ecial Dispatch to Pittsburgh Great Fire in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 8. A terrible fire broke out in this city at A terrible fire bloke out in this city at two o'clock this morning, equal in extent and destruction to the great fire of 1850. It occurred at the corner of Ninth and Washington streets, where Blackburn & Co, had three thousand barrels of oil stored on an adjoining lot. On another corner was the coal yard of Bailey & Por ner was the coal yard of Dancy a For-ter. It was the most inclement night of the season, and the fire department work-ed with every conceivable disadvantage. Th oil was a vast sheet of flame in ten minutes, and the blaze that escaped from it poured over into Ninth street and down Ninth to Federal, igniting houses on both sides for two squares on Ninth street, and burning also the houses on Washington, Worth and Federal streets, above and below Ninth street. The scene was frightful. Men, women and children were burned alive in escaping from burng dwellings.

The oil was in bond to the United States. It was all refined oil which belonged to Richardsen, Harley and Co., Dilworth & Ewing, and other parties Icses upon it about seventy thousand, while it is fully covered by insurance. It is believed that the fire was the work of an incendiary. Fire Marshal Blackburn incendiary. Fire Marshal Blackbur will give the matter a searching investi-gation. The misery and poverty which gation. The misery and poverty which the fire will occasion cannot be estimated. The persons whose houses were burned were mostly poor people, and there is now an active movement among our merchants to extend relief to the sufferers.

The Coroner's jury was summoned this afternoon but will hold no meeting till to-morrow. They visited the Second Disstrict Station house, old Southwark Hall, strict Station house, old Southwark Hiffl, where lay in a heap the charred remains of four human beings. It was utterly impossible to identify them so badly were they burned. One appeared to be the body of a man, one a child and the other three adult females. The following are missing: Mrs. Barbara Ware aged forty-Venango; Samuel M. Moore, Washington; John Young, Winfield; John Bennet, Worth; M. W. Spear, boro. Butler; Josiah M'Michael, Millerstown; Absalom Shanor, Prospect; Jonathan Mayberry; Centreville; Geo. Beam, Harmony.

SECOND WEEK.

Wars, Rarbara Ware aged 23 years, Emma Ware, aged 20 years, Rebecca Ware, aged 16 years, Helen Ware, aged 13 years, Isabella Ware aged four years, Albert Ware aged 17, and Clayton Ware aged ten years, were shockingly burned, but were rescued. They were thought to be driven better as in Second Ware aged ten years, were shockingly burned, but were rescued. They were thought to be dying last evening. Four of the char-red bodies at the second district station were probably Mrs. Ware and three of her daughters. The other two daughters are probably under some of the ru-

'There is a strong feeling in the city against the further allowance of the stoage of coal oil within the city limits, so many fires having recently occurred thro' its instrumentality, and it is likely that the City Council will take action on the matter at an early day.
