We had the following in a Richmond paper of the 7th: "It may not be known to the higher officials, but it is nevertheless true, that the soldiers are suffering for bread. The ration of meat, rice, &c. is sufficient, but from some cause the issue of meal or flour is too small. One pound of corn meal is not enough for a hearty man, and we don't get that much every day. Whose fault is it? Do we eat bread enough?"

For the Citizen: Wee to Maximilian!

Screaming lead from Spain to peak, Use Maximilian as a call! Goo, goo to Maximilian! To Maximilian's hall!

Up in your mit and majesty! I'll back all Kingly power! Who'd sell their marriage treaty! By this free land of ours!

To plant the seeds of vengeance deep, And struggle with a gall, A throne for Maximilian, In Montezuma's hall.

Let freedom be'er be crushed to earth By British or by French, More than you would by Rebel fiends! We'll sell their marriage treaty!

Join with the worthy Liberals; Aid them to overthrow, From their throne, the King of France, In their free Mexico.

Stretch forth your hand with willing heart, We'll date the day of our fall— To drive Maximilian, In Montezuma's hall.

With arms he likes their fight, When trouble becometh real, While against us Boreo Apollon hurled, Our arms shall be our shield.

Ne'er shall your valiant blades again, Be stained by Rebel's hand, To smother the goodly blood, In Montezuma's hall.
