

midsummer days, by yellow fields wher men were reaping the autumn harvests, orchards where merry boys were gathering in the apples; through the deep snows of winter, when other travelers were daunted and turned back to comfortable inns to wait for better roads; still, with his pack on his back, and with that sad but watchful look on his face, he journeyed on. Three years ago, Giles was not a peddler, but a shopkeeper, in a little town in New England; and one warm summe evening, as he sat with his child on hi kneed at the door of his shop, and tho't how like her blue eyes and golden curls were to those other blue eyes and goldan curls that were hidden from his sight for over under the churchyard sod, and tho't, too, how he must be a father and mothe to the little one now, a customer entered the shop. Giles sat the child down, and went to attend to the wants of the comer; and, presently, when he returned, the child was gone ! Giles called and searched ; then the neighbors were roused, and the whole village was searched ; next day the country around was alarmed; then came advertisements in the papers far and near; and Giles, well nigh beside himself in his agony, traveled hither and thither, wherever some vague rumor told him of a possibility of finding traces of his darling; then, the excitement dying away, Giles was left alone in his distress. He was restless; he felt he must be doing something. "There are many places that the pa pers seldom or never reach," said he ; " I will sell out my store" (it had never been opened since that fearful night); " I will take a pack on my back, and travel thro' ways and secret pooks, and try, and the by trust in God.

It seemed a wild nudertaking; in such an immense extent of country what could one man do? Besides, the child might have been carried off to another country But the effort was a relief to Giles, fo so long as we can do anything for the sake of our lost ones-lost to us either by absence or death-so long we seem not wholly separated from them. And so it was that, for three long years Giles had plodded wearily along-three years had done the work of thirty on him. wrinkling his smooth forchead, and sprink ling silver on his hair; and so it was that one stormy winter night found him seated before the fire of a little inn far up among the mountains. It was a place fre quented by travelers in the summer sea son, but deserted as soon as the snows be gan to fall, and as effectually cut off from all human society as an island far out i the ocean.

Giles had finished his story-the story of his loss and of his wanderings. "Ah, well, man," said the host, after pause; "we must all have our troubles Your child is lost, and just before you came in, comes the poor old woman that lives down the lane and tells me her child is sick to dying, and no doctor short of twolvo miles . and twolvo miles is no het ter than fifty, so far as getting him to night goes."

"Did some one go for him ?" asked Giles.

"Oh," said the host, in amazement "did some one want to be eaten alive by the wolves, or buried alive in the drifts? No; nobody in my house."

"Then, with God's help, I will go," cried Giles, starting up.

"Are you out of your mind, man ?" re-desolate mother watching alone by her dying child, and he thought where might ter in which several secessionists we his own child be; and with a prayer to punished for abusing Union men : ur Father in heaven, he pladded brave-Yesterday afternoon, shortly after the guests of the Pulaski House had partaken ly on.

The twolve miles were accomplished. of the three o'clock dinner, the usual quiet and order of that great public carathe doctor was found, horses were sad dled, and it was bright morning before ansary was suddenly disturbed. We deem it our duty to make public a truththe two reached the little inn up in the ountains, much to the astonishment of ful statement, which may prove instruct he host, who, shaking the doctor and tive to a certain class of disloyal person peddler each by the hand, declaring they and teach them to keep treason and in sult between their lips when in the pres ere two heroes, and, then, directing the to the poor old woman's abode, promised them a capital break fast on their return. ence of loyal men, whether officers or ci vilians. Within the last six weeks con " But, good sir," he called to the pediderable open insolence has I ceu mani ller, "why not stay here !" I'll warrant fested in the public places of our city to ward persons who believe in the United the doctor will find the house alone." "I always go everywhere," returned the States Government, and are willing to eddler, in a quiet, despondent tone, that stand by it at all hazards. It is almost xpressed his passing thought : So far all impossible of late for a Unionist to fre n vain, why then further? quent a public place without receiving an "Thank this good man for saving your insult, and plain talk is required in order ittle girl's life; two hours later would to convince the thousands of secret ene have been too late," said the doctor, as mies of the United States Governmen

he came out of the little patient's room ow living in security and prace under and stood with Giles and the old woman its flag in this city, that the day has pass by the stove. ed when any kind of insult can be offer-I want no thanks," the peddler replied ed to the American flag, or these who up

