THE AMERICAN CITIZEN. Butler, Pa., Wednesday, June 28, 1865

Claim Agent,

THE undersigned would respectfully notify the pub CLAIM AGENT, for scenning Bounty Money, Arrears of Pay and Pen-rions, for soldiers, or if they are dead, for their legal representatives. No charge will be made for prosenting the claims of soldiers, or their representatives until the mem are collected. Butler, June 27, 1865.

SOLDIERS CELEBRATION .- On Friday June 30th inst., there will be a Grand Soldiers Celebration in the Grove near Uniopville. It is also said that the celebrated Educated Horse Sir Henry, will be there the same day on exhibition.

The "Citizen."

According to established practice and custom, our hands intend to celebrate the glorious 4th of July, and ot necessity there will, therefore, be no issue of the "CITIZEN" next week.

To OUR READERS .- No doubt each of you if spared, intend to celebrate the 4th of July 1865. It is right, just and proper, that this day should be properly observed. It is the day which, in effect gave birth to our independence as a nation, and can therefore never die in the memory of the American people. In celebrating this day, we should be careful not to engage in anything that is wrong or injurious. In a word,-we should conduct ourselves, soberly, honorably, uprightly and manfully ; and thus honor the day we celebrate.

Coming.

Prof. Hamilton & Co. will exhibit the wonderful Horse, Sir Henry, at the following places during the present week.

Clintonville, Monday June 26th. Me chanicsville, Tuesday, June 27th, Harrisville, Wednesday June 28th. Sunbury Thursday, June 29th : Unionville, Friday June 36th Emlington, Saturday July 1st

We feel free in saying to the public as far as we have heard an expression upon the subject that the performances of this celebrated Horse, are unsurpassed by any that has ever been on exhibition in this country ; you should go and see him for vourself.

inculcation and practice of the same, should be sufficient to stimulate to action every mother and daughter in our land. Obedience, truth and trust in God-what noble ideas-what heaven born principles ;- Mothers, labor diligently to inculcate the same in the rising generation, that they may be a blessing to themselves an honor to you; and that the world may be the better from the fact that they have acted their part well while on earth ; and

Quite a number of anonymous articles and communications have been received at this office, with the request to publish the same and oblige somebody or some body else. We have heretofore notified all persons who may desire to have their prose compositions and poetical effusions find a place in the columns of the JITI-ZEN, that they must invariably be accompanied with the name or names of the contributors. This condition is absolute, and no composition will hereafter re ceive attention or be published, unless this condition is complied with.

We intend our paper to be emphatically what it proposes to be a news paper .--

EMANCIPATION.

EMANCHPATION. ⁴ The slaves are not the only women whom the war has emancipated !' was the remark of one of those women who have thrown themselves vitally into their country's service, and done on battle-field and in the hospital as faithful work as the soldier who has thrust himself into the breach, and fought at the front: women who have watched over the sick, and nursed the wounded, and dressed naisome sures, and shrank from no burint inset the women, and shrank from no bur-lens, nor ministrations, however hard or evolting; women who have gone home from the camp and the hospital to tell the soldiers' story in their own way, and to organize societies, and stimulate fairs. and to direct all spasmodic and uninfor ned activities into orderly and available med activities into orderly and available channels of relief and succor. "There has been an emancipation," said this woman, "from fashion and fri-volity, from luxurious drawing-rooms, from lives of indolence, and pleasure, and self-seeking, from petimess and weak-mers into activity and groupsite into sourseit. The Every man, woman and child in-to whose hands this number of the CITI-ZEN comes, should read the article enti-thed "Emancipation;" written for "Ar-thed "Emancipation;" written for "Ar-thur's Home Magazine." Mothers and daughters especially, should not fail to read it. The great moral truths and principles at which it aims, and the in-estimable blessings that would follow the inculcation and practice of the same-
