They are now busily engaged in praising the soldiers, whom last year they slandered, and in celebating the re-estabishment of the Union. They are even engaged in the pleasant process of eating the Chicago platform. But what has this party, in whose Ohio Convention Vallandigham was chief orator, in whose Penneylvania Convention Judge Black was an applauded teacher, who said, as Buchannan's Attorney-General,

Give him time. party is composed of those who have al-mass excused the most appalling crime against human mature, and the most fatal treason to the American principle of equal rights, under the pretenso of State than Whites. They are contended with less than we consider essential to com-fort, provided they may thus live easily. They have been trained to associate idle-ness with freedom and bona fide hard work in the field and the gin-house or sugar-mill with Slavery and its unspeak-able degradations. Tell them they are free and they want to test the assurance ce, and they want to test the assure y taking a trip to the nearest city and aving a few days leisure. And then here are among Blacks, as among Whites, here are among Blacks as among mough any who fancy themselves smart enough o get their hving without work and who t all events will try the experiment.— We have not these ten years had less than One Hundred Thousand Whites than One Hundred Thousand Whites in this City who are without property, yet who manage somehow to live—by gambling, pilfering, swindling, keeping haunts of vicious resort, receiving stolen goods, and serving in one grade or an-other of the quartermaster and commissa-ry departments of the grand army of Sa-tan. There is prejudice of color in that service, but no absolute exclusion; and we must expect to see it recruited by Blacks who, so long as they were slaves, were more usefully and creditably em-ployed.

ployed. We must not forget that work is, with most people, only a choice of evils. They would prefer idleness, but for the fact that this involves hunger and rags; and they prefer work with shelter, to idleness without. Take away the pecuniary or equivalent inducement, and how many of our White artisans or laborers would go to work to-morrow? We assume that there are negrees who won't work, since we know Whites of

We assume that there are negroes who won't work, since we know Whites of of that disposition. Any one of wide odrervation and experience can recall at least one white who, 'though poor as Lazarus, has not done one honest day's work per weck for the last ten years, yet who has begged or stolen a sort of living, and who is noisily hostile to Eemancipa-tion because (Niewa can't the open of tion, because "Niggers can't take care of themselves." others will not. We lately invited any and every hearty, old Abolitionist, who has tried to prosecute any industrial enterprise by negro labor, and been bafiled by the refusal of the Blacks to work, to favor us with his experience for the instruction and guidance of others. We presume there must be instances of this, though we never yet heard of one. We will con-sider the first that may reach us. Meantime, the following, from one