I know what it is to lose a child. How old it. The vestibule and stairways of the Pu old is yours ?" "Seven or eight, I should say; sh laski House, yesterday afternoon, resound annot tell her rge," answered the old we ed with exclamations too vile for insertion man. n the columns of a respectable newspaper

" Can you not tell the age of your own These words proceeded from a gang o child, woman ?" said the doctor, testily. "Good sir' it is not really mine, though lond-monthed secessionists who were musing themselves, delighting their lis God knows I love her as mine," the we ening friends and revealing their chivalnan answered. "Twas a poor little wee ty by applying insulting epithets to the thing—some tramps left it here, and I believe they stole it; it was sick near to dying; so, not to be burthened with it, they left it at my door one night, and the poor wea darling field (I). poor wee darling cried. (It was two erner being able to clean out five Yan ears ago I had buried my old man.) kees." At this time a small, delicate heard it cry and I took it in. "The good looking officer, of the rank of captain in God has sent me something to care for, the army, politely stepped up to the tur ays I; and I cried as much as the child. bulent crowd and quietly informed then that he could not stand quietly by and You are sure she will get well now do or ?? " hear such language, and unless it was stopped, he should be under the necessity "Sure," replied the doetor ; but dur ing the woman's account the peddler had of taking steps to prevent it. The re proof was not received in the right spirit istened like one in a dream, trembling but was resented as an invasion of the violently. "Show me the child," said he rights of free speech. This interference The strangeness of his voice startled them. rights of free speech. This interference with a crowd of mon who were enjoying down speechless! The fathers heart happiness by denouncing the Union, wa had borne so much disappointment and stand, and he forthwith prepared to "de agony, the first shock of joy overpowmand his rights," vi et armis. The hon ered it. or of dealing the first blow at the Union

The happiness of the father in finding his child, the joy of the poor woman in officer, we believe, was conceded to Mr. Howell, Jeff. Davis' brother-in-law, but sceing herself the cause of so much joy, the interest the kind doctor took in them, in less time than we can write it, the offi cer had "demolished" his rebel antago must be imagined, not described; and this was the end of the peddler's jour nist, in spite of the united efforts of three of his confreres to help the falling con federate. Blows came fast and indiscrim He hired a little store in the villag where the doctor lived, and stocked it nately from the little Yankee. With eruised head and eyes all sore, and nasal well; he prospered in his business, and organs full of gore, the rebel lay upon the provided generously for the old woman. loor, and was soon afterward taken to the "You must come and spend the rest floor, and was soon afterward taken to the of your days with us," said he : " and the lock-up. His three friends made good their escape. An insult to Union men was offered in ittle darling must ca l you grandma."" He never afterward neglected an oppo he gentleman's ordinary at the Pulaski unity of doing a kindness to any human House, not long since, where a Western being; and he never spoke of the past fficer whipped an insolent rebel soundly vithout raising hio eyes reverently heaven, and saying : "That fearful night when I walked but we refrained from making it public at the request of the proprietors, who fel those twelve miles, I thought it was to save a stranger child. God be blessed, i was my own !

Too Sharp all Round, order that the people of the North may An earthenware dealer at Lille, finding gain some fruitful knowledge of the real himself going to the bad, determined to animus of a very large and dangerous swindle his creditors, and go abroad with the money he might amass. He let his ass of reb now in our m wife and clerk into the secret, and told hem to sell clandestinely all the goods in the shop; this done, he was to send a telgram to his wife announcing his death n a duel at Belgium : thereupon she was -A wise drink-sage tea. -A grave sin-Writing a lyinge p aph.

> -Boston has a population of about wo hundred thousand

-It is dreadful easy to be a foolan can be one and not know it. -England, like Japan, worships yel heir meditations:

Martin Van Buren, a Democrat.

Jol nson, a good Democrat.

usetts? The Democratic Party.

yning $250 in New York to becc

Democracy.

eratic Party.

arty.

Party.

-The daily product of oil at Pithole estimated at 2,750 barrels. -An impudent newspaper writer de mates doctors as gentlemen of the turf--A kind of angling that does not alvays take-Fishing for compliments. -A woman's tears often softens a man heart. Her flatteries softens his head.

-A schoolmaster, like a hone, sharpe number of blades, but wears out by the

-Peaches are selling in Delaward ready for transportation, at $1 per bas -Epitaphs are like circus bills ; ther

President of the United States. The s a great deal more in the bills than Democratic Party. ever performed. A Fenian "Circle" has been organ State of Maine? The Democratic Party. Who-enacted a similar law in Massa-ized in Harrisburg. It has sixty mem ers -New fashioned Unionism, in South Carolina is said to be very like the old rticle of Secession -It is human to err. but awfully in onvenient. Forgiveness is divine, and that accounts for its searcity. -At one of the grand balls in London eratic his season, three hundred ladies appeared without crinolin rity before settling in that State? The -A young lady poured Kerosene Demogratic Party. er fire in Chicago, to hurry it, and was Who made mulattoes legal voters in roasted to a crisp in cousequence.

-For every vice or virtue a man exnibits, he generally gets credit or discred it for a whole brood

-Real happiness does not consist three times and he is still a leader of the uch in what a man don't have as i Democratic Party. Who helped to give free negroes the what he dont want. -It is whispered that the girls have ight to vote in Tennesce, under her Con changed the pronunciation of the word itution of 1796? General Jackson. petticoats to Jefficoats. Was General Jackson a good .Dem -A man in Chicago gut his throat rat ? He generally passed as such. Who, with the above facts, and man ast week, because, as he said, a man who had recently digd owed him $700, and thers. staring them in the face, are con nese than Mrs. Jeff. Davis' brother could he wanted to go after it. tinually whiping about 'negro suffrage' and negro equality? The Democratic -Lucy Stone says, "The cradle is Party. All these things were done by Den roman's ballot-box." Then we have known some illegal voting where two bal crats, and yet they deny being in favor lots were deposited at a time. of negro equality, and charge it upon the -A preacher remarked the other day

Republicans-just like the thief who that the women of the present time are eries "stop thief" the loudest! generally a shiftless set. How did the PAYSIOLOGICAL PHENOMENON. ascal know that? Among the soldiers who have just re-

-If running after the women be a sin t is one that is very easily checked, All that is necessary is for the women to running away from the men. -A hypocritical scoundrel in Athe ascribed over his door, "Let no evil enter here." Diogenes wrote under it "How does the owner get in?"

will find fully one-half of its members to be of the black haired, dark-skined -An editor of a city paper, remov "An entire of a city paper, removed in the ark and any set in the set of the black haired, dark-skined and the transcendent joy of living in so charming a locality, and raising your own vegetables, and laying your own and you will find that the black-haired element has melted away, leaving a eggs.

-The following verse commemorate the most uncon non misfortune of a very hungry urchin.

"There was a small bey at Pantucket, He bought him an orange to sick it; He had a loug nose, And as you may suppore, Into the orange he stuck it."

--- A lover, vainly trying to explain men from the agricultural districts. ome scientific theory to his fair inamorathin, pale-looking dry goods clerk will do more marching and starving than many Suppose yon pop it," whispered sweet the benefit of the truths which the Fath Greene to Count Pulaski, a noble Poland ers of the Republic declarged concerning er, who took a prominent part in our all men. The same men usually have struggle for freedom. He was quartered much to say respectivg the principles of in a neat farm house near the upper forts. After our business was finished the Count the Democratic Party, and profess themasked me to take some refreshments, an selves the only true followers of Thoma Jefferson and Andrew Jackson. The folat the same time called outlowing catechism is a good subject for " Mary, my lass, Mary!"

In an instant a rosy checked girl en Who said that all men are created tered, her face beaming with joy, it would equal? Thomas Jefferson, the Father of seem, at the very sound of Pulaski's

" Did you call me, Count?" said the Who gave the negro the right of sufrage in New York ? The Democratic maiden timidly. "How often have I told you little love. Who presided over the Convention he said, bending his tall form to kiss her which gave this privilege to the negroes ? cheek ; "not to call me Count ; call me dear Pulaski. This is a Republic, my Who afterwards elected Martin Van little favorite ; we have no Counts, you Buren to the Presidency ? The Demo know." "But you are a Count, sir, when at Who married a negro woman, and by home, and they say you came a long way over the ocean to fight for us." her had mulatto children ? Richard M

"Yes, Mary, very true-I did com Why elected Richard M. Johnson Vice long way-the reason was I had to com Now, can you get for this gentleman and myself a little refreshment? He has a Who made the negro a citizen of the long way to ride to-night." "Certainly, sir," and she went out of the room like a fairy. "Fine, pleasant girl," said Pulaski;

Who gave the negro the right to vote would that I had the wealth that I once n New Hampshire? The Democratics had! I would give her a portion that would send half the youth hereabouts af-Who permitted every colored perso ter her sweet face"

On the morning of the 11th of Septem oter,? A General Assambly, purely Dember, 1777, the British army advanced in full force to Chadd's Ferd, for the pur-Who repealed the laws of Ohio which pose of crossing Brandywine Creek and quired negroes to give bonds and secuoringing on an action with Washington Sir William Howe drove Maxwell's division across the creek by ten o'clock at one of the lower fords.

Ohio? A Democratic Supreme Court, of which Reuben Wood was chief Justice. The Hessian Goneral Knypbauser with a large force, advanced upon the What became of Reuben Wood ? The creek, and uniting with Lord Cornwallis, mocratic Party elected him Governor who commanded the left wing of the army, crossed at the upper ford of the river an creek. It so happened that during the conflict, when carrying orders. I passed immediately in the direction of Pulaski's quarters, that I had visited the night be ore. Suddenly a sheet of flames burst forth; the house was on fire. Near the door-steps lay the body of Mary her head cut open by a sabre, and her brains oozing out of the terrible wound. T had been there but half a minute, when General Pulaski at the head of a troop of cavalry galloped rapidly to the he Never shall I forget the expression on his face, as he should like a demon on seeing the animated form of Mary :---Who did this ?" A little boy, who had not been before noticed, lying on the grass with his leg dreadfully mangled, replied ; turned from the field, there is a physic " There they go !"

logical phenomenon observable which is some what at variance with usual theories He pointed to a company of Hessian then some distance off. It is that light-haired men, of the nerv-

" RIGHT-WHEEL-MEN, charge! ous sanguine type, stand campaigning And they did CHARGE. I do not think bottor than the dark-haired men, of bilthat one man of that Hessian corps eye ious temperament. Look through a raw left the field except to be placed in th regiment, on its way to the field, and you rave

The last of Pulaski was on the battle round of Brandywine. He and his weet Mary fell on the same field.

ant having cea

-The New Orleans Picayune says A prominent politician, of a very radical least, two thirds, perhaps three-fourths persuation, from this city, recently visiof the regiment to be represented by red, ted Washington and waited on President brown and flaxen hair. It is also no-Johnson. Afted the exchange of the ticad that men from the cities, slighter customary courtesics, our citizen asked in yhysique and apparently, at outset, unable to endure fatigue. and, privations or the san character, I certainly am not prepared to do more than pray for those who despitefully use me. I think they stand in need of prayers, and it is all I can do for them. "Mr. President, we are discouraged," said a committee of freedmen to the President. "Richmond is as much in the hands of secessionists now as it was be fore Lee surrendered. Nominally free, we are yet the worst of slaves, and we e no hope of redress, unless you aid us." "Gentleman," answered Mr. Johnson,

It is but a short time since a distim-guished Senator called upon the Presi-dent. A delegation of Conservatives had just left him. Turning to the Senator, he said: "I wonder if those persons, who but now passed out, imagine that I forget the power and the party to which I owe my elevation. There was not a man in that delegation that woulden't have united in offering a reward for my scalp a few years ago, and now they talk to r

as if I owed everything to them, guess they'll find I heve a memory."

Again: A well known aditor of President: "The Democracy say you will yet be found with them. That you have always been a good Democrat, and Well, sir, you are at the liberty to tell all such gentleman that, while, as Presi-dent I shall eudeavor to drop any partiwill always so remain." "Do they," responded Mr. Johnson minent Northern journal said to the you must exercise patience. You are free, and the vainest Virginian shall yet not only acknowledge your freedom but your equality if you are true to your

"But the local and State laws of Virginia, Mr. President-

"What of the local and State laws of Virginia ? Until these F. F. V.'s come to their senses, I rather think United States bayonets will be about the only laws they shall have Go back to your homeswork, hard, do your duty; and I will see that the lowest among you is secured in his right and title to lile, fiberty and the pursuit of happiness."

As the President uttered this last renark, his face glowed with a high resolve, and I never saw manhood more sterling and erect than his ever lineament beto kened.

SHALL CANADA BE ANNEXED ?- The feeling of the Canadians in favor of the annexation of their province to this country is sepresented to be gradually growing and strengthening, notwithstanding some drawbacks with which it metin the late Commercial Convention at Detroit The provincials, while their towns remain dull and almost devoid of buisiness, glance across the line and see cities and yilages close to them alive with all the stir, hum and bustle of teeming trade and industry and quietly but earnestly long to be un der the flag and institutions in which such prosperty inheres. It is said that the contrast formed by the buisiness activity on one side of the border, and the ab sence of it on the other, is just now even ore marked than at any former time, and it is believed that unless the provincial Parliment does something at in next session giving promise of improvement to the Canadians, the annexation storn will break cut with fury .- But putting the question of annexation fair and square before the American people. Do they desire Canada to be annexed ? They on-turned the host: a good twelve miles "In what direction ?" asked the peddler.

"The very road you came up to-day, and a hard day's work you had gettin up; what do you expect to do in the night?"

"Have you no kind of an animal to lend me? I am going to leave my pack here; you need not fear to trust me with a ho

" No beast of mine could pick his way to-night; or should, if he could," he added in an undertone to himself.

The peddler had buttoned up his overcoat, and taken his long stick in his hand, before the host, convinced of his resolu-tion, slowly rose, and muffling himself up, took down his lantern, followed Giles to the gate, gave him the last direction looked on him receding through the dark ness as on one he was never again to behold alive, and returned to his comforta ble fire

A fearful journey through that winter night. Now and then the snow would hear the eries of the hungry wolves ; once to celebrate a funeral service to which all his creditors were to be invited, appear in deep mourning, and rejoin hin the spoils at Belgium. The wife faithfully followed the first part of her hus band's orders. She sold the stock in shop, had the funeral service celebrated, went into mourning, and ran off with th creditors' money, but instead of joinin nd, she ran in another direct with the clerk. Her husband had told her he was a man in whom she could place mplicit confidence. The husband, furi us at the double trick played on him aid information to the police, and all three have been arrested, tried, and senenced to imprisonment.

-How long Eve, the first woman, livd, we do not know. It is a curiops fact come drifting and driving against him, blinding, almost stunning, him; now and then, far off through the forest, he could of Abraham, is distinctly noted. Wo-large death and stoo intricate, and has too many contin-gencies to work successfully. The politi-cians will find that neither Grant or Sher, baran death of the store of way and cannot read hear the crics of the hungry wolves ; once may's age, ever since, appears not to have man have uses of or twice he missed his way, and then his been a subject for history or discussion. It is manipulated.

A BEAUTIEUL MISTAKE .- A lady in Nashville was making a visit to the peni-tentiary, and was permitted to look thro' don't see what I can do to make it clear." the various wards. In one room she saw Jemima. ree women engaged in sewing, and tu ning to the keeper, who was showing he unwilling to have any such odious trans ctions reported as occurred at their house

In future, we have resolved to publish every such outrage that is perpetrated, in about, said to him in an undertone : "Dear me ! the viciousest looking wo nen I ever saw in my life! What are they put here for ?'

"They are here," he replied, "becan I am here ; they are my wife and daugh ers, madam

But the visiting madam was travelin out as fast as possible

-Horatio Seymour is figuring for th emocratic nomination for Pres 1868. The plan adopted is to keep Sherman in view as a candidate, with no in ention of nominating him, but with a nope of producing a division between him, Grant and Johnson, and take advar tage of the confusion to run in a reliable nan, that man being Horatio. The play man have noses of waz, and cannot read

-At a wedding the other day, one the guests, who is often a little absentminded, observed gravely, "I have re marked that there have been more wome than men married this year.' -A gentleman of New York, inqui ed of Nye of Nevada, the other day, what but nurder those who win and trifle with he thought of Jeff. Davis in pettic "Think ?" said the Governor. "I think it is the last war-hoop of the rebellion.

-A gentleman, about whose Teuton rigin there could be but one opinion, w sing along the street, a few days sin when he came to a halt before one of the auge posters announcing the coming oram. of the Paradise Lost. word his line "A Rebellion in Heaven" when he broke forth as follows : "A Re bellion in Heaven; that lasts not long ow-Onkel Abe ish dare.

-It is said that the friends of Jeff. Davis in Washington are raising money rich scenes is anticipated.

for Mrs. Davis, who is represented as being in a state of destitution in Alabama, I - Because no woman possesses it.

a brawny plow-boy who looks muscular mough to take a bull by the tail and throw him over a staked and ridered fence.

-Murder has become a fashionable rime, and its popularity seems to be in--The Copperhead Organs are loud in ducement for its commission on the most the advocacy of the principle that intell-igence alone should be the qualification for the exercise of the elective franchize. rivial offenses. Maidens with broke earts no longer weep themselves to death,

If this principle were applied to that or their affections. Men suspicious of their ganization, it could not control a ward, wives, instead of cutting the connubial presinct, township or county in the knot, straightway cut some Lothario's throat or blow out his brains, and then United States.

live happily with their spouses, satisfied with the popularity thus acquired. with the Government in the effort to suppress rebellion became, during the war,

-Ex-Brigadier General Ramsey, the decided abolitiouist while every Northebel brute who ordered the imprise ern man who sympathized with treason ment of Governor Brownlow at Knox had his love for slavery intensified in the villo, in 1861, and to whom that gentle man is indebted for much hard and in human treatment, has been arrested and

-The Governme will shortly be tried at that place; upon which occasion the development of so prevail. -Why is a beard like eo W no kissed the girls on Sunday, the President what words he had to send his friends in Louisiana. "Tell them," said the President "to go to work and or-however it may have been by an owever it may have been by certain ganize the Government as quickly as ossible, and send on their Representa CONVICTION OF A PASTOR. -The trial tives to Congress. In this way they can of the Swedish Pastor, Lindbach, chargmanifest their patriotism, and insure a specedy return to the old ways of the ed with administering poison in the wi Constitution, of honor and civil governused for communion service, terminated as was expected, in his conviction. The chief difficulty was to assign sufficient motives, those named by the prisoner appearing utterly insufficient to account for hree or four successive murders. He as seried throughout that the murdered per ons were either incurables, or were in other ways likely to become burdens on his parish, and that it was for the purpose of relieving it of the burden of their -Every Southern Man who took part with the Government in the effort to sup-invest rehellion became during the war clesiastical vestments, and after sentence had been pronounced, he addressed th Judge and the Governor of the province acknowledging the justice of his sentence

He afteaword made a speech to the crow to similar effect, and expressive of his give out rations to the poor whites of confidence of obtaining pardon in the next Charleston, the greatest distress is said to world.

Bar Sickness is greatly increasing in Richmond